

The Evening Visitor.

VOL. 2-NO. 41.

RALEIGH, N. C. WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1879.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EVENING VISITOR.

WM. M. UTLEY, Local Editor.

Take Notice.

THE VISITOR is run by a company of three persons and is not responsible for individual debts. Those having claims against any one of the firm will present them to either individually and not hold the company responsible. All amounts due the VISITOR are expected to be paid on Saturday. We are not able to run accounts with any one.

Weaver Bros'.

OFFICE,

Wilmington street, East of Market.
STORE AND WAREHOUSE,
East Hargett Street.

DEALERS IN

GENERAL MERCHANDISE
AND

Commission Merchants.
Satisfaction guaranteed.

Mr. Merrill put in front of the Market house is "booming."

We are sorry to state that the condition of Mr. Henry Porter is no better.

$100,000 old bonds were received yesterday, exchanged and burned at the Treasury office.

Miss Lou Chamblee, of Franklin county, is in the city, stopping at the residence of Mr. Joseph P. Gully.

Some of our young men have organized a Pleasure Club and will give an entertainment about Christmas.

Hurst, Miller & Co., Baltimore, Lathrop & Leigh, Richmond, Va., had drummers license issued to them to day.

The neighbors living on West and South Streets are anxious to have a lamp on the corner of the above streets. The post is there yet and it would be a great convenience to the neighborhood to have the lamp replaced.

Have you seen that beautiful two wheel delivery wagon of Messrs. Pritchard & Brooks, put up by Messrs. Evans & Martin? It is well gotten up and reflects credit on the superior workmanship of this firm. Repairing is a speciality with them. Send them your work.

Mr. Albert Kramer of Germany, is in the city, visiting his family and friends. He is looking remarkably well. His hosts of friends here have been pleased to extend him a cordial greeting. He is the agent for the Messrs. Blackwell & Co., Durham, for the sale of their celebrated brand of smoking tobacco in the European countries. We hope his stay here may be pleasant.

A street dress ought to show the boot.

Next day for upholstered fowls is Christmas.

"At home" weddings are unusually numerous.

Ferns have become a fashionable table ornament.

Several barrels Southampton apple brandy for sale cheap at A. W. Fraps, wholesale department. dec1-6t

Fancy toys this year are as innumerable as the sands.

A new toy china set is for a dinner in hotel style.

There's a toy bird of Paradise that flaps its wings and sings.

12 $\frac{1}{2}$  to 12 $\frac{3}{4}$  cents was the ruling price for cotton to day.

Some of the newly imported shawls have very beautiful wrong sides.

Shingles are going up daily. Order what you want before it is too late of Jones, Green & Powell—who are daily receiving fresh supplies of Timothy hay, oats, corn, meal, bran, etc. Also flour of their own make, which they recommend for family use. dec6 tf

Ball costumes are to be ascant in the neck as "maiesty" will permit.

A four-in hand drag filled with dressy ladies is among the new toys.

The more extravagant dolls now-a-days must have embroidered underwear.

Some mean boy or boys, passed by the residence of Capt. D. S. Hudgings yesterday, and seeing his wife's pet canary bird hanging out on the porch in its cage, fired away with a bean-shooter and killed it dead. Mrs. Hudgings wouldn't have taken $25 for the bird. It was a beautiful singer and her only pet. These bean shooters are nuisances and the boys who are caught with them should be taken up and dealt with severely.

"Oh! Jennie, where did you get that elegant set of jewelry and fine watch and chain?" "Why, I bought it of Mr. John W. Cole." "Has he any more like them?" "Plenty of them, and besides Emma, he sells them so very cheap. He has one of the finest stocks of watches, chains, pins, finger rings, lockets, &c., that I ever saw." "Will you show me the place? I want to buy some jewelry and if he sells so cheap, why he is the man I want to see." They went and saw and made a large bill. Mr. Cole can be found on the south side of the market, next to J. P. Gully's, Esq.

500 bales to-day.

Revenue collections $6,561.53.

Colored flannel is not so warm as white, nor as pretty, but it has more style.

Man proposes, and when he does so in the bar-room all the loafers eagerly accept.

Always fresh beer on tap at A. W. Fraps.

Hon. Hugh L. Bond of Baltimore arrived at noon and took rooms at the Yarboro.

Attorney General, Thomas S. Kenan, arrived at noon from a trip to Wilson.

The best and largest assortment of wines, liquor, &c., at A. W. Fraps.

There will be a pigeon shooting next Friday in the rear of Mr. Julius Lewis residence by some of our cracked sportsmen.

New fashion way of getting a drink—being wheel-borrowed around in a sacque bag. Patented.

The most convenient hall and best pool and carom tables at A. W. Fraps. HO311

Henry Manly, colored, gave bond and was released from jail.

A colored woman was sent to the work house this morning to work out a bill of costs. Her name was Lou Freeman.

NEARLY THREE AND A HALF MILLION DOLLARS PAID IN BENEFITS, UNDER General Accident Policies, in the TRAVELERS INSURANCE COMPANY, of Hartford. Every business man should have a policy. Wm. P. WETHERELL, 26-6t Agent.

Six marriage license issued this morning by the Register of Deeds.

The venerable father of the Hon. A. S. Merrimon is in the city, the guest of his son. He resides in Asheville and is 78 years of age.

Newly corned pork at Johnson & Wiggs'. It's cheaper than clear rib sides. dec6-3t

How charming the ladies look in sealskin sacques! But a young man who opens oysters for a living may be just as happy.

Country lads are singling out the most symmetrical evergreens in the woods, preparatory to attacking them for Christmas purposes.

Furniture and Toys.

I am now receiving one of the finest lots of furniture ever brought to this city, and I am selling them at the very lowest figure. I have also a nice lot of toys—the very thing for Christmas presents—which I am selling very low. Give me a call and be convinced. Jno. T. MORRIS, corner Fayetteville and Davis Streets. no26-tf

JUST ARRIVED

75 of the finest mules that has ever been brought to the city. For sale by GEO. W. WYNNE, at his old stand on Morgan St., dec. 10-11 Raleigh, N. C.

Heavy fog this morning.

Mr. J. Amos Harris left for Tarboro to day.

Regular meeting of St. John's Guild at 8 o'clock this evening.

M. Rosenbaum, near the capitol, has just received in addition to his well selected stock, white and colored bed blankets, white twilled flannel, red twilled flannel, large lot of balmoral skirts, ladies, gentlemen and childrens undershirts, ladies satchels and trunks, caution flannel, trimming, lace and neck ruffling cheap as ever. We ask an inspection of our assortment. Respectfully, M. Rosenbaum. 23-6t

Col. T. M. Argo went out on Crabtree hunting yesterday and killed a wild turkey gobbler that weighed 16 pounds after it was cleaned.

Messrs. Pearson & Co., are meeting with the greatest success in repairing all kinds of Sewing Machines. They say THE VISITOR is certainly a good medium to advertise in. They are correct.

"How Good Times Help the Drug Trade," is a heading of the Albany Argus. We suppose it is by sending them customers for seltzer water, as a man is apt to need something of the kind after a good time.

If YOU WANT a fine carriage or buggy, don't fail to drop into and see Mr. Alfred Upchurch on Hargett street. He has a large and complete stock of home made work to which he invites the attention of the public. Give him a call, and patronize home manufacturers. no17-6t

"Never leave what you undertake until you can reach your arms around it and clench your hand on the other side," says a recently published book for young men. Very good advice, but what if she screams?"

Of course we all love our neighbor as ourselves, but when our coalbin is full and his empty, somehow the news of an advance in coal doesn't make us look half so glum as when the conditions of the respective coalbins are reversed.

Madame Besson

has just received another fine lot of misses and children's cloaks, ulsters, jackets and dresses, which are going off very rapidly. You had better call early or you will miss them. She is selling them very fast. no29

A scratching scrape between a colored man and woman was all that disturbed the quietude of the Mayor this morning. They will be tried to morrow morning, as the main witness was absent.

Messrs. Pesend, Lee & Co. have just received a fine lot of choice articles, suitable for Christmas presents. You should go and see them before making your purchases. There is not a cleverer or more accomodating firm in the city to deal with. Go and see what they have for sale.

The special attention of all those who want to get cheap and good household articles, is directed to the advertisement of 'furniture for sale,' on third page.

The Governor has ordered a special term of the Superior Court for Jones county, to begin on the second Monday in January. His Honor Judge Mills L. Eure will preside.

Regular meeting of Oak City Lodge, No. 419, K. of H., will be held at 7 o'clock to-night, for work in the degree of Infancy. Visiting brethren are invited to attend.

Our young friend, Mr. J. B. Hogan, presents a very attractive advertisement in to-day's issue. He has a fine supply of ready-made clothing and fresh family groceries. Give him a call and be convinced.

They were the best we ever tasted. What? Why those delicious apples we purchased of Mr. W. A. Gattis this morning. Our neighbors all buy them, and we hope all others in need of apples will give him a call.

Did you see that fine team on the streets this morning? No. Well you ought to. They were from our young friend, Mr. Macon L. Parham's livery stables, on Martin street. He keeps fine horses and buggies for hire, by the day or hour.

It is all the clerks in Mr. J. M. Rosenbaum's store can do to wait on the large number of customers who are flocking there daily to buy his beautiful and cheap ready made clothing. He keeps a good stock continually on hand. Go and see him.

We have often heard of Mr. Jos. B. Bowers, but never saw the original till yesterday. He came in and subscribed to THE VISITOR. He is, as has been represented, a good hearted, whole souled gentleman. He is a splendid farmer and always brings the finest water melons to our market.

A. CREECH, Esq.—We call special attention to the column advertisement of this gentleman. He has a new arrival of dress goods, cheaper than ever. He has just received his fourth lot of new and elegant cloaks—the cheapest yet. His stock of dress and piece goods is complete and he is selling them very cheap. He has a full line of blankets, hats, caps, trunks, valises, &c., which he will sell cheap for cash. Now is the time to call and Mr. Creech's the place to get your Christmas goods. Read his new advertisement.