CITY VISITS.

No old bonds this morning.

Nothing before the Mayor this mornng.

Only one more day in which to register.

The books of registration close to-morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Freeman are quite sick.

Capt. Brook's little son is very sick.

Not a marriage licence issued this morning.

Marx Cohen, of Petersburg, Va., took out a drummers' license to-day.

Mrs. Bettie Burns leaves tonight for her home, in Georgia.

Spring chickens, a little larger than quail, retail very readily in market for 30 cents a piece.

A party of young men left for Pittsboro last night to attend the marriage of one of Chatham's bellies.

A team belonging to O'Kelly & Baker ran away this morning.
The carriage was badly broken.

Receipts of cotton to-day very light. Middling 11½ cents. Marks demoralized.

Mrs. Eli Felt, of Warrenton, is in the city, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Brewer.

Colonel H. B. Short, of Columbus county, is registered at the Yarboro House.

Hopes are entertained now, by his physician that he will be able to save Mr. James Rideout's eye.

Ros Shober, colored, was put in jail to-day, for 30 days for failure to pay a bill of costs.

Mr. S. J. Fall, Agent of Immigration Abroad, appointed by our Board of Agriculture, reached Wellingborough, England, on the 7th inst. He left Raleigh on the 15th of March, and sailed from New York on the 21st.

SERMON ON HEAVEN.—Rev. Dr.
Teasdale will preach in the First Baptist Church to-night, on heaven. All are cordially invited to attend.

Some hogs at Ed. Lane's livery stables, drank some water poured off from mince meat and became very much intoxicated yesterday.

Several of our young people will engage in a picnic at Mil-burnie to-morrow. The Visitor wishes them a pleasant time.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F. to-morrow night. A full attendance desired. Business of importance to be transacted.

Campbell Perry had the first garden peas of the season in market this morning. He was selling them at $1.00 per peck.
Rather high for our pocket.

Mrs. Mary F. Jenkins, Macon Depothas a package needing 4 cts postage, and a postal card with no address, signed "A Tax Pay-er," are held at the post office here.

Revenue collections to-day $8,404.98.

Fresh fish received daily at stall No. 14. Give me a call.
G. D. Cully.

Ives Brooks, colored, paid his cost and was released from jail this morning.

Build cotton and tobacco factories, and in twenty years Raleigh will be one of the wealthiest and largest cities in the South.

If our business men desire to double their business, let them subscribe and aid in building the Railroad from here to Rocky Mount.

Every member of Thompson's Silver Cornet Band are requested to meet at the band room at 8 o'clock to-night, to make arrangements for Memorial Day.
By order of J. W. Lee, Captain.

Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker are having the Towles house removed to the lot in the rear of the Tucker House, to be made into a private residence. These gentlemen are continually making improvements—in our city.

Mr. Jake Scott, of Jones county; F. G. Simmons, Esq., of Newberne, and J. J. Hasty, sheriff of Union county, together with his wife, daughter and son, are registered at the National Hotel.

Sheriff J. J. Hasty, of Union county, brought three prisoners to the penitentiary to-day. Their names are:
Noah Little, 20 years; Jim McMannus, 10 years; Ephraim Wall, 10 years—all colored and all put in for larceny.

His girl sent him a note and told him if he called there with his mustache dyed, she would discard him. He went immediately and had it cut off. This happened in this city a few days ago.

Dr. and Mrs. Mac Rae, of Fayetteville, father and mother of Mr. J. Y. Mac Rae, the polite and accommodating clerk at Messrs. Pescud, Lee & Co's. drug store, are in the city, stopping at the Yarboro House.

The best Ten Pen Alley in the State. The best Gymnasium and the best company and the most fun, all at Lincke's Hall. Go there ye over worked and weary clerks, merchants and citizens and there recruit your energies. Do not forget Lincke's Gymnasium.

Why did he stay so late? Had he left just after calling her an angel, all would be well, but he stayed on, until the genial host was under the necessity of removing, the old Bramah rooster from the hen house to a perch near the parlor window. The cock crew thrice and the youth took the hint.

DIED.—In Brooklyn, N. Y., on the 19th inst., Mrs. Jane Smith Wyatt, wife of Mr. W. H. Wyatt, formerly of this city. The deceased was well known and much beloved in this city and her many relatives and friends here will learn of her death with much sadness. We sympathize with her sister and brother and other relatives here in their sad afflic-tion. She leaves a husband and little babe.

SATISFACTION.—Before buying elsewhere, satisfy yourself that you cannot find the same thing, or something as good, at R. B. Andrews & Co., Clothing and Hatters, for less money.
Many a dollar will thus be saved you. april 21-tf

OUR STATE FISH HATCHERY.—Up to Monday night last our Fish Commission at Avoca had taken 4,000,000 shad eggs. Over 3,000,000 will be distributed in our waters in a few days. This is work on a large scale.

daughter of Mr. Miles Goodwin, of this city, is lying quite ill in that town, from a deep cold contracted while returning to her home from a visit to her father's family in this city.

It is useless to send to New York or any where else, when you can get anything you want at Joseph Kreth's, on Martin Street, nearly opposite the post office. Go and examine his stock and prices.
