

The Evening Visitor.

VOL. 2—NO. 40.

RALEIGH, N. C. TUESDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1879.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EVENING VISITOR.

WM. M. UTLEY, Local Editor.

Take Notice.

THE VISITOR is run by a company of three persons and is not responsible for individual debts. Those having claims against any one of the firm will present them to either individually and not hold the company responsible. All amounts due the VISITOR are expected to be paid on Saturday. We are not able to run accounts with any one.

Weaver Bros'.

OFFICE,

Wilmington street, East of Market.
STORE AND WAREHOUSE,
East Hargett Street.

DEALERS IN

GENERAL MERCHANDISE AND

Commission Merchants.

Satisfaction guaranteed. de2-1m

New moon on the 13th.

Fifteen days to Christmas.

The truly practical Christian puts ashes on his sidewalk.

Sow lettuce, spinach, carrots and radishes, and set out onions, garlic and eschalots.

Mr. James E. Hannah sold a pig which was only 10 months old that weighed 269 pounds.

Turkeys are faring sumptuously now, little thinking what their doom will be in the near future.

You may expect rain or snow this week; but whether it will come or not, is more than this deponent knows.

The peculiar five cent cigar at Messrs. Williams & Haywood's drug store can't be excelled for the price. Go and try them.

Allen Richardson, colored was in the guard house this morning, waiting to be interviewed by the Mayor, for assaulting his wife.

The Sheriff is very anxious to see you, especially if you haven't paid your taxes for 1879. He says he can't indulge you much longer.

One of the prettiest sights we ever saw is to see a little child rock itself to sleep in a rocking chair. Its nods are so graceful and cunning.

Have you purchased your turkey for Christmas? If you have not, you should go immediately to see Mr. W. C. McMackin, and get one. He has a lot of fine ones.

Have you been to Prof. P. C. Linckes' Athletic Hall? It is a good place for dyspeptics; and, in fact, everybody. Go and try it. You will be both pleased and benefitted.

Do you C. Weikle move?

Regular meeting of R. L. Infantry, at their armory at 7½ o'clock to night.

Mrs. Jas. E. Hannah is quite unwell, so much so, that she is confined to her bed.

Furniture and Toys.

I am now receiving one of the finest lots of furniture ever brought to this city, and I am selling them at the very lowest figure. I have also a nice lot of toys—the very thing for Christmas presents—which I am selling very low. Give me a call and be convinced. J. S. T. MORRIS, corner Fayetteville and Davis Streets. no26-45

The nister covers a multitude of last winter's suits.

Mr. Carlos Yates is quite sick at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Eatman, on Hillsboro St.

There are several ministers in the city, returning from Conference. They all speak in glowing terms of the open hearted hospitality of the people of Wisconsin.

We saw an uneasy lady this morning. Her husband had bought her a Christmas gift, and she was very anxious to see it, but the merchant from whom it had been bought couldn't show it to her. He was under bonds of secrecy.

IF YOU WANT

a fine carriage or buggy, don't fail to drop into and see Mr. Alfred Upchurch on Hargett street. He has a large and complete stock of home made work to which he invites the attention of the public. Give him a call, and patronize home manufacturers. no17-6t

Mr. W. N. Andrews, the Street Commissioner, has done a great deal of useful work during the last six months, in the way of building side-walks, culverts and digging ditches. He makes a very efficient officer.

Do you want to make your wife, daughter, son or sweetheart a nice present for Christmas, or a birthday present? If you do, you should go around on the south side of the market, next to Mr. J. P. Gulley's and purchase an elegant watch and chain, a set of ear rings, a fine finger ring or a set of buttons from John W. Cole, Esq., the Jeweller. He has one of the best selected stocks in the city to purchase from.

Madame Besson

has just received another fine lot of misses and children's cloaks, ulsters, jackets and dresses, which are going off very rapidly. You had better call early or you will miss them. She is selling them very fast. no29

No man who hasn't had a blind boil between his shoulders knows how it feels to reach after the unattainable.

Postage ought to be reduced to two cents on all letters. And that is one cent more than most letters are worth.

Sausage is the great American ground hog.

They have "honey and hot biscuit sociables."

Time brings many changes. In fact, it is full of new wrinkles.

The vaccination question is discussed in New York with much virus.

One of the things you don't want to be too generous with is your temper. Keep it.

Newly corned pork at Johnson & Wiggs'. It's cheaper than clear rib sides. de6-3t

Young man, don't fool around the girls next year. It will be a leap year, and the girls will be loaded.

If you wish to be as happy as a king look at those who haven't as much as you, not at those who have more.

The most convenient hall and best pool and carom tables at A. W. Fraps.

Our young friend, Mr. Theo. T. Fentress has a store full of nice apples, confectioneries and toys, suitable for the holidays. Call and see him.

Mr. E. J. Hardin knows how to buy to please his hundreds of customers. He keeps everything good in the fancy grocery line. Read his new advertisement.

The best and largest assortment of wines, liquor, &c., at A. W. Fraps.

If you want to get toys for holiday gifts Mr. Bragassa is the man to go to see. He has a tremendous large stock, and is selling very low for cash. Give him a call, after reading his new advertisement.

Always fresh beer on tap at A. W. Fraps.

Deputy Sheriff H. C. Hardin son of Martin county brought four colored prisoners to the penitentiary to day. Their names are: Sylvester Wells, 10 years; Rance Harris, 2 years; Charles Teanbeault, 2 years; Richard Thompson, 7 years—all for larceny.

Shingles are going up daily. Order what you want before it is too late of Jones, Green & Powell—who are daily receiving fresh supplies of Timothy hay, oats, corn, meal, bran, etc. Also flour of their own make which they recommend for family use. dec6 1f

J. W. Taylor, Sheriff of Chatham county turned over the following prisoners to the authorities of the C F & Y V Railroad: Jack Gattis, Jack Mayho, Jack Taylor, and Dan Brewer.

Several barrels Southampton apple brandy for sale cheap at A. W. Fraps, wholesale department. dec1-6t

Two marriage license this morning.

Mr. Watkins, who has been night watchman at the U. S. postoffice for a long time, is quite sick at St. John's Hospital. He is receiving all the attention kind friends can bestow.

M. Rosenbaum, near the capitol, has just received in addition to his well selected stock, white and colored bed blankets, white twilled flannel, red twilled flannel, large lot of balmoral skirts, ladies, gentlemen and childrens undershirts, ladies satchels and trunks, cotton flannel, trimming, lace and neck ruffling cheap as ever. We ask an inspection of our assortment. Respectfully, M. Rosenbaum. 23-6t

His Honor sent Thos. Henry and Peter Williams, both colored, to jail to day in default of a $100 bond for the larceny of $113 from Mary Williams, colored.

Col. A. W. Shaffer gives notice that the Menninger residence, on Newbern Avenue, is for sale or rent. It is situated in one of the prettiest parts of the city. He also has some valuable milch cows for sale. Read his advertisement in another column.

NEARLY THREE AND A HALF MILLION DOLLARS PAID IN BENEFITS, UNDER General Accident Policies, in the TRAVELERS INSURANCE COMPANY, of Hartford. Every business man should have a policy. WM. P. WETHERELL, 23-6t Agent.

All who are able to ride, should bear in mind that they can be accommodated at Mr. Macon L. Parham's livery tables, south of the Baptist Grove on Martin street. He keeps good, gentle horses and fine buggies on hand all the time. Give him a call.

Mr. J. M. Rosenbaum is still ahead in low prices and good goods. His stock of ready-made clothing is complete and his prices compare with any house in the city. Call and see him.

TO OWNERS OF SEWING MACHINES.—Here is what the Fayetteville Gazette says of Messrs. S. Marion Pearson & Co., who have been in that town for several weeks repairing sewing machines. Read it and then give them your orders. They are stopping at the National Hotel. The press throughout the western part of the State speak in high terms of them and their work as being clever gentlemen and first class workmen. But read what the Gazette says: "They have done considerable work in Fayetteville, and every person for whom they have worked speak in highest terms of their mechanical skill. Persons having sewing machines out of repair will do well to secure their services. We can speak of Messrs. Pearson & Co., with confidence, as we have seen two machines which they have repaired, making them, if possible, better than new. Give Messrs. Pearson & Co. your work, if your machines are out of order." ts

TO LOUISBURG.—We congratulate our Methodist friends at Louisburg in the appointment made by the Conference, of the Rev. W. C. Norman, the former beloved and popular pastor of Person Street Church of this city to the church in that town. He is a most excellent man and a popular preacher, and the people will certainly be pleased with him, and we are sure Mr. Norman will be highly pleased with the good people among whom he has been sent.

REV. T. W. SMITH.—This popular pastor, who has been stationed at Louisburg, has been appointed by Conference to take charge of Person Street Church in this city. We congratulate the membership in getting such a good man, and feel confident the people will be pleased with him.

BRILLIANT MARRIAGE.—Mr. J. W. Nicholson, of Warren county, N. C., was united in marriage to Miss Birtie Jeffreys of Mecklenburg county, Va., at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. H. T. Jeffreys, on the 3d inst., by the Rev. Mr. Mundy, of Warrenton. The following were the attendants: W. G. Egerton and Miss Maggie Jeffreys; Walter Rodwell and Miss Laura Burton; Moss and Miss Haskings; John Yancey and Miss Nicholson; Jeffreys and Miss Mollie Kimball; L. T. Brown and Miss Sallie Kimball; C. J. Burton and Miss Emma Jeffreys. There were a large number of friends in attendance. After the marriage the happy couple, together with the invited guests, repaired to the residence of the groom's father where a grand repast and reception were held. Everything the most fastidious appetite could wish was served in profusion, and was heartily enjoyed by all present. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents. We wish the newly married couple a long and happy life.

500 bales to-day.

There are 35 prisoners in jail.

Revenue collections $1,272.24.

12½ cents is the ruling price for cotton to-day. Tone of market strong.

Charlotte Jackson, colored, was released from jail to-day, she having give bond.

Miss Sue Plummer, of Petersburg, Va., is visiting Miss Sadie B. Cannon, at the residence of Col. T. M. Argo, in this city.

The finest and best apples in the city can be bought of Mr. W. A. Gattis. He is receiving consignments every day. Our merchants should make a note of this and go and see him when in need of apples.