CORRECTION. In the brief notice given n our last, of the debate between Messty, Stany and Courts, on the propriety of Mr. Etla's. ssignation, Mr. Gonth was erroneously represented to have said is was a novel thing, in-North Carolina for a member of the Legislature upon his election to a Judge-htp, to resignhis sext in that body. The position taken by Mr. C. was, that it was a novel thing to inquire of a member thus elected, as proposed by Mr. Stanly's resolution, whether he accepted the appointment.

THE WEATHER. The whole of December, with the exception of but few days, hangiven us the most remarkably warm and mild! weather ever experienced at the same season in this climate. A great deal of it has been likeropositions and Grievances, reported a bill summer. Vegetation has put forth, and Irish potatoes are up four inches high in our garden. On Wednesday last, at 2 o'clock, p. m., the mercury s'ood, in Fahrenheit's thermometers hanging at the northern end of a cool pasage, at 78, two degrees above summer heat, and it. Creek Canal, reported a substitute for said did not vary much from that point for many days. But liede pork has yet been put up. and some of that fittle has been lost. If is, mittee on Finance were instructed to inquire however, growing colder, and we hope now into the expediency of increasing the tax for a litle winter. Yesterday morning we had a thin crust of ice. And we see by our exchanges that they had a violent snow storm at the North on Friday last.

HOSPITAL FOR THE INSANE.

We are gratified to state that the bill to provide for the establishment of a Hospital for the Insanc of this State, has passed the Commons by an overwhelming majority,

MR. BADGER ELECTED. We have the pleasure of announcing to our readers, that the Hon. GEO. E. BADGER. was, on Wednesday last, elected United States Senator for six years from and after the 4th of March next. This news will be hailed with satisfaction and delight by a large majority of the people of the whole State. His election was desired by the Whig party, and by them and all parties expected. There are in the Whig ranks many able and worthy men who would have adorned the station and reflected equal honor upon the State and the country in that Great Dismawamp, &c., and to extend capacity; and such are those who were voted for in opposition to Mr. Badger. Mr. B., from his distinguished ability and taithful and zealous labors for the public good in the Senate of the United States, became most prominent in the public eyes and was regarded by the people of the State and of the Union as possessing paramount claims, and his election was therefore considered as a matter of course.

The factious opposition to his election by the Democracy was also a matter e course, being in perfect character with their uniform and violent opposition to the Whige in every matter, right or wrong. But we confess, we were not prepared to see the Democratic members of the Legislature giring their votes to Mr. Clingman-(as will be seen they did)—an able and sterling Whig, who has been as bitterly and vilely denounced by their partisan leaders as his Mr. Badger, as a traitor to the South. Mr. Clingman, all know, is true as steel to the South and to the country -is as high-minded, honorable and patriotic as he is talented able and and fearless in the discharge of his public duties and the very large democrat vote given to him for Senator proves to insincerity of the charges heretofore brought against him by that party-shows that they themselves did not believe them-that they were falsely and wilfally made for ju purposes-furnishes a complete and to umphant vindication of Mr. C., from their own denunciations - and tells the people truthfully how little confidence is to be placed in such charges, omanating from such COUNTERFEITERS ARRESTED. The Fayetteville Observer states # three men who have been traveling as horse droves, in Richmond and Columbus cou-ties, paying their bills, a waping and boyle horses with $10 counterfeit bills on Bank of Cape Fear, have been arrested a lodged in the jail of Richmond county.

They passed these bills to Col. Manish and to Messrs, Nelson and Hiram Gibso among others; and called themselves Th Green, of Caswell county, F. W. P. ants and McLain.
