THE STAR.

STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY. When will the members of the Legislature meet and establish a State Agricultural Society?

NEW YORK. The Philadelphia Republic gives reported and official returns from the whole State of New York, showing the following totals:

Table with columns: State, Taylor, Cass. Lists states like Massachusetts, Vermont, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Kentucky, Tennessee, Michigan, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Maine, Indiana, Wisconsin, Florida, Illinois, Virginia, Mississippi, Iowa, Alabama, Texas, Arkansas.

The whole number of electoral votes is 290. Necessary to a choice 146. General Taylor has 163, which elects him, and he has seventeen votes to spare.

MISSISSIPPI. The vote in the several districts so far as heard from stands as follows:

ALABAMA. We publish to day (says the Montgomery Flag of Tuesday), the official vote of this State.

VIRGINIA. The Richmond Enquirer makes the majority for Cass in 137 counties 1,389, leaving Braxton county still to hear from...

GEORGIA Official. Full returns from Georgia have been received, and the vote by Congressional districts is as follows: Taylor, 43,156, Cass, 40,089; Taylor's majority, 3,061.

MAINE Official. The official returns, as given in the Augusta Age, show a plurality for Cass 4,859 over Taylor—Van Buren's vote is 15,124.

MASSACHUSETTS LEGISLATURE. The special business for which the session was called, was completed on Friday, by the choice of the Whig electors of President and Vice President.

HOGS. The Asheville Messenger of the 10th inst. says, "Hogs are now going through our town daily for the South, large, fine and fat; but we fear that owners will suffer in the pocket most distressfully."

HON. MILLARD FILLMORE.—We learn from the New York Commercial Advertiser that the Vice President elect of the United States was waited upon at the Irving House on Tuesday evening by the Whig general committee, and their chairman, Hon. Philip Hone addressed him in some congratulatory remarks.

THE GRAND RESULT. The returns and other information which we publish to day, appear to settle the question as to the doubtful States. The current list stands as follows:

Gen. Taylor Sketched by Judge Story. In the 3d volume of Judge Story's Commentaries on the Constitution of the United States, after a thorough analysis of the organization of the Executive Department...

From the Columbia South Carolina, Nov. 21. A Gen of Indian Eloquence. In the colonial and legislative records of this State are to be found many rare and valuable historical documents.

MR. CALHOUN AND S. CAROLINA. The Savannah Republican sums up the whole philosophy of South Carolina politics in the following well turned criticism:

HYPERBOLE. "Talk about yer darned fast lines," said a Yankee to a Cockney, who was so imprudent as to be the natural way of his countrymen to commence bragging on English railroads...

THE ADMINISTRATION AND GEN. SCOTT. The Washington correspondent of the Bal's Patriot says that mutual explanation, have taken place between the Government and Gen'l Scott; and that he will assume his old quarters and position.

me, "Who on earth owns this big garden with white palins around it? "I dont see no white palins," ses he. "I dont see nothin' else" ses I, "and a mighty tall fence it is too."

Another Southern Movement.—We have received from Charleston an official document, containing a report of the proceedings of a meeting held in pursuance of a call made by the Democratic Taylor party...

Fact again, by thunder. Why I was on the New York car when them air steam whistles was first tried. May be you've heard of the terrible accident?—No! Well, sir, we were going it strong.

"Bless your soul, no; Congress stopped 'em right off, and now we act on the philosophic principle that light travels an a foot eight feet less than sound, which will do perhaps for this generation. We now tell 'em we're comin' by bustin' out a light that does astonish animal creation—and I reckon rather astonished the planetary system at first."

Hydrophobia cured by Chloroform.—It appears by the letter from the physician who attended the recent case of hydrophobia at Camden, N. J., that a cure of this fearful disease has been effected through the agency of chloroform.

From the Columbia South Carolina, Nov. 21. A Gen of Indian Eloquence. In the colonial and legislative records of this State are to be found many rare and valuable historical documents.

"I am one of the lingering survivors of an almost extinguished race. Our graves will soon be our only habitations. I am one of the few stalks which remain in the field where the tempest of the Revolution passed—I fought against the British for your sake. The British have disappeared and you are free yet from me have the British took nothing, nor have I gained any thing by their defeat."

GEN. TAYLOR, we believe is the first Major General in actual commission, who has been "dismissed" from the service by the people. In this instance a term of ordinary reproach becomes a high compliment.

Another Southern Movement.—We have received from Charleston an official document, containing a report of the proceedings of a meeting held in pursuance of a call made by the Democratic Taylor party...

Here is language which has meaning.—"Responsibility and danger" is talked about by one of the sovereigns of this Union—or by some of its people. And to this responsibility and danger, that State invites the participation of all the slaveholding States, and accordingly proposes a general convention thereof, but is wedded to no particular scheme.

Communications with the Pacific.—The line of Steamers from New York to Chicago, to connect, by an overland transit across the Isthmus, with another line from Panama to San Francisco, and the mouth of the Columbia, is to go into operation during the next month.

THE next year will probably witness a large emigration to both sections of our territory beyond the Rocky Mountains. The main tide of this moving population will roll over the prairie of the West, and traversing countless acres of fertile land occupied, it will pour itself through the gorges of the mountains and spread along the coast and the valleys communicating with it.

KEEP CLEAN GARDENS. It is rather too common for people to allow weeds to grow up toward the close of the season, and particularly on plots where early crops have been gathered. This is decidedly bad economy. Weeds are unsightly besides they exhaust the ground of their riches.
