Yesterday was a lovely day.

Midgets at Tucker Hall to night. Are you going?

This is the season of the year for spar-ribs and backbones.

Have you bought your turkey for your Thanksgiving dinner?

Side issues—the by-ways to barrooms.

Do not live in hope with your arms folded.

Have your guns and locks, repaired at King & Brockwell's.

The fancy for novel dinner decorations is running riot.

If you are a good speller try a little hot scotch ortomandjerry.

What is marriage? One woman the more and one man the less.

The different churches had good congregations yesterday.

One more Sunday in November.

798 bales of cotton was received in Wilmington last Saturday.

Regular meeting of Wm. G. Lodge to night.

Go to Tucker Hall to night and see the leastest, wee bittest people you ever saw.

Scotch lamb's wool velocipede stockings are a novelty for the boys.

The season has arrived for mince pie, and all that the name implies.

Maroon and admiral blue are among the select shades in fancy hose.

Not a marriage license to-day. What's the matter with the peo-bles?

Judge W. T. Faireloth, of Goldsboro, is registered at the Yarborough House.

"Little Buttercup" is ruined now. The Paris Temps speaks of her as a "sort of old she-styler."

The fellows who have the most things to give thanks for generally eat the poorest Thanksgiving dinner.

When a man says he is innocent of a crime, any further consideration of the subject seems to him like a persecution.

An exchange discovered that when two young men meet they address each other as "old man," and that when two old fellows meet they say "my boy."

The concert exercises of the Sabbath school of Person street M. E. Church will be repeated on Friday night of this week. Let everybody go.

There will be services in Christ Church Thanksgiving day, and we suppose in all the other city churches.

Rev. N. M. Jorrey preached a capital sermon at Edenton St. Church yesterday morning, say all who heard it.

We were glad to see Mr. Will. T. Rogers able to be on the streets to-day, after having been confined to his room for a week or more by sickness.

A certain collector of this city started out last Monday morning with a thousand dollars worth of accounts and collected $3 during the entire week. His commissions were 15 cents. He thinks collecting a hard business.

A correspondent wishes to know the best way to winter geraniums. The best and cheapest way is to sling 'em over the back fence and buy a new lot in the spring.

Blessed be the man who knows how to caper and enjoy nonsense; woe to the man that parted early with his boyhood, and blessed be the man that carries his boyhood down latest into life.

When a fool is young he spends much time in parting his hair in the middle. When he is old and bald he wastes much more time in trying to make the ends of his sparse locks meet on the polished crown above.

Take your wife, married man, take your sweetheart, young man, and go to Mr. Mosely's elegantly fixed up oyster saloon and treat them to a stew or fry of his delicious oysters. Everything is kept in the best of style.

M. Rosenbaum, near the capitol, has just received in addition to his well selected stock, white and colored bed blankets, white twilled flannel, red twilled flannel, large lot of balmoral skirts, ladies gentlemen and childrens undershirts, ladies satchels and trunks, canton flannel, trimming, lace and neck ruffling cheap as ever. We ask an inspection of our assortment. Respectfully, M. Rosenbaum. 23-6t

M. Grausman, who keeps a splendid variety of family groceries, has also in store a fine variety of Clawson's Seed Wheat, to which he would call the special attention of the farmers. The best wheat known. Call and get some of it. no14.

Rev. Mr. Black being unwell, Rev. F. L. Reid preached a most capital sermon last night at Edenton St. Church, to a very large congregation.

There will be a meeting of the Raleigh Light Artillery to-night, at the armory, at 7 o'clock, sharp. By order of the Captain.

It is estimated that the amount of cotton sold in October, this year in the Southern States, will net producers from eight to ten million dollars more than the sales for October last year. This is not from the larger sales, but from the increased price for cotton.

We call attention to the new advertisement of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker in this issue. Every body should call and see their new arrivals. The weather is now fine, and the ladies should not neglect the occasion to witness one of the finest displays in the dry goods line to be found in this State.

Lost.—Last night in going from Jake Higgs' to W. G. Otey's Barber shop—a fine watch charm—within, on one side the picture of a ladies foot, on the other, a lock of hair. The finder will be liberally rewarded by returning it to this office.

There was a case being tried before Commissioner Purnell, for a violation of the revenue laws, from Johnson county, when we went to press.

Bishop Green of Mississippi, officiated at Christ Church yesterday morning, and had a large congregation. He preached an excellent and very impressive sermon, which was greatly enjoyed by all who had the pleasure of hearing it. He also preached at the Church of the Good Shepherd at night.

Here is what may be termed bang up poetry:

The beauteous, buxom Bertha Bangs
Is one of our divinest girls;
She bangs the doors bangs the chairs,
And likewise bangs her auburn curls.
She bangs on the pianny too,
And bangs upon the light guitar—
But, oh, of all the bangs she bangs,
She mostly bangs her auburn hair.
Oh banging, bounding, buxon belle.

We call the special attention of the public to the announcement which Mrs. L. Branson makes. She has rented and fitted up in elegant style the rooms at No 1, Fayetteville Street, where she is prepared to take boarders by the day or month. We can most cheerfully commend her to our readers, as knowing how to keep a good table. We boarded with her years ago, and know that she can't be excelled in that line. Give her a trial.

A crazy telegraph operator at Torch, O., at the close of a night's debauch on Sunday week, jumped upon a locomotive which was attached to four coal hoppers and started at the rate of twenty five miles an hour. He ran down the road about five miles, when he met the passenger train coming west. Into that he ran at full speed, wrecking both locomotives and throwing them, with the baggage car, off the track. The passenger cars fortunately kept the track, and no one was injured. The engineer and fireman of the passenger train both jumped off the engine when they were almost together, and escaped serious injury. The lunatic was found lying on his back in the wreck, somewhat injured, but not seriously.

The Industrial fair was a grand success, and we hope our colored friends will repeat it each year, as it will stimulate them to greater energy in the pursuit of agriculture.

We call especial attention to the advertisement of Mr. B. H. Woodell in this issue. Everything in his line, can be found in his establishment at the cheapest rates.

One person received the ordinance of baptism at Person St. Church yesterday morning, after which the pastor, Rev. W. U. Norman preached a most excellent sermon, to a large congregation.

For good goods, for cheap goods, go to J. M. Rosenbaum's corner of Fayetteville and Hargett Streets. He keeps the best stock of ready-made clothing in the city. Call and see him.

Linberger cheese is considered more profitable to the maker than any other cheese. because, from a given quantity of milk, more weight is obtained and better prices realized. Thousands of tons are produced in New York and Wisconsin at less than half the cost of the imported article.

People who own lots in the old city cemetery would enhance its beauty very much if they would have new fences put up and the debris which has accumulated in some of them cleared away. Some of the lots look very much neglected.

Mr. Jacob Higgs has two very rare looking birds, or fowls, at his restaurant. One is entirely white and somewhat resembles a guinea in shape, and the other is a pale blue one, his feet resembling a crows. Can't some of our scientific men tell us the name and origin of those peculiar fowls?

Amst Amanda, the colored cook who fixed up oysters &c. so long for the late Mr. Pepper, has opened a restaurant in the south east corner of the market house, basement floor, where she will give you a good square meal at a very liberal price.

WONDERFUL MIDGETS.—These marvellous and fairy like creatures—so perfect in figure, handsome, and bright in intellect, have arrived in our city, and will give entertainments every afternoon from 2 to 5, and evenings from 7 to 9, during this week.

In height they do not reach Tom Thumb's waist, and Gen. Mite's weight does not equal that of one of Thumb's legs.

They are the greatest human miracles ever created, and those who desire to see these atoms of humanity should go early in the week to avoid crowds in the latter part.
