THE APPROACHING CONTEST, A Spectacle for the World to admire!

While the Old World is shaken to its centre, governments upturned, and kingdoms wiped out, America is preparing for the election of her President, or in other words the people are about speaking in what manner they will be governed, as exemplified by the wishes of the majority, a great moral and political truth is again to be developed by the quiet use of the ballot box, and the world will see how republican liberty works out in its own sense.

PRUSSIA.

The following article will be read with interest at this time. We copy it from the Cincinnati "Queen City": "Prussia is situated upon the Southern border of the Baltic, with Poland and Russia upon the east, Austria upon the south, and several of the German States on the west. It lies between latitude 55 and 60 deg. N., and between 10 and 25 deg. lon. E. Greenwich. It embraces an area of 206,302 square miles, and has a population of 14,900,000. In government, Prussia is a military monarchy, almost absolute.

GEN. CASS IN NEW YORK. The New York Globe (Barnburners) says: We tell our readers that it is so impossible to elect the Baltimore nominees as it is to row a boat up the Niagara Falls with a crowbar. They cannot be elected. If every Democratic paper in this State should give the nomination a hearty support, the result would not be changed.

YOUNG MEN. The idea is prevalent in some communities, that young men are fit neither for general nor statesman, and that they must be kept in the back ground until their physical strength is impaired by age and their intellectual faculties become blunted by the weight of years.

HOW GEN. TAYLOR WILL RUN. Before Gen. Taylor was nominated, a report spread in New York that he had received the nomination. Whereupon the Evening Post (Locofoco) discouraged as follows: "We now look upon the Presidential question as virtually settled; General Taylor will be in the Presidential chair on the 4th of March if he is alive."

BLADENSBURG DUEL. We learn from the Elliptical Mills Free Press, that a hostile meeting took place at Bladensburg Md., last Thursday, between two midshipmen of the navy, Mr. Gale, of Worcester county, Md., and Mr. Dallas of Pennsylvania. The latter was wounded at the first fire, and fell from faintness and loss of blood—the former escaping unhurt.

HORRIBLE DEVELOPMENTS

The fate of Miss Sarah Furber, the factory girl of Manchester, N. H., has been ascertained. It appears that she was a victim of seduction. She afterwards was under treatment by the father of her seducer, Dr. McNabb, and died in consequence. The body was then placed in a box while warm, brought to this city by the Doctor himself, and sold to a physician with assurance that all was right. When the body was taken to a dissection room, it was ascertained by the Surgeon, from the appearance of the body that there was foul play in the matter and he ordered Dr. McNabb to take it away immediately.

They cannot be elected. If every Democratic paper in this State should give the nomination a hearty support, the result would not be changed.

THE ORPHEAN FAMILY. The Muscogee Democrat cautions the Press and public against patronizing the Orphans, on the ground that they attempted to leave Columbus without paying their Bills. The printers of Macon were happily exempt from this annoyance in part at least; but they were swindled by the same parties in a different way. They did not patronize them at all; but carried with them a batch of Programmes printed in Tennessee, in which it was gravely announced that certain of their songs were repented by special request.

GOOD ADVICE. The Richmond Whig of Thursday says: "Betting on Elections. As the Presidential canvass is about to commence, we take this opportunity to say a few words against this detestable practice. We believe that it contributed in no small degree to the deplorable result of the last election. Let us warn our friends against it, in this, while it is yet time. Nothing tends more directly to demoralize the public, and produce frauds which render the right of suffrage, so dear to freemen, and so necessary to the existence of a republic, a mere nullity, an idle form, without any useful purpose attached to it."

ANNALS OF A DROWNING MAN. A Drowning Man will catch at a Straw. Married at Buffalo on the 17th of Oct. J. A. Drowning to Mary A. Sewell. A father exhorting his son to early rising, related a story of a person who, early one morning, found a large pile of money. Well! replied the youth, but the person who lost it rose earlier!

THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE NOMINATION OF GEN. TAYLOR WAS PREMATURE, AND IT ADDED TO HIS REMARKS THESE:

"The foregoing paragraphs were written on receiving from the telegraph office here, a despatch to the effect that Gen. Taylor was elected. It now appears that the report was not true. We do not, however, correct what has been written. Taylor will be nominated by the Convention before its members separate, and our remarks will have the proper application."
