CITY VISITS.

A happy new year to you, Mr. VISITOR.—News.
 The young onion-bed is now a center of attraction.
 Links are crowding out cuff buttons on gents' sleeves.
 Now is the time to subscribe. Commence with the new volume.
 It is now time for hairless men to purchase fly nets for their bald heads.
 Raleigh Chapter, No. 10 will hold a special meeting to night for instruction.

Several persons were baptized at Swain Street Baptist Church this afternoon.
 THE VISITOR commences its third volume to day, under the most flattering circumstances.
 It is said that the pen is mightier than the sword. Neither is of much value without the holder.

Regular meeting of Raleigh Light Infantry to night. Business of importance to be transacted.
 Fresh fish received daily at stall No. 14. Give me a call, or send me an order. G. D. Cully. a23-w.

There have been 101 converts at Swain Street Baptist church up to last night, and the interest as great as ever.

I. W. Rogers, Esq., will put a sprinkler on the streets as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are procured. He should be liberally patronized.
 Free of charge. Your druggist will refund your money if Dr. Bull's cough syrup does not give you satisfaction and cure your cough.

There must be some great disturbance among the politicians. Colonel John A. McDonald, who is in the habit of retiring very early, was seen up at 12 o'clock last night.

When a woman has a bird on her hat—and what woman hasn't—and she leaves it on the table and the cat sees the article, it's hard to tell whether the cat or the woman will feel the worst about it.

W. T. Utley, Esq., has been chosen to represent Seaton Gales Lodge, No 64, at the approaching session of the Grand Lodge which meets in this city on the 11th of May next. Wm. Woollcott, Esq., alternate.

C. W. Hoover, who keeps a stall in the market, where you can get everything you want in the fowl and vegetable line, had the first cabbage of the season this morning. He was retailing them at 15 and 20 cents per head. Call and see him

There is more interest being manifested by the ex-Confederate soldiers this year, all over the State, in regard to Memorial Day, than ever before. We learn that very near all the ex-Confederates in this city and county will participate in the Memorial exercises here on the 10th of May, next.

Nothing before the Mayor this morning.

Not a marriage license issued this morning.

Lincke's Hall is the most popular resort in the city.

Whitfield, Powers & Co., took out a drummers license to day.

Go to Lincke's Hall to night, if you desire to spend some pleasant hours.

$12,000 worth of old bonds received for "exchange" at the Treasury to day.

The Chatham mail didn't arrive till 12 m., to day, being about 3½ hours behind time.

The festival of the Good Shepherd Sunday School at Metropolitan Hall again to night.
