

EVENING VISITOR.

KILLED IN A FIGHT.—Shreveport, La., Dec. 1.—Advices from Lake Charles says that the sheriff of Orange county, Texas, has captured two young men there who had participated in a murderous affray a few days ago in Fort Bend county, Texas. It was a regular battle between the Taylor and Sutton families, in which six were engaged on one side and three on the other, the latter including the young men arrested, who lost one of their party, and killed three of the six men on the other side. The young men arrested were both wounded, one of them by a shot in the hip, and the other by a knife in the neck.

JAILED FOR FORGERY.—Saturday last one Henry J. Perkinson, a white man of Warren county, was lodged in jail at this place under the charge of forgery, the particulars of which are as follows: Under the name of John Davis, a well to do farmer of Mecklenburg county, he drew a bill of lading for eleven bales of cotton, shipped to Battle, Bunn & Co., of Norfolk, to whom he enclosed the bill of lading, stating that he wished them to send $400 by express for immediate use, which they accordingly did. On the arrival of the money at Henderson he forged a note from Mr. Davis to the express agent at Henderson, authorizing the agent to pay the money over to him (Perkinson) and thus obtained the handsome sum. Perkinson is a married man of respectable connections, and the affair has created no little sensation.—Oxford Torchlight.

Mr. S. M. Parrish, the painter, requests us to say that some one borrowed the top-piece of one of his extension ladders. Any information leading to its recovery will be thankfully received and the party suitably rewarded. It has a piece nailed on the side and two iron catches on the end of it. —Dec. 2—2t.

M. Rosenbaum, near the capitol, has just received in addition to his well selected stock, white and colored bed blankets, white twilled flannel, red twilled flannel, large lot of balmoral skirts, ladies, gentlemen and childrens undershirts, ladies satchels and trunks, canton flannel, trimming, lace and neck ruffling cheap as ever. We ask an inspection of our assortment. Respectfully, M. Rosenbaum. 23-6t

BILL ARP ON DOGS.—I knew that Harris had got hold of some sheep meat somewhere, for he had another violent paragraph against dogs the next morning. I can always tell when he has had mutton for dinner. It seems to affect his head, though I never did consider him mutton headed. He is too dogmatic for that. Old Bows is dead, my loving and trusting friend, the defender of my children, the protector of my household in the dark and silent watches of the night. For thirteen years he has been loud and faithful, and now we feel like one of the family is dead. Bows was the best judge of human nature I ever saw. He knew an honest man and a gentleman by instinct. He never frightened a woman or a child—he never went tearing down the front walk after anybody, but the very looks of him would might nigh skeer a nigger to death. When they come to our house they begun to holler "hello" a quarter of a mile off. Bows loved to skeer 'em, he did. He had character and emotions. Having no tail to wag (for he was curtailed,) he did the best that he could and wagged it where it ought to be. Bows was a dark brindle. He was a dog of ancestors. His father's name was Shylock, and his grand father's name was Sheriff. They were all honorable dogs. I never knew him to run up and down a neighbor's palings after a dog on the other side. He was above it—but he never dogged a responsibility. He has come in violent personal contact with other dogs a thousand times, more or less, and was never the bottom dog in fight. And, then, what an honest voice he had. His bark was not on the C., but was a deep, short basso profundo. We have buried him on the brow of the hill where he used to sit and watch for tramps and stragglers. Slowly and sadly we laid him down. Talk about your sheep—I wouldn't have given him for a whole flock. Sheep are to eat and wear, but Bows was a friend. It's like comparing appetite with emotion—the animal with the spiritual. But I am done now. Let Harris press on his dog law. I've nothin' agin sheep—in fact, I like 'em. Every since Mary had a little lamb I've thought kindly of sheep, and I am perfectly willin' to a law that will exterminate all houns and suck egg pups and yaller dogs, and bench leg fices. They are a reflection on Bowses memory.—Atlanta Constitution.

Pine Bluff, Ark., has a public school building worth $20,000. Helena is talking about putting up a new building of the same kind.

Furniture and Toys.
I am now receiving one of the finest lots of furniture ever brought to this city, and I am selling them at the very lowest figure. I have also a nice lot of toys—the very thing for Christmas presents—which I am selling very low. Give me a call and be convinced. Jno. T. MORRIS, corner Fayetteville and Davie Streets. no26-6t

IF YOU WANT
a fine carriage or buggy, don't fail to drop into and see Mr. Alfred Upchurch on Hargett street. He has a large and complete stock of home made work to which he invites the attention of the public. Give him a call, and patronize home manufacturers. no17-6t

Madame Besson
has just received another fine lot of misses and childrens cloaks, ulsters, jackets and dresses, which are going off very rapidly. You had better call early or you will miss them. She is selling them very fast. no29

Butter! Butter!

J. B. HOGAN

has just received a fine lot of Butter. He also keeps a full line of ready-made clothing on hand all the time, and also a fine supply of family groceries which he will sell as cheap as any man in Raleigh. Corner Martin & Blount sts. d2

FENTRESS' BOARDING HOUSE

No. 15 Fayetteville street, NEAR THE CAPITOL,
Will accommodate from fifteen to twenty weekly boarders, with or without rooms, on as reasonable terms as any house in the city. Jurors and witnesses of the Federal Court, and members of the Grand Lodge are requested to give us a call as they will find a pleasant home during their stay. The table will be supplied with the best the market affords. Transients and visitors will find it to their interest to give us a call. Our porter, James Murphy, will take pleasure in conducting you to the Fentress House. de2-6t

Boots. Boots.

One dozen and a half cases just received, which I am selling cheap for cash.

SHAWLS! SHAWLS!

In endless variety and at your own price.

Fine Readymade Clothing

as cheap as the cheapest.
I also keep a full line of dress goods, trunks, valises, umbrellas, hats, caps, bed blankets, and quilts, shoes, &c. All I ask is a call. My motto is "Quick sales and small profits."
J. Q. EDWARDS,
No. 6 Hargett Street. fe2-1w

RECEIVED NOV. 29TH AT

R. H. Womble's.

Fresh crackers, new raisins, currants, citron, cocoanuts, lemons, canned tomatoes, corn, oysters, salmon, lobsters, 150 lbs. assorted candy and nuts, sweet mash N. C. corn whiskey, pure apple brandy, scuppernon and port wines, jellies and mince meat.

North St., near Old Depot, no7-3t

The Subscriber

A practical chimney builder for forty years past, offers his services to the citizens of Raleigh and vicinity to remedy all smoky chimneys, (Hemingway's patent, taken out in 1842,) having remedied quite a number in the last few months, giving entire satisfaction and relief. Best city reference given if required. My motto is no cure, no pay.
F. S. WOODSON, Sr., Person street, de1-6t East of the Baptist Grove.

C. H. Perry, Stall No. 26, keeps a good supply of fresh

BEEF, PORK, SAUSAGE, &c.

which he sells as cheap as the cheapest. Give him a call and be convinced. He will be glad to have his old friends patronize him at his new stand.

Now Arriving

150 sacks fine salt, in seamless sacks.
400 bushels nice seed oats.
A fine lot of choice large Mulletts, and a lot of other goods very low for cash.

B. H. Woodell's

is the place for cheap goods. No. 4 Martin Street, Raleigh N. C. no6-oaw6w

NEW GOODS

Pretty Goods

CHEAP GOODS! DOORS OPEN DAILY, ADMISSION FREE.

Come to Creech's!

We'd sure to call the attention of buyers of Dry Goods, that never in the last twenty-five years have I had the pleasure of offering to my numerous friends and customers a more attractive stock of goods than I can this season, as each and every department is full and complete which embraces everything that is kept in a first class retail and jobbing house.

And having a corps of polite salesmen of ten to twenty years experience, which will justify me in saying that my house is thoroughly organized, and customers will save time and money by coming to CREECH'S to buy goods. I wish to call your special attention to my Black and Fancy Cashmere as one of my specialties in Dress Goods. I also ask your special attention to my stock of Cloaks, as I have the largest and most complete assortments that was ever brought to this city, and Ladies will find it to their interest to examine my Cloaks before buying elsewhere. My Shoe and Staple Goods department should never be forgotten as the goods will be sold at prices to meet the hard times.

A. CREECH.
P. S. My wholesale department is full and complete with just such goods as country merchants want. Call and examine them when you want to buy, and I will save you some money.
56 A. CREECH.

Music! Music!

Prof. Pauli offers his services to the public. He will give instructions on the piano and organ. He will also be pleased to attend to the tuning and repairing of pianos and organs. Old instruments varnished and polished up if desired. Satisfaction guaranteed. Orders left at Alfred Williams' Bookstore, Fayetteville street. Am also agent for the celebrated Brymer Pianos and Organs. no5-1w

Henry J. Brown, UNDERTAKER.

RALEIGH, N. C.,

KEEPS ON HAND METALLIC BURIAL CASES

Metallic Burial Cases, Walnut and other Wood Coffins and Caskets. All sizes, styles and prices. All orders by mail or telegraph promptly attended to at all hours. 1-1w

JUST RECEIVED AT LUMSDEN'S

15 hundred Flower Pots.
1 case guns, breech and muzzle loading.
1 hundred bags shot.
1 Car load cooking and heating stoves.
10 thousand Flatshot cartridges.
Also a nice lot of baby's work baskets. Call and see the above at 28-2mo. LUMSDEN'S.

NORTH CAROLINA, In the WAKE COUNTY, Superior Court. Roxana Lanier, Plaintiff, against William Lanier, Defendant.

ACTION having been commenced by Roxana Lanier against William Lanier for divorce from the bonds of matrimony, and the summons for the defendant having been returned with the endorsement that William Lanier is not to be found in Wake county; it is ordered that publication for said William Lanier for six successive weeks be made in THE WEEKLY VISITOR, a weekly paper published in Raleigh, N. C., notifying the defendant of bringing said action, and that he appear on the second Monday of February, 1880, and answer the complaint of the plaintiff. And if the defendant fails to appear the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint. This Oct. 30, 1879.

CHAS. D. UPCHURCH, Clerk Superior Court Wake County. J. C. L. HARRIS, P'tiff's Attorney. no6-oaw6w

Mme. BESSON

—WISHES TO INFORM THE—Ladies of Raleigh

and surrounding vicinity that her well selected stock of

LADIES, MISSES, AND CHILDRENS Clothing, Underwear, Neckties, &c.,

is now ready for examination. All are invited to come and look. Prices moderate and all can be suited. Thankful for the liberal patronage of the ladies and inviting a continuance of the same, I am

56 Respectfully, Mme. BESSON.

Practical Watch-Maker and Jeweler.

Keeps constantly in stock,

FINE AMERICAN WATCHES, MASONIC JEWELS.

Good watches furnished on order by express C. O. D., or by mail on receipt of price—from $10 to $500. Correspondence solicited, and price list sent on application. No humbug or common trash kept in stock. All goods and work warranted as represented, or money refunded on return of goods.

Great Excitement.

AT WOODWARD BROS.

We have just received a choice lot of candies, nuts, raisins, oranges, lemons, cocoanuts, apples, figs, peapants, cakes, crackers, &c. The best five cent cigar sold in the city. All these goods will be sold at the very lowest figures. Give us a call. no7-6t

They Have Come.

The Largest Stock of Holiday Gifts!

Ever Brought to the City!

I have just received the largest stock of all kinds of Toys for the children and grown people ever brought to this city.

Here the children can be made happy, for a very little money. I have also the choicest stock of Confectioneries of all descriptions in the city.

J. A. BRAGASSA,

Confectioner and Baker, no19 16 Fayetteville Street.

PRITCHARD

AND

BROOKS,

Cor. Hillsboro and Salisbury Sts.,

Nice Northern Apples.

Turkeys, fine and fat.

A fresh lot of Chickens cheap.

Eggs "till you can't rest." Lemons and Florida Oranges, Cocoanuts, prunes, dates and currants, large lot Aronckle coffee just arrived. Nice cabbage from 5 to 10 cents apiece.

Fresh cream cheese 16 2-3 cents a lb. The best lot of cigars ever in any house. oct 30 1w