

The Evening Visitor.

VOL. 2-NO. 16

RALEIGH, N. C. MONDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1879.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EVENING VISITOR.

W. M. STEWART, Editor.

Striped cashmere hose are new.

Pinched waists are now thought vulgar.

The jewelry windows begin to be more eyed.

An engagement ring should be worn with perfect nonchalance.

The toy and confectionery men are laying in Christmas supplies.

A week of cold weather is all that is needed to make business boom.

Be patriotic; get married this year. The census will be taken in 1880.

The eyes of a majority always put the noses of the minority out of joint.

Some of the expensive flannel skirts are bridged nearly half a yard deep.

The boy who is well spanked fully realizes the deep meaning of stern justice.

Stoves, ulsters and fur caps are in order, and behind them stalks the plumber.

How rapidly a man loses all interest in politics when he shuts the door on his own thumb!

When a man takes soda water in this season of the year you may be sure there is something in it.

Competent authority states that the bonnets are lovelier this season than they have been for years.

The American twenty dollar gold piece has succeeded the English sovereign and the gold standard of the world.

The coal wave has come, he remarked, as the scuttle fell from his hand and the anthracite went rattling over the stars.

Avoid people who, by their lack of refinement, make you appear excessively ridiculous when you ask them for the loan of a dime.

No matter how handsome a family monument a man may have in the cemetery, he wants to lay on his back and look up at it.

Nothing is more tantalizing to a sick man, when he feels as he could drink a barrel of water, than to be proffered a goblet of the precious beverage and then choked off with a single mouthful.

An article is going the rounds treating on the best method of putting away potatoes. A family of about eight, including three boys and three girls, can operate potatoes as successfully as necessary.

The elections are over north but the excitement is increasing among the people on account of the cheap price of ready made clothing at J. M. Rosenbaum's. If the rush continues he will be compelled to order the second stock of fall and winter goods. Go early if you want a suit of nice clothes.

Industrial fair next Monday.

Yesterday was a regular summer day.

Read piece of poetry headed "Joy at Home."

Never go back on the man who wears a dirty shirt.

We were glad to see Uncle David Dudley able to be on the streets to day.

Mrs. Lucy Blake, we regret to learn, had a slight stroke of paralysis on one side.

We regret to learn that Capt. T. F. Lee's oldest daughter is quite sick with diphtheria.

Mr. C. C. Clawson the popular paper hanger &c., makes a very important announcement. Read it.

The Engineer on the shifting engine at the R. & G. R. R. Shops, had his face scalded very badly yesterday morning.

Mr. Graham Haywood left to day for the eastern part of the State, in the interest of the hardware business.

Frank Johnson, colored, got his hand badly lacerated Sunday by the explosion of a kerosene lamp.

Mr. H. C. Olive will have a cow and young calf at Prichard & Brooks lot to-morrow morning which he will sell cheap for cash.

Read the notice of Drs. Crawford & Everitt. They have removed their office to the second floor over the Messrs. Tucker's store.

The city authorities are having a substantial brick walk put down on South Hargett street, near the corner of person. A great improvement.

Mr. Geo. B. Harward proposes to walk and run to Louisburg and return, (a distance of 60 miles) within 9 hours. He challenges the State. Who will take him up?

The citizens living in the northern portion of the city near the corner of Peace and Blount streets need a new lamp. Can't the board of Aldermen accommodate them.

A fashionable garnet can now be made by taking your husband's ulster, dyeing it brown, cutting off the breast, pockets, gathering it behind and sewing ten cents' worth of black ruching around the neck.

Don't fail to remember that Emmerson's Directory is in the hands of the printer and will be ready for delivery in a few days. Those who have subscribed will be called on in a few days by the regular authorized agents. Be ready when he calls.

The gentleman who exchanged hats with Mr. John Wyatt at the Edenton St. Church, yesterday is requested to return it. He will please leave it at Messrs. D. S. Wait, Bro's Store, where he can get his own.

Churches had good congregations yesterday.

John T. Morris, Esq., left yesterday afternoon for Baltimore, on business.

Regular meeting of Hook and Ladder Company at 7 1/2 o'clock to-morrow night, sharp.

Don't take our word for it but go and buy some of Mr. E. J. Hardin's milk lunch biscuits.

The Sheriff waits anxiously and patiently for you to call and pay your State and county taxes.

For drugs of all kinds and good cigars go to Mr. Frank Hart. He will fix 'em up all right.

Take up your old pin cushions, ladies. A lady friend of ours tore up an old one the other day and found 45 needles stored away in it.

Emmerson's Directory is in the hands of the printer and will be ready for delivery in about ten days. Agents will call on the people for their subscriptions. Everybody should have a copy of this directory.

Foot sore and tired this morning we meandered into the Treasurer's office and enquired of Mr. Worth if he had any news items.

"Not a bond or drummers license has been issued to day." We bade him good morning and started for the Governor's office, thinking we would certainly get some items there. But, alas! we were doomed to disappointment, for we met the Governor at the door who told us there was no news in his department.

We rushed out and made for the Auditor's office believing we would certainly get a half column of items there, but, we were disappointed again. We found Mr. Partin, the clerk and Mr. Sherwood Haywood, the handsome Librarian, discussing the best mode of how to raise a muld that has been on the lift for two days at Oakwood Cemetery. We left in disgust and returned to our office, wondering what our readers will say this evening, when they read the Visitor and see that everything is so quiet at the State capital.

Justice Barbee disposed of two civil cases this morning.

The youngest child of Capt. W. W. White is quite sick.

Go to Lincke's gymnasium to night, and grow strong.

SAD ROMANCE.—A dispatch from Catskill, N. Y. announces the finding of the dead body of a woman in a field near that place a few days ago, the remains being since identified by Henry Bischoff, a banker of New York, as those of a Mrs. Volebach, who had been in the habit of procuring bills of exchange on Paris monthly from him in sums of $25, to send to Paris, where her niece, a Philadelphia girl, was studying music, and with no other means except those sent by the devoted aunt. It is said the niece recently made a successful debut in Paris.

HOUSE INSPECTIONS.—MEMPHIS, Nov. 8.—House to house inspection was begun yesterday, under the auspices of the National Board of Health, with a view to ascertain what improvements are necessary for each dwelling within the corporate limits of the city.

EXAMINATION OF JAMES M. YOUNG.—Petersburg, Va., Nov. 7.—The examination of James M. Young, who killed George Hinton Saturday last, began in Mayor Cameron's Court this morning. An immense crowd was in attendance to hear the testimony. The prisoner, who wore a very dejected look, occupied a seat next to his father and opposite his counsel. The testimony of a dozen or more witnesses was taken and written down by two of the counsel for the defense, and also by Captain Hinton and Mayor Cameron, to be used before the jury at the final trial before Judge E. M. Mann. The examination, which excites much interest, will continue to-morrow, and will probably last several days.

A long season of activity in mining stocks is expected in San Francisco.
