LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

The Industrial exhibition of the colored people of North Carolina which commenced in this city to day, inaugurated a new era among the people of that class in North Carolina which we are proud to record.

If instead of devoting their energies and thoughts to the political questions of the day, our colored friends will direct their attention to the practical questions of the day, they will not only advance their material interests, but will add greatly to the advancement of the best interests of the people of all classes. The fair, in all departments, bids fair to be a credit to the energy of the colored race, and we sincerely hope that its success will be such as to insure its annual continuance.

The fair will be formerly opened by the Governor to morrow.

MARRIED.—New Hill, N. C., Nov. 15, 1879.—Editor VISITOR:—While making a monotonous journey through the "wilder of Wake," on the evening of the 13th inst., I chanced to stumble upon a neat little house where several merry, rosy faced girls were burning me through with their "blue darters," and seeing one of my acquaintances (nothing more, of course, I stopped and found, what? Why only an invitation to partake of a wedding supper. Mr. D. Q. Womble was well tied to the apron strings of Miss Roena J. Hunter, all of Wake. Your correspondent was delighted, elevated and astonished, having the night before been married at that glorious wedding of "Old Brown's" daughter at Osgood. We wish them happy lives. E. R. A.

METEORIC SHOWER.—Editor VISITOR:—Inasmuch as so many have been disappointed in not seeing the display of the meteoric showers, I would suggest that when it does happen the ringing the alarm bell, and even if the fire department should turn out they may try their hand on the meteors. SENEY.

WOULD IT NOT?—Editor VISITOR:—Would it not be advisable for the Board of Aldermen to forbid officers of the market from buying at wholesale articles brought there for sale, and protect the citizens? PLATO.

Alexander Stephens has just gained three ounces in weight, and his tailor is letting out his clothes.

STATE NEWS.

Wilmington is to have a Chemical Fire Company.

A man in Winston offers to bet $100 that he has a horse that can be driven from Winston to Danbury, thirty miles, in three hours and twenty five minutes, and the roads in that region are far from good.

The "exodus" move seems to be for Indiana, instead of Kansas. The exodites sent Peter Williams and Sam Perry to examine the situation in Kansas. On reaching Indianapolis and finding wages higher and friends abundant, they returned, and are now making ready to depart from this "land of bondage" with a number of their brethren.—Kinston Journal.

The last Charlotte sensation is a negro whose tongue was paralyzed because he brushed his boots on Sunday. Speech occasionally returns, when he tells of visions. That darkey means business.

During the recent session of Pasquotank court, a negro swore a lie at 12 m. The Tarboro Southerner says the solicitor was instructed to draw a bill for perjury; the grand jury found it true, trial and conviction at once ensued, and by 5 p. m. the perjurer was sentenced to the penitentiary for 5 years.

Mr. William Fike, of this county, died last week. He was nearly eighty years old. Only a few weeks ago a younger brother, Elijah Fike, died, aged about seventy years. In this family were seven brothers and two sisters, all living, and the youngest being sixty years old.—Pittsboro Record.

The Union county negro child that acts and looks for all the world like a frog, was brought up yesterday and put on exhibition at Centennial Hall, and attracted a considerable crowd of colored people.—Charlotte Observer.

Mr. J. M. McAmity called to see us Monday. His pamphlets will be out before a great while. He will sell them for 25 cents each. His predictions are as follows:

The winter will be dry and changeable, as a rule, more snow than rain. The first snow will be between the 10th and 18th of December. Frequent cold snaps. Next summer will be depressing to farmers. Three fourths of a wheat crop will be made. He has not his neighbor to make accurate calculations; but will come down by the 10th of next year. On our People's Report.
