CITY VISITS.

News scarce.

Easter will soon be here.

Business very dull to day.

Not an item at the Mayor's office.

Slim vegetable market this morning.

One marriage license issued this morning.

Called meeting of the Board of Aldermen to morrow night.

See notice of a second hand safe wanted. Address Lock Box 213, Raleigh, N. C.

Ex-Judge Wm. A. Moore, of Edenton is in the city, in attendance on the Supreme Court.

See notice of a front room office for rent on Fayetteville St. Apply to Messrs. Pescud, Lee & Co.

The Supreme Court will probably get through with hearing arguments from the first district to day.

We return our thanks to Col. L. L. Polk for a copy of the proceedings of the State Board of Agriculture held in January last.

W. G. Thomas, Esq., and his beautiful bride, arrived last night and were tendered a reception at the residence of Mr. E. B. Thomas.

The following question has been asked us:—"Can a minister marry himself in the presence of witnesses?" We turn it over to some of our legal friends to answer.

We understand that a party of gentlemen in this city contemplate buying up the privilege of fishing in Neuse river, from Smithfield to the Neuse river paper manufacturing company.

J. L. Stone received 72 New Home Sewing Machines yesterday. These machines are the best offered here for sale. Those in need should make a note of this and govern themselves accordingly. J. L. Stone, General Agent, No. 18 Fayetteville St.

The reception and supper given in honor of his son W. G. Thomas, Esq., and his beautiful and accomplished bride last night at the residence of E. B. Thomas, Esq., was attended by a large number of the friends of the family. Everything the appetite could desire was served in great profusion, and most heartily enjoyed.

Popular—coughs and colds Colored laces begin to permeate society.

Straw bead work will be a feature of spring millinery.

Peach trees are in bloom in the gardens about town.

There are one hundred different ways of cooking onions.

Japanese designs and tints figure largely in the new percales.

Ivery satin ribbon makes a nice throat bow; it suits any dress.

Common colored lace, says a fashion writer looks worse than none.

Summer dresses of muslin will be very simple, the fashion prophets say.

Now is the time to plant ulsters and furs where the moths will not get at them.

Some of the delicate spring fabrics suggest the tenderness of summer atmosphere.

The man who does not know what to think must try and think what he should know.

"Fifteen" is not to be introduced as a text book in our schools. That game is blocked.

Not an item of a public nature could be gleaned from any of the public offices in the Capitol to day.

We are sorry to hear that the family of Dr. J. W. Alston is very ill, especially his youngest child.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge, I. O. O. F. to night. Every member requested to be on hand, promptly.

There will be no services at the Church of the Good Shepherd to night. The Rector is suffering with a severe cold.

We noticed as we passed Littleton yesterday, that the authorities of the R. & G. R. R., were making a large addition to the warehouse at that place.

The sanitary condition of the city was never better, says the officer, who has it in charge. He says he has had back yards cleaned out, which have never been cleaned out before.

New spring goods are arriving daily at Mr. A. Creech's emporium, and he is selling them at the very lowest figures. Now is the time for the ladies to make their purchases, and Creech's is the place.

When you want harness, saddles or anything in that line, you can be accommodated on reasonable terms, by applying to Messrs. E. F. Wyatt & Son, on Martin Street. They carry a large and well selected stock.

Capt. J. B. Timberlake, the polite and efficient Conductor on the R. & G. R. R., was taken quite ill on his way to Portsmouth yesterday, and had to surrender his train to another man at Weldon and return to Raleigh. We hope he will be up in a few days.

Receipts of cotton to day about 50 bales. Middling 12 3/4 cents. Market quiet.

If "Ida L. Montrose" will furnish us with her real name, we will publish her communication.

Mrs. J. A., wife of L. N. Keith, left yesterday afternoon for Winston on a visit to her relatives.

See notice of dissolution of copartnership between Messrs. Atkinson, Bingham & Wagstaff. Mr. B. L. Bingham becomes sole proprietor.

If you want the best pianos or organs go to J. L. Stone, who sells them on the instalment plan.

Our aged and much esteemed friend, David C. Dudley, Esq., who has been absent in the country for several weeks, has returned to the city. He is looking well and is as jovial as a boy of 20 years.

We see at the Yarborough, E. Pasi-Voltz, of Teheran, Persia, who is on the lookout for the establishment of the culutre of silk. He is much pleased with Raleigh, but is greatly surprised at its want of enterprise. Says the soil for the mulberry is all he wants and the climate perfect, but that the electricity, produced by the frequent thunder-storms in summer, is a serious objection to successful culture. He left this morning for Durham where he proposes to establish a factory for the manufacture of the silk in Oriental style; he will then leave for Bald Mountain, the tableland on top, he says, is, from its uniformity of temperature and other peculiar advantages, superior to any locality in the Old World. Why can't Raleigh offer the same or better inducements than Durham for the manufacture of the raw material.

THE TUCKER HOUSE.—We call special attention to the card of this house kept by Mr. R. K. Ferrell. The table is supplied with the best the market affords at all times. Members of the Legislature will find this an excellent house to stop at.

Does it pay?—On Wilmington street there are two grocery stands adjoining. One of the firms advertises. The other does not. The one that advertises is doing a flourishing business. The one that does not advertise is closing up his business because he cannot make a living. Again we ask: Does it pay to advertise?

A SAD WARNING.—In yesterday's VISITOR was an item about burglars breaking into the room of Mr. Jordan Womble's, &c. It should have read "the room of Mr. Womble's cook was broken into." The printer who corrected at the piece, Mr. Ed. Bennett, now lies in state at the capitol, and will be buried to morrow. This is a sad warning to other printers who make editors mad. He was stuck through and through with the scissors.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's father, at 2 o'clock to day, by the Rev. W. S. Black, Mr. James A. Sanders, of Smithfield, Johnston county, to Miss Henrietta M. Goodwin, of this city, daughter of Miles Goodwin, Esq. The happy pair took the 3:30 train, bound east, for the home of the groom. We wish them a long and happy life.

GET OUT YOUR LICENSES.—The time for which many of the privilege licenses under Schedule B of the Revenue act were obtained will expire on the 14th of this month. Every person whose license will then run out must make immediate application at the Sheriff's office for another license. Attend to this, and keep out of trouble.

ATTENTION CLANS.—The Hoodoo's, Joanes', Strikers and the Scum Snatchers, are ordered to meet to night at the lodge of the joint council. Business of vital importance to the fraternity is to be transacted. All members in good standing are ordered to be present. Any failure to comply promptly with this order will be visited upon the delinquent with the usual penalty.

By order of
SQUASH HEAD,
Grand Mogul.
SMALL PATTERN, Secretary.
P. S.—We would say call on Tom Harris for further particulars; but as he asked us not to do so, and as we like to be obliging we will not say call on Tom. Recollect the place of meeting at the same old rendezvous.

I sell Pianos, Organs and Sewing Machines on the instalment plan. I sell Butterick's Patterns, Sewing Machines needles and oil, &c. &c., only for cash. Please don't forget this notice when you want the above named goods and oblige yours very truly, J. L. Stone, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C. 27-tf.
