There are too many punched dimes afloat.

A hot discussion often makes a cool friendship.

Let the man with squeaking boots go early to church.

Sheriff Nowell's boarders give free concerts all through the day.

A man had better have his shirts than his temper ruffled.

Judge A. A. McKoy was registered at the Yarboro House this morning.

The different churches, which held services yesterday, had large congregations.

Now the society belle is in a flutter of preparation over her ball toilet.

No one has any right to be cheerful who does not do something to make others so.

One in person, and two by letter, joined Swain Street Baptist church at the yesterday morning's services.

The many friends of Col. S. T. Carrow, in this city, have been glad to take him by the hand during the last few days. He is attending the Federal Court.

Mr. J. Smith presented the editor of the Battleboro Progress with a watermelon last Thursday, and you think he didn't actually "worry it down?" He'll be "worrying down" quinine next.

Mr. Wm. Simpson's little child died at 10 o'clock Saturday night and was buried yesterday afternoon. A large number of friends attended the funeral, which was preached at the residence.

To-day's length is 9 hours and 48 minutes.

Judge Bond hadn't arrived up to latest accounts.

Yesterday was the second Sunday in Advent.

Yesterday was communion day in the different churches.

IF YOU WANT a fine carriage or buggy, don't fail to drop into and see Mr. Alfred Upchurch on Hargett street. He has a large and complete stock of home made work to which he invites the attention of the public. Give him a call, and patronize home manufacturers. no17-6t

Train princess skirts are both becoming and convenient.

Elbow sleeves are dressy, and usually they are becoming.

An owl's head at the belt has replaced the cluster of roses.

East India rugs big enough to cover a whole floor are seen.

Madame Besson has just received another fine lot of misses and children's cloaks, ulsters, jackets and dresses, which are going off very rapidly. You had better call early or you will miss them. She is selling them very fast. no29

The young men of Durham have organized a Pleasure Club.

A glass mouth-piece to each cigarette is a newly patented idea.

Very few low necked or short-sleeved dresses are seen in society.

It is considered stylish now for young ladies to look short waisted.

Furniture and Toys.

I am now receiving one of the finest lots of furniture ever brought to this city, and I am selling them at the very lowest figure. I have also a nice lot of toys—the very thing for Christmas presents—which I am selling very low. Give me a call and be convinced. Jno. T. MORRIS, corner Fayetteville and Davie Streets. no26-ff

We regret to learn that Mr. Wm. Simpson's oldest son is confined with diphtheria.

The members of the Baptist church at Durham, pounded their pastor, the Rev. C. Durham, last Friday night.

Martin street, from Blount to Person, is sadly in need of a brick side-walk. It is almost impassible in wet weather.

Newly corned pork at Johnson & Wiggs'. It's cheaper than clear rib sides. de6-3t

Good butter is very scarce in our market. It sells rapidly for 30 cents per pound. We hope our country friends will bring in all their surplus butter.

Mr. George Goldman keeps a fresh supply of confectioneries of all kinds, and is selling them off rapidly. Call and see for yourselves, on Hargett street, next to Mr. Wm. Woolcott's dry goods store.

Several barrels Southampton apple brandy for sale cheap at A. W. Fraps, wholesale department. decl-6t

Too many women have an ear for music, a tongue for gossip and a mouth for pie.

Yesterday was a lovely day, and the streets were alive with people, enjoying the delicious weather, which was very much like a spring day.

Always fresh beer on tap at A. W. Fraps.

See advertisement of sale of furniture in another column. Now is the time to get good bargains in furniture. Call and see, if not to buy.

The members of the Raleigh Light Artillery are requested to meet at the Mayor's office at 7½ o'clock to-night. By order of the Captain J. Amos Harris.

The best and largest assortment of wines, liquor, &c., at A. W. Fraps.

Judge A. S. Seymour and C. R. Thomas, Esq., both of Newbern, were registered at the Yarboro to-day.

Only two cases engaged the attention of the Mayor this morning. One for forcible trespass and the other for the larceny of a coat.

The most convenient hall and best pool and carom tables at A. W. Fraps.

This dirge to the dead or dying fly:

With chilly feet and drooping wings,

He hangs upon the window pane,

And hoarsely he his death-song sings;

He hath a sort of window pain.

On account of the low condition of the city finances, some of the street hands have been suspended. This suspense will fall heavily on those poor men who were dependent on the money earned for work on the street, for a subsistence. We hope, for their sake alone, that the suspension will not last long.

Shingles are going up daily. Order what you want before it is too late of Jones, Green & Powell—who are daily receiving fresh supplies of Timothy hay, oats, corn, meal, bran, etc. Also flour of their own make which they recommend for family use. dec6 tf

Justice Barbee had Anthony Rand alias Henry Rand, colored, before him to-day, who had three charges against him—one for breaking into a house, one for the larceny of chickens and one for the larceny of a gun and some wearing apparel. He was sent to jail in default of bail. A gentleman who made too free use of his boots on a colored woman, was fined $5 and costs.

$25,000 worth of old bonds came in for exchange to day.

Pleeceman spare that tramp,
Make not a noisy row;
For years he's raided us;
But we'll not harm him now.

NEARLY THREE AND A HALF MILLION DOLLARS PAID IN BENEFITS, UNDER General Accident Policies, in the TRAVELERS INSURANCE COMPANY, of Hartford. Every business man should have a policy. WM. P. WETHERELL, 26-6t Agent.

The Federal Court met at 10 o'clock to day with Judge Brooks on the bench.

Mr. Merrill broke ground in front of Metropolitan Hall this morning to put in a generator, for the purpose of lighting up said hall and market house. It will be put five feet under ground.

The revival at the Swain Street Baptist Church, continues with unabated interest. Services will be held there to night, and probably all the week.

M. Rosenbaum, near the capitol, has just received in addition to his well selected stock, white and colored bed blankets, white twilled flannel, red twilled flannel, large lot of balmoral skirts, ladies, gentlemen and childrens undershirts, ladies satehels and trunks, canton flannel, trimming, lace and neck ruffling cheap as ever. We ask an inspection of our assortment. Respectfully, M. Rosenbaum. 23-6t

For a good buggy and gentle horses go to see our young friend, Mr. Macon L. Parham, south of the Baptist grove, on Martin St. He hires them by the day or hour. Call and see him.

Mr. J. M. Rosenbaum is still ahead in low prices and good goods. His stock of ready-made clothing is complete and his prices compare with any house in the city. Call and see him.

Deputy Sheriff, John H. Brown of New Hanover, brought up the following prisoners Saturday for the penitentiary: Charlotte Beach 3 years; Melvin Brown 3 years; Jas. Dotry 3 years; Jane Williams 3 years; Arthur Fisher 4 years—all colored, and all for larceny.

Don't forget that Mr. W. A. Gattis keeps fresh, fine apples on hand all the time and sells them at very reasonable figures. Country merchants would do well to order their Christmas supply of apples direct from him.

W. A. Estes, Sheriff of Stokes county has turned over the following prisoners to the authorities of the C.F. & Y.V. Railroad: Volly L. Caiston, 4 years; George Stanfield, 4 years; Peter Jessup, 3 years; Reuben Amburn, 5 years. These were sentenced at the fall term of the Superior Court for said county.

In our notices, at different times, of Mr. Wm. Woolcott, of Wilmington street, we have failed to mention the fact that he has extended his business into Hargett Street. The room on this street is devoted almost exclusively to ready made clothing. He keeps a large stock of ready-made clothing in connection with his other dress goods and sells them very reasonable. He is one of our cleverest merchants and keeps a corps of polite clerks, consequently he enjoys a large wholesale and retail trade. Read his advertisement.

We sincerely regret to learn that Wm. King, Esq., living on the Avent Ferry Road, just beyond the western limits of the city, has had the misfortune to lose his little daughter and only child. She died of membranous croup, last night about 12 o'clock, after a most painful illness. We sincerely sympathize with the afflicted family in their sad bereavement.

Do you want to make your wife, daughter, son or sweetheart a nice present for Christmas, or a birthday present? If you do, you should go around on the south side of the market, next to Mr. J. P. Gulley's and purchase an elegant watch and chain, a set of ear rings, a fine finger ring or a set of buttons from John W. Cole, Esq., the Jeweller. He has one of the best selected stocks in the city to purchase from.

EMMERSON'S DIRECTORY.—We return our thanks to Messrs. Chas. Emmerson & Co., for a copy of the above work. It is invaluable to business men. It is well printed and contains a great deal of valuable information. It should be in the hands of every business man in the city and county. Mr. Emmerson has labored incessantly to get up a valuable directory of Raleigh and Wake county and we hope he will be liberally patronized by our people. Address Chas. Emmerson & Co., Raleigh, N. C.

A new town in Lauderdale county, Tenn., is named Pilljerk.
