

The Evening Visitor.

VOL. 2—NO. 34.

RALEIGH, N. C. TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1879.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EVENING VISITOR.

WM. M. UTLEY, Local Editor.

Take Notice.

THE VISITOR is run by a company of three persons and is not responsible for individual debts. Those having claims against any one of the firm will present them to either individually and not hold the company responsible. All amounts due the VISITOR are expected to be paid on Saturday. We are not able to run accounts with any one.

Weaver Bros'.

OFFICE,
Wilmington street, East of Market.
STORE AND WAREHOUSE,
East Hargett Street.
DEALERS IN GENERAL MERCHANDISE
AND
Commission Merchants.
Satisfaction guaranteed. de2-1m

11½ cents.
300 bales.
Market firm.
Nothing before the Mayor to day.
Revenue collections to day $775.00.
The nuptial season enlivens the sale of white satin.
Changeable silks are very well suited for bonnet strings.
The World calls a tack on a chair seat a "harbinger of spring."
A little boy of Mr. Wm. Simpson is down with diphtheria.

Ladies are bound to dress in fur this winter if they can get it.
The Federal court is still in session, Judge Brooks presiding.
If you want a nice, smooth shave or a good hair dress, go to Davis & Dunston.

Spotts & Gibson, of Richmond, Va., had a drummers license issued to them to-day.

Major Twitty, at Mrs. Lowe's boarding house, is the best porter in the city.

Mr. J. B. Hogan has fresh butter and many other things. Read his new advertisement.

Twelve white and twenty-two colored couples were made happy during the month of November in this county.

Messrs. Johnson & Wiggs, the old reliable commission merchants, make a very tempting announcement. Read it and then pay them a visit.

If you want good boots, or anything in the dry goods line cheap, read the attractive advertisement of Mr. J. Q. Edwards. He has a fine supply of both on hand.

The N. C. Conference meets at Wilson to-morrow.

There are very few genuine christians in this world.

Go to the revival at Swain St. Baptist Church to night and do better.

Our subscription list is increasing every day. Many thanks to our kind friends.

The Grand Lodge of Masons meets to-morrow in regular annual session in this city.

Mr. Mosley's oyster saloon is the most popular resort in the city. It is fixed up in elegant style and is just the place to take your sweethearts.

Mr. Jacob Higgs keeps a fresh supply of oysters and all kinds of wild game on hand all the time. His prices are as cheap as the cheapest. Give him a call.

Mr. James L. Terrell of Little River Township, this county, had the misfortune to lose nearly a bale of cotton by fire last Friday night. No insurance.

THE VISITOR is the proper channel through which to advertise your different articles, if you desire to make quick sales. We have the largest city circulation.

Mr. Joel D. Whitaker keeps a full supply of wood, coal and brick on hand all the time. He is selling at reasonable terms. Read his advertisement and then send him an order.

Every member of the Hesperian Society Club is hereby earnestly requested to meet this evening at the office of the American Hotel at 8 o'clock sharp, as business of great importance is to be considered.

W. E. Thompson, Sheriff of Robeson county, brought Jim Murry, Frank Blount, Wm. Scott, Zien Judd, Lewis Singletary and Isaac Buxton, all colored, to the penitentiary to-day. Their terms ranging from 1 to 5 years.

We saw an egg, the size of the end of your finger, that came out of another egg. It was perfectly formed, having a good shell on it. The hen that laid it has spurs just like a rooster. It can be seen at the furniture store of Mr. W. H. Morris, opposite the post office.

For fine groceries of all kinds and prices to suit the times, go to see Mr. E. J. Hardin. He sells groceries reasonable. He keeps everything you need, and besides he is such a clever gentleman to deal with. Read his new advertisement.

Who were the seven young ladies who sat up last Thursday night to see the stars fall?

Always fresh beer on tap at A. W. Fraps.

If you want good table board, by the day or month, go to see Mrs. L. Branson, at No. 1, Fayetteville Street. Her table is supplied with all the latest delicacies at all times. Give her a trial and be convinced.

The most convenient hall and best pool and carom tables at A. W. Fraps.

The best fitting suit of ready-made clothes I ever had, I purchased it at Mr. J. M. Rosenbaum's store, and I advise all of my friends to call and get them a suit. He will sell you goods very cheap. Give him a call.

The best and largest assortment of wines, liquor, &c, at A. W. Fraps.

Mr. A. W. Fraps, opposite the market, on Fayetteville Street is the place to get good, first class liquors, wines and beer. Mr. A. C. Harrie presides at the bar and will fix you up in any style you may desire.

Several barrels Southampton apple brandy for sale cheap at A. W. Fraps, wholesale department. de1-6t

The ditch on Dawson street needs the attention of the city authorities. They should either have it filled in, or else put in a turbine wheel during the prevalence of a large rain. The present ditch is injuring the ground three folds more than if there was none at all. Our worthy and efficient Street Commissioner should look into the matter.

THE RALEIGH DYE WORKS—Is the place to have your clothes Dyed or Cleaned in first class style. Kid Gloves and Slipper cleaning a specialty. Morgan Street, West of the Presbyterian Church.—6t.

THE FIRST OF JANUARY WILL be the last day's for cheap pictures at Stewart's Gallery. Two large pictures, 25 cents. no17-tf

CYPRESS SHINGLES CHEAPER than ever offered in Raleigh before. All heart; never rot. For sale by car load or small quantity by Jones, Green & Powell. no8-4f

The Place to get your fine Norfolk oysters is at W. H. Hicks's stall on the north side of the market, in front of John W. Upchurch's store. He has them fresh every day and will take pleasure in filling all orders. Send them in. no26-6t

NEARLY THREE AND A HALF MILLION DOLLARS PAID IN BENEFITS, UNDER General Accident Policies, in the TRAVELERS INSURANCE COMPANY, of Hartford. Every business man should have a policy. Wm. P. WETHERELL, 26—6t Agent.

WINTER READING.—L. Branson keeps the largest news depot in the State—call and lay in your supply of winter reading at publishers prices.

Every physician in the town speaks well of Lincke's gymnasium.

Be sure to go to Mr. W. A. Gattis' and get your supply of apples. He keeps a fine lot of them on hand all the time and sells very cheap. Give him a call and see for yourselves.

Messrs. L. D. & W. R. Womble have just received a supply of pearl hominy and grits and several other things to which they call the attention of the public. Read their advertisement.

Madame Besson has just received another fine lot of misses and children's cloaks, ulsters, jackets and dresses, which are going off very rapidly. You had better call early or you will miss them. She is selling them very fast. no29

M. Rosenbaum, near the capitol, has just received in addition to his well selected stock, white and colored bed blankets, white twilled flannel, red twilled flannel, large lot of balmoral skirts, ladies gentlemen and childrens undershirts, ladies satehels and trunks, canton flannel, trimming, lace and neck ruffling cheap as ever. We ask an inspection of our assortment. Respectfully, M. Rosenbaum. 23-6t

Furniture and Toys. I am now receiving one of the finest lots of furniture ever brought to this city, and I am selling them at the very lowest figure. I have also a nice lot of toys—the very thing for Christmas presents—which I am selling very low. Give me a call and be convinced. Jno. T. MORRIS, corner Fayetteville and Davie Streets. no26-tf

IF YOU WANT a fine carriage or buggy, don't fail to drop into and see Mr. Alfred Upchurch on Hargett street. He has a large and complete stock of home made work to which he invites the attention of the public. Give him a call, and patronize home manufacturers. no17-6t

There are several people owing us for subscription in the city. The collectors cannot find them. If they do not settle, up their names will be cut off. It takes money to even sleep in this word let alone running newspapers. Outside subscribers when their time is out, unless otherwise ordered, will be cut off. Thousands of papers have suspended on account of the credit system. It will never be said so of THE VISITOR. Watch out for the cross mark.

Mr. B. F. Faison killed a shoat yesterday 11½ months old which weighed 255 pounds.

Mr. T. R. Fentress would inform his friends that he is still running his boarding house and is prepared to accommodate the public either by the day, week or month. Read his advertisement in another column.

Mr. S. M. Parrish, the painter, requests us to say that some one borrowed the top-piece of one of his extension ladders. Any information leading to its recovery will be thankfully received and the party suitably rewarded. It has a piece nailed on the side and two iron catches on the end of it. Dec. 2—2t.

Old gold stockings embroidered in peacock tints are esteemed rich.

The chilly streams begin to pull thick sheets of ice above them.

Sealskins are shown both in dolmans and long, half-fitting saques.

Embroidered slippers of the same stuff as the dress, are passing fancy.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

WOOD, COAL, COAL, COAL, COAL,
WOOD, COAL, COAL,
WOOD, COAL, COAL,
Lumber and Brick,
LUMBER AND BRICK,
LUMBER AND BRICK,
J. D. WHITAKER,
Foot Hargett Street, Raleigh, N. C. de2-1m

Butter! Butter!

J. B. HOGAN

has just received a fine lot of Butter. He also keeps a full line of ready-made clothing on hand all the time, and also a fine supply of family groceries which he will sell as cheap as any man in Raleigh. Corner Martin & Blount sts. de2-1m Christmas.

Buy your Christmas supplies from

JOHNSON & WIGGS.

Their stock is large and complete, and you can buy goods of them very cheap for the cash. de2-1m

PEARL HOMINY & GRITS.

Just received a lot of that extra quality Pearl Hominy and Grits, ground from new corn. Also Golden and Silver Drip Syrups, highest grade of family Flour, warranted to please.

L. D. & W. R. WOMBLE, de2-6t Cor. Wilmington & Hargett sts.

FENTRESS' BOARDING HOUSE

No. 15 Fayetteville street. NEAR THE CAPITOL,

Will accommodate from fifteen to twenty weekly boarders, with or without rooms, on as reasonable terms as any house in the city. Jurors and witnesses of the Federal Court, and members of the Grand Lodge are requested to give us a call as they will find a pleasant home during their stay. The table will be supplied with the best the market affords. Transients and visitors will find it to their interest to give us a call. Our porter, James Murphy, will take pleasure in conducting you to the Fentress House. de2-6t

Boots. Boots.

One dozen and a half cases just received, which I am selling cheap for cash.

SHAWLS! SHAWLS!

In endless variety and at your own price.

Fine Readymade Clothing

as cheap as the cheapest.

I also keep a full line of dress goods, trunks, valises, umbrellas, hats, caps, bed blankets, and quilts, shoes, &c. All I ask is a call. My motto is "Quick sales and small profits."

J. Q. EDWARDS, de2-1w No. 6 Hargett Street.