

The Evening Visitor.

VOL. 2—NO. 14.

RALEIGH, N. C. THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1879.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EVENING VISITOR
W. M. COLEY, Local Editor.

NOTICE.—If the boy to whom I gave my valise to take to the depot yesterday, will return it, I will pay him $5 for the same and ask no question. I gave it to him at the corner of Wilmington and Morgan streets. The valise has my name on it in two places. Leave the valise at the marble yard or at Mr. Clayton's house, who will pay for it. The party is known. If not returned in two days will be dealt with according to law. W. O. WOLFE.

Never strike an average when it is down.

A schooner that always tips—a beer schooner.

Walnut buttons inlaid with white wood are out.

An open question—Why don't you shut that door?

The latest cut of sandwich is called the "corner store."

Derby hats are both fashionable and pretty for young ladies.

E. Dittman, of New York took out a drummers license to day.

The aged negro and the corn cob pipe is the latest combination.

Neither wrong use your time, nor shamefully abuse your credit.

What often passes for the Golden Rule is merely very poor plate.

Jack frost has kissed the maples, and they are blushing a rosy red.

An exchange says that mince pie for 1880 will be composed of fourteen ingredients.

Now is the coal man's time to smile, while the ice dealer begins to look despondent.

The Circuit Court will meet in this city the last Monday in November, being the 24th inst.

Buckwheat cakes and syrup, with hot coffee and rolls to cheer up, are pleasant contemplations.

Mr. W. F. Craig of Salisbury is in the city, stopping with his father-in-law, Mr. P. F. Pesend.

Leave your business annoyances with the dust of your offices, and carry sunshine into the home circle.

This is the time of the year at which young men exhorted his landlady to put another blanket on his bed.

Don't fail to read the letter of "Mose" which appears in this issue. It is good and will prove quite interesting.

Dr. James McKee is having a nice little cottage built on Bloodworth street, opposite Mr. John D. Thompson's blacksmith shop.

The Mayor sent John Fort, colored, to jail to day, in default of a $50 bond for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.

Our friend, John Porter, at Brewster's hardware store, will take pleasure in waiting on his friends and the public generally when they call. John is a nice gentleman, and will treat you all right. Pay him a visit.

Judge C. D. Upchurch has sold his calico horse to Mr. R. H. L. Look out.

The colored people are anticipating a grand time on the 17th and in these anticipations we hope they will not be disappointed.

There are 135 students at present at Wake Forest College, and the cry is still they come.

J. M. Rosenbaum's is the place to get ready made clothing. He is such a yucca gentleman, as deal with, besides his prices are very moderate. Call and see him.

The lamp at the corner of Martin and Wilmington streets was burning at 8 o'clock this morning. Oil is plentiful, we suppose.

Judge Strong will lecture to his class, at his office, in the Pullen building, opposite the post office, to morrow night.

An English fashion is to give parties at which the guests appear as some flower, fruit or vegetable. The lady who goes as a sugar beat is usually said to be dressed in the best taste.

He came in from the country to visit one of our city belles. He heard the bell of the milk wagon and asked the lady what that bell was ringing for. She told him it was the bread and cake wagon. He insisted on treating her to cakes and had to be held to keep him from buying all the cakes and bread the man had in his wagon for her.

While our article yesterday may have seemed to reflect on the inefficiency of our police, yet nothing was farther from our intentions. When a robbery of any kind is perpetrated in the city they do all in their power to ferret it out. They leave no stone unturned to do all parties full justice, and it gives us pleasure to make this statement.

The melancholy days are come,
The saddest of the year;
Of buckwheat cakes and scarlet rash,
And five cent lager beer.
Heaped in the hollows of the grove,
The autumn leaves lie dead,
And festivals and cabbages
Are fifteen cents a head,
The robin and the wren are flown,
And from the shrub the jay,
And by the fire the loafer toasts
His shins the live long day.

In the recent election in New York Cornell, Rep., received a large majority over Robinson, Dem. It is thought the Republican will have 25 majority in the Senate and 48 in the House. Long rep., is elected over Butler in Massachusetts. Large gains in Illinois by the republicans.

We were shown one of the prettiest and best gotten up advertisements this morning we ever saw. It was for W. T. Blackwell & Co., of Durham, and was gotten up by Maj. T. H. Blackwell, of the Yarboro House. The Major is the general Agent for the Southern States for this firm. It is very strange that this firm have never seen fit to advertise in the Visitor yet. We hope to have the pleasure of laying their advertisement before our readers soon.

Cotton sold for 10½ to-day.
Choice sold for 10½.

Revenue receipts, $1,433.44

One marriage license issued to-day.
Go and pay your county and State taxes.
Gov. Jarvis has returned from his visit to Greenville.

400 bales of cotton received up to the home of the press.

Hon. John Manning, of Pittsboro, is registered at the Yarboro.

Mr. J. A. Briggs returned from a brief trip to Wilmington yesterday.

The Sheriff sent deputy Rogers out to St. Mary's Township to-day to look after taxes.

Mr. T. B. Macon's oyster saloon is the most popular place in the city. He keeps good oysters and sells them cheap.

Miss Painter preached to a good audience at Person Street Church last night. She leaves on the 8 o'clock train to-night for Fayetteville.

Be sure to read what Thomas Donaldson says in our advertising columns. He keeps a full supply of beef, pork, and sausage on hand all the time. Give him a call.

A man can never pass around a hat on the sidewalk without kicking it, yet a hat may be passed around in a church aisle, and everybody will feel obliged to put money in it respectfully. It all depends upon the style and location of the hat.

A Deputy Sheriff went out to Houses Creek Township yesterday, and spent the day looking after taxes. He succeeded in collecting 13 cents during the entire day. The Sheriff says if the people don't do better, they will see "ructions." Good gracious!

MARRIED.—At Salisbury Street Baptist Church at 9 o'clock last night, Mr. W. A. Farris was united in marriage to Miss Lucy J. Betts, Rev. Dr. Thomas E. Skinner, the pastor, officiating. They entered the church in the following style and took their positions at the altar; Mr. Frank H. Heartt and Miss Lucy Tighe; Mr. Robert King and Miss Minnie Betts; Mr. Henry L. Thomas and Miss Annie Barber; Mr. Kalford Kneth and Miss Valu Marcom; Mr. W. A. Slater and Miss Emma Parrish; Mr. Chas. Farris and Miss Davinia Kreth. We wish the newly married couple all the happiness possible in this world.

SPRING.—Young girls and young men grow up to manhood and womanhood and marry. In after years they have a large family of little ones. Then it is you hear the old gentleman say, when he hears of some new couple going to be married, "Ah! poor young man. He had better stay single. Same way with old married ladies. They give the same advice. Some times people marry and their marriage life is disagreeable. Then you can hear the man curse all women and say they are frauds. Some way with women about men. Each one will say that if they were single they would never marry again; and that people are fools to get married. But just let a marriage take place at the church and you can see these same old croak-ers on the front seats, sitting there as though their patis had been strewn with roses. It is strange people will talk so, and then almost bow their necks trying to get to church first—sometimes, two hours before the fair. Oh, curiosity! mighty is thy grip!

JURORS FOR U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—The following is a list of the jurors that have been drawn for the November term of the U. S. Circuit Court, which meets in this city on the 24th of November: W. NOTES AND NUDGES.

BY P. O. T. HOOKS, M. D., OF NEW YORK.

There is nothing quite so rash as the measles.

The plum harvest is at hand and the plumbers are having full crops.

Why is a glass of fresh lager like a mad dog? Because it froths at the mouth.

It is all very well to talk about "plowing the water," but they often use hose for water.

Melancholy barber (with soul above his business)—"I don't get much of a livin' by it, sir!" Customer (through the lather)—"Then you ought—for you scrape—hard enough—for it!"

Skirts are to be gathered to the waist this winter, says the fashion journals. Hevings! are we going to have mud waist deep!—[Miss Addie Boyd. No, no, that means the waist of the young men, and includes the young woman in the skirt.]

STATE NEWS.

For a model newspaper we refer our readers to the Baltimore Sun. Anything in the world you want in the way of reading, can be found in that paper. Only 50 cents a month.

A Mr. Chapel, of Dutchville township, recently died from the effects of a bullet shot by Gen. Francis Marion's men during the Revolutionary war.—Oxford Torchlight.

Miss Betie Longest is at home again, after a long absence.—Alamance Gleaner. That's the longest name we ever heard.

Diphtheria in Winston. A well developed child, weighing 11-2 pounds, was born recently near Winston, says the Leader.

The first case of prosecution for carrying concealed weapons, is in Charlotte.—Winston Leader. Mistake. Happened in Raleigh about a month ago.
