

The Evening Visitor.

VOL. 2—NO. 12.

RALEIGH, N. C. TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1879.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EVENING VISITOR.

Prices are advancing much more rapidly than our frontier troops.

The horrid zone—the latest fashion in ladies' belts.

All-wool scotch suitings find favor with the ladies.

Silk handkerchiefs are being substituted for ties of lace.

The frosty weather has given impetus to warm tinted hosiery.

A white silk kerchief carelessly knotted around the neck is stylish.

Black velvet bracelets with a lace butterfly poised on top are pretty.

The Scotch shawl for traveling is thick, spongy, light and warm.

A graceful poem on October alludes to "hill-ides clad in opal haze."

THE PLACE TO BUY Groceries at bottom prices is at Johnson & Wiggs.

Roller gold plate bracelets are advertised at 62 cents a pair in Gotham.

Gorgeous velvet butterflies flutter among the autumn millinery laces.

The crimson sunbonnet bought it lutes the yellow groves with fiery plumes.

A Large Lot of Soap, cheap at wholesale, at Johnson & Wiggs.

The height of fashion and the height of folly reach to about the same attitude.

Cats have nine lives, and in order to live every one of them they have to stay up nights.

It's on the cards that when a lady dons a new suit the eyes of all the other ladies follow.

The genuine brand of modesty can readily be recognized when compared with a mock humility.

A Choice Lot of N. C. Hams at Johnson & Wiggs.

Don't laugh at the cat for running round after her tail. She is only pursuing herself as you are yours.

We call special attention to the attractive and well known Jacob Higgs' series in this issue. If you want anything good in the eating line just drop in, and see Mr. Higgs. He will treat you all right. His house is kept on the European plan.

FIRST PREMIUM. The New England Organ was awarded the first premium at the late North Carolina Fair. J. L. Stone, agent, No. 18 Fayetteville street.

There are more watches worn in the United States than in any other country. Of course the people have a better time.

Mr. S. J. Freeman is still confined at home by sickness.

Fiddlers are getting out their resin, and it will not be long before country ball rooms will echo to the cry: "Take your positions for a cotillion!"

LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAP. Stewart's Gallery is the only place for cheap pictures. Sitings made free before you pay.

Why will people "put an enemy in their mouth to steal their brains away?" Perhaps for revenge, in inducing the enemy to hunt for something that can't be found.

What is the net profit if a boy obtains two quarts of nuts and tears his best trousers to rags in "shining" the tree? Some parents are now engaged in solving this problem.

See Mrs. R. A. Beasley's notice. She will sell her fine stock of goods at New York and Baltimore cost for the next sixty days. Give her a call.

The brightest day is not without some shadow. The era of prosperity has at last dawned, but how one hangs on to the gaunt skeleton of the departed hard times when he hears that piano manufacturers report that at no time during the last sixty years has the trade in pianos been so active as now.

He that has ears to hear will hear more of this later.

Mrs. S. A. Mowatt gives notice that she is prepared to repair and clean all of your old clothes and make them look like new. Give her a trial.

IF YOU DON'T BELIEVE IT go and see for yourselves. Why that D. S. Waitt & Bro. have the prettiest Sack Suits of ready made clothing in the city.

The finest Red King Apples in the city at George Goldman's.

For the best fitting dress shirts go to Levy's.

Twenty thousand dollars worth of old bonds surrendered for exchange to day at the Treasury.

Penniman & Bro. Baltimore had a drummers' license issued to them to day.

Only two drummers before the Mayor this morning. They gave them 12 hours each in the guard house.

Mr. C. C. Clawson returned from Philadelphia last night. He says his machines are progressing all right.

If you are in need of a suit of ready made clothing go to J. M. Rosenbaum's. He has a full and complete stock. He also keeps hats, gentlemen's ready made underwear and several other articles too numerous to mention. Call and examine his stock before purchasing.

George Goldman has just received another lot of Fine Butter.

Cold. Overcoats in demand.

Regular meeting of the Raleigh Light Infantry at 8 o'clock to-night.

Gen.—1st, as many as you can afford; 2d, about right; 3d, spicy enough; 4th, enough news. Come again.

You can get the best country cider in the city at L. D. H. Whitehead's on Wilmington street, next to Woolcott's open front. Call and get a glass.

GOLD MEDAL.—First premium awarded the New Home Sewing Machine in 1878. Also, another medal awarded by the late fair.

Mr. J. P. Hayes is a happy man. He says it's a girl and the finest in the city.

New York election to day. Mr. Lincke's gymnasium is the most popular resort in the city.

The Board of County Commissioners met at the poorhouse to-day.

Mr. Thos. B. Ryan and lady from near Albany, N. Y., are at the Yarboro House. Mr. Ryan is on his way to Hillsboro to commence the publication of a news paper there. It will be his chief aim to induce the great tide of emigration to come to North Carolina instead of going west. His paper will be democratic in politics. We wish him success.

The latest improved Singer Machines for sale at J. L. Stone's office. Price $25.

Improve the condition of your horses and increase the flow of milk from your cows by buying the prepared mill feed of Jones, Green & Powell. They have constantly on hand a nice supply of wood and coal, which you know makes the fire side so cheerful.

LASTING AND MOST EXPERIENCED this season. See notice of Mr. J. S. Taylor's removal from Fayetteville to Wilmington street.

Mr. R. E. Lumsden and lady returned to the city last night from their bridal tour.

Oh yes! plenty of them! Turkeys, eggs, chickens, and in fact, two barrels horse apple vinegar.

J. L. Stone has taken the agency for the sale of E. Butterick & Co.'s Patterns. No one else will be supplied with these patterns but by him, as he is the exclusive agent. His first order consists of $600 worth of these elegant patterns. They will arrive in a few days.

One case of diphtheria in Newbern.

Chickens are dying up in Newbern. The Nutshell says a Mr. Tisdale thinks they are dying with diphtheria.

A tramp was killed by the train at Harrisburg the other day.

A shooting affray came off on Saturday night last in Petersburg, Va., between two young men of high respectability, Young and Hinton, in which the latter was shot through the heart and instantly killed. The cause was whiskey and politics. It is a sad commentary on the Southern press, to say, that although the affair occurred in an adjoining state, we hear of it first through the New York papers.

THE NEW ENGLAND ORGAN was awarded the First Premium at the fair last week. J. L. Stone, agent, No. 18, Fayetteville street, Raleigh, N. C.

NOTICE FOR THE LADIES. Arrival of fine worsted goods for children and infants at Madame Beson's.

Three hundred bales of cotton received up to hour of going to press.

Cotton quoted to-day at 10 1/2 to 10 3/4. Tone of market steady.

See notice of Mr. J. W. Cole in this issue. He wants a good milk cow, if you have a good cow to sell, he is the man to apply to.

Wm. Hunter, Jr. to the Secretary O. Hunter, Jr. for a complimentary ticket to the Industrial Fair which commences here on the 17th inst.

You had better go to Mr. A. D. Kuster and pay your city taxes for 1879, and save trouble.

Mr. F. L. Hill has splendid cent cigars. Go and try them.

Justice Court.—Justice Barbee disposed of the case of the State vs. Jerry Green, Wm. Branch, and Riley Philips this morning, for injury to seal property. He bound them over to the next term of the Superior court in a bond of $50 each.

Lovely day. No marriage license issued to-day.

FIRE ALARM SIGNALS.—The following are the signals indicating the position of fires in the city:

North of Hargett and east of Fayetteville, 1st division, designated by one tap of the bell.

South of Hargett and east of Fayetteville, 2nd division, designated by two taps; south of Hargett and west of Fayetteville, 3rd division, designated by 3 taps; north of Hargett and west of Fayetteville, 4th division, designated by 4 taps. A continuous alarm without any taps indicates that the fire is on one of the blocks bordering on Fayetteville street.

NOTES AND NUDGES. BY P. O. T. HOOKS, M. D., OF NEW YORK.

The country is the place for rabbit transit now.

Although man is the only animal that can be induced to drink liquor, beef occasionally gets sorned.

All the cloths Adam had for a long time was the close of day, while the mantle of night was his bed-clothes.

A gentleman travelling through Volusia county, Fla., recently, saw the following on a signboard on the outside of a store:

To trust is to bust,
To bust is hell;
No trust, no bust,
No bust; no hell.

"The mills of the gods grind slowly." This is all because the hands are paid by the day. Will the gods never learn that it is to their interest to let but work by contract?

STATE NEWS. The Journal of Industry will be run daily during Fair week.

Rockingham is afflicted with gypsies, says the Bee.

Concord sports lock boxes, says the Bee.

Goldspore had a $1,200 fire last Thursday.

We regret to learn that both the editors of the Elizabeth City Telegram each lost a child last week.

The Telegram says the first day of the Elizabeth City Fair was sparsely attended.

Forest fires are burning on the mountains near Peekskill, in the Highlands New York. Many acres of woodland have been destroyed, and the fire is spreading. Forest fires are also prevailing in the Blue Ridge mountain, Rappahannock and other sections of Virginia.
