EVENING VISITOR.

SANFORD AND APEX.—We made a brief visit to these two towns located on the R. & A. A. L. Railroad, and found the people in the best of spirits.

At Sanford we were most hospitably entertained at the Page Hotel, kept by Mr. W. C. Page. He keeps a most excellent table and consequently the majority of the traveling public put up there. We waited on the people and succeeded in getting several subscribers for THE VISITOR.

We took tea with Mr. Robt. M. Brown, by special invitation, and heartily enjoyed the kind hospitality of himself and family.

At 6 o'clock, Wednesday morning we took the train and at 7:15 were at Apex and were soon quartered at the hospitable mansion of the Rev. J. M. Holleman. After a good breakfast, we waited on the kind people and were rewarded by a large list of subscribers. Spent the day very pleasantly, took tea with Mr. W. Frank Utley, one of the leading merchants of the place, and after a good night's rest, boarded the train at 7:30 o'clock, and at 8:15 o'clock a. m. we were in THE VISITOR office, ready to pay our respects to the many kind friends of THE VISITOR in this city.

Steve Jones, the umbrella man, was arrested in Tarboro, Thursday morning, accused of breaking into a house in that place. He was immediately released, as nothing could be proven against him.

Go to Moseley's to morrow for ice cream.

Mrs. Meeker and her daughter, Josephine, who were captives with the Indians for several weeks, were given a reception upon their arrival at Greeley, their old home, a few days ago. The whole populace met them at home, and hundreds of men, women and children followed the carriages to the house prepared for the occupancy of the unfortunate women. Mrs. Price, their fellow sufferer, was given benefit performances at the theatre, and will be presented with a house.

Moseley will have ice cream to-morrow.

A RICH MAN'S WILL.—The will of the late John J. Abernethy, medical director of the United States Navy, was filed for probate in the surrogate's office at New York Tuesday. He left a very large estate, which he divided in sums of from $100,000 to $25,000 between his relatives. To his sister-in-law, Mrs. Sarah McLean Abernethy, he leaves a life interest in the estate of $10,000, and at her death he directs that $20,000 shall go to Yale College to found a fellowship to be known as the "John J. Abernethy Fellowship."

J. Y. Parkhill, grocer, has disappeared from Kingston, Ont. His liabilities are about $15,000.

JOY AT HOME.

The beautiful Singer has come at last, which has been expected for some days past. So away with New Home, and, alas! poor White, The Singer has beaten you clear out of sight.

Now, Jones, our agent, with busy like hand, Is selling them out all over the land; So all bogus agents you know very well You violate the law whenever you sell.

And parties there are who are watching your way, And before you know it your tax you must pay, And then you will weep, your money to spend, But the law will be forced to the very bitter end.

Then Jones comes 'round with a smile on his face, Takes up old machines and Singers replace; And then the work is done so good and so neat— Away with all others, for this can't be beat.

So, friends, all remember the words I now say, Don't buy other machines and your money throw 'way, But try the new Singer and I really do say, If your work isn't done well I ask you no pay.

HOUSE AND LOT.

Said house and lot is on the west side of Blount street in the eastern part of the city, southeast of Geo. T. Cooke's hotel and on the same square. Said lot is 52 1-2 feet wide in front, running back 210 feet; one quarter of an acre, more or less. The house has two good rooms; there is also a good store room attached to it; the lot has on it a kitchen and other necessary out-houses, and a splendid well of water.

ALSO, at the same time and place, I shall proceed to sell an

UNIMPROVED LOT.

Said lot lies south of the above mentioned lot and adjoining it. This lot is 45 feet wide in front, running back 140 feet, and is a beautiful lot to build on. Titles good.
