to call early.

He that cannot forgive others breaks the bridge over which he must himself pass; for every man has need to be forgiven.

Lieutenant John T. Pullen was in command of the Raleigh Light Infantry on yesterday and conducted the movements of the company in a soldierly manner.

Colonel Thomas Warren, the gentlemanly porter for W. C. & A. B.
Stronach gave a free Strawberry lunch this morning at their down town store, but some fiend in human shape came near ruining the treat by dropping cayenne pepper in the berries.

For the benefit of his many friends who have lately missed him from his accustomed walks, we state that Tom Arrington is engaged in Superintending the laying of the sills on the Oxford and Henderson Railroad and is doing his work well too.

The parade of the Raleigh Light Infantry, on yesterday afternoon, was in all respects creditable. The drill was admirable and their soldier-ly bearing won general approval.
We predict that there will be but few, if any companies that will make a better show at Yorktown than the Raleigh boys.

The Rev. George B. Wetmore has very kindly consented to deliver an address on prohibition at the Good Templars' Hall over the Citizens' National Bank to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, to which the public are respectfully invited to be present. Let all who are in sympathy with the cause be present and hear this noted divine.

Episcopal Convention.

This body continued its session yesterday. The memorial address of Bishop Lay was directed to be transmitted to the family of Bishop Atkinson and a page of the journal devoted to the memory of the deceased.
Two amendments to the canon were recommended which were postponed until the next convention.

The Rev. Dr. Buell announced that it was proposed to purchase a portrait of the late Bishop Whittington, now being painted, to be hung in the meeting room of the Alumni of the General Theological Seminary, and asked all members of the alumni and all others who were interested in the matter to meet him in the chapel after the adjournment of the convention, to consider the raising of a subscription for this purpose.

The Rev. Mr. Hughes, for the committee appointed to consider the appointment of two evangelists, reported the following resolutions: That the Bishop be requested to appoint two evangelists, to be paid out of the Episcopal and contingent fund, that the evangelists be directed to take up collections whenever advisable for the Episcopal contingent fund, and that the Bishop have the power, by and with the consent of the executive missionary committee, to re-establish the assessment for diocesan missions.

These resolutions, with an amendment, were unanimously carried.
Adjourned until eight p. m.

EVENING SESSION.

The committee appointed to consider the statement of Mr. Wilke, reported a resolution exonerating him, which was adopted.

Rev. Mr. Bronson submitted the report of the committee on the state of the church. Adopted.

Rev. A. S. Smith, for the committee to whom was referred that portion of the Bishop's address pertaining to the subject of temperance, reported a resolution favoring the establishment of a temperance society similar to the one in the church of England. The resolution was adopted.

The Rev. Israel Harding, for the committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Rev. Edward Geer, submitted a series of resolutions, which were adopted.

Hon. R. H. Smith offered a resolution that a committee of three legal gentlemen be appointed to examine into the title of all property held by the church in the diocese. Hon. Geo.
Davis, R. H. Battle, Esq., and Fred.
Phillips, Esq., composed the committee.

A resolution offered by the Rev.
E. R. Rich was carried, directing that all titles, deeds, &c., belonging to the diocese be placed in the hands of the trustees of the diocese.

Upon motion of Dr. A. J. De-Rosset, the time of meeting of the next convention was fixed for the Wednesday following the fourth Sunday after Easter.

An invitation from the congregation of Calvary church, Tarboro, was here extended the convention to hold the next annual convention at that place.

Upon motion, the invitation was accepted.

Upon motion, the convention proceeded to the election of trustees of the University of the South, resulting in the election of the following:
Rev. George Patterson, D. D., Silas McBee, Esq., and Gen. W. R. Cox.
Dr. DeRosset declined re-election.

The convention at 10 p. m. adjourned.

Arden Cherry, Jr., a lad of 14 years, was drowned in a marl pit on the land of W. S. Barlow last Sunday, with a party of children too small to rescue him. He was fishing in the pit, fell in and was drowned, being subject to epileptic fits. Arden Cherry, the famous coon capturer, is deeply grieved at the loss of his son.—Tarboro Southerner.

Elizabeth City is a Railroad town now and the city fathers should not allow the cows and cattle to roam the streets at their own sweet will as in the primitive times. It's time for us to begin to put on a little city swell and accommodate ourselves to our circumstances.—Economist.

Winston Williams, colored, had his face badly burned a few evenings since while distilling rose leaves for one of the drugs stores in town. He was standing at the time over the still, when the cap blew off, throwing the boiling water and leaves fully twenty feet high. The injuries received were very painful at the time, but we are glad to hear that he is improving.—Fayetteville Examiner.

A very severe wind and hail storm visited the upper part of this county last Sunday evening. The hail stones were very large, and the storm lasted for nearly half an hour. Much damage was done to the growing crops, and we hear that one young man who was in the storm, was badly injured by the falling stones.—Fayetteville Examiner.

We learn that W. Dan Mobly and Thomas Roberson, both of Martin county, got into a dispute about a boundary line on Monday, when Roberson struck Mobly on the head with a pole, crushing his skull. The attending physician regards his recovery as doubtful.—Tarboro Southerner.

Chicago and St. Louis now furnish nearly one-half of the manufactured articles needed by Texas merchants.

One of the grounds on which an Ohio wife demands a divorce is that her husband habitually sleeps with a pistol in his hand.

A Geor. farmer found that his land would no longer bear good crops of corn and cotton, and he planted twenty-five acres with pear trees.
His profits are $400 an acre.

Annie Louis Cary was asked by the secretary of a cremation society in Pittsburg to sing for the benefit of its 'furnance fund,' and offered free cremation as a reward.

A brother arose in a weekly prayer-meeting in New Jersey and said:
'Brethren, when I consider the shortness of life, I feel as if I might be taken away suddenly, like a thief in the night.'

The Prince of Wales is a good natured fellow and is a welcome offset against his mother's proud sovereignty.
It having been suggested that if he would look into the studio of a struggling artist, that it would make him "immediately successful," he drove to the place at once.

Let justice be done, though the heavens fall. Many of our State papers have seen fit to animadvert severely upon the testimony of Dr Eugene Grissom, the talented Superintendent of the Insane Asylum, in the DeJarnette case. And the recent horrible murder of his father by young Priester is made an occasion for the renewal of those attacks.

We regret to see them, the more so because they are not accompanied by argument, nor evidence the fact that their authors have read the testimony in the DeJarnette case. Dr. Gris-son's opinion as an expert may or may not be correct, but it is simple justice to an eminent private citizen to say that he went to Danville in obedience to a subpoena and at the request of his Board, and paid his own expenses while there. His opinions on matters pertaining to his specialty ought to carry great weight with them when we recall the high estimation he is held in medical circles, not only in this country, but abroad. At the International Medical Congress held in Philadelphia in 1876, he was chosen one of the two Vice-Presidents from the United States—the other being the celebrated Dr. Gross, of Philadelphia; his replies to that eminent fraud, Dr.
Hammond, of New York, won the plaudits of the profession; and just the other day in Richmond the American Medical Association made him its third Vice President; and we are informed that this rigid DeJar-nette examination has added fresh laurels to his brow.

We are free to confess that as a North Carolinian we would the State contained more such men, and deprecate these floating flings calculated to dim a reputation earned by close application conjoined with a huge amount of brains.—Anson Times.

Here is a good chance for lads who would like to serve their country and at the same time sail the bonnie blue sea. Next September twenty five cadet engineers for service in the navy will be appointed, by competitive examination, held at Annapolis, and any American boy between fifteen and twenty years of age has the right to contest for one of the cadetships. No candidate should present himself at Annapolis, however, unless he is well versed in the elementary English branches—grammer, geography, arithmetic, algebra, geometry and natural philosophy. The successful candidates rank with the cadet midshipman and their pay is the same, $500 a year. Having thought very seriously over the matter and decided to become a candidate, a boy should write to the Secretary of the Navy for a pamphlet of particulars and then he should spend the summer in earnest study of the necessary branches.—Philadelphia Times.

An Indian Squaw Sacrificed.

It is now stated upon reliable authority that the Indians, at the burial of a member of their tribe, in the Harmony Mountains, some eight or nine miles from town, actually sacrificed a squaw on the grave of the dead brave. The Indians are very reticent regarding the matter, but admit that the squaw was a witch, and had, by her influence with the evil spirit, caused the death of four or five men of the tribe, against whom she entertained some grudge. They believed that the woman, who is a Bannock, was in league with the evil one, and by her spells and in-cantaions could bring sickness and death to those with whom she came in contact. The Indians say that it has been the custom of their tribe from time immemorial to put such persons to death at the grave of one of their victims, and they consider themselves wholly justified in doing so. The woman, we learn walked to the burying ground perfectly reconciled to her fate, and made no attempt to get away. A few years ago a young squaw known as Susie Jane was pronounced a witch by the leading men of the tribe and sentenced to be put to death. On the way to the place of execution she made her escape and left the town for awhile. As no Indian died within a given time after her escape it was thought that the evil spirit had been ben frightened away, and she was pardoned and permitted to return.

A Dispatch from Burton, W. Va., reports that a few nights since four men broke into the house of Mr.
McMasters, a newly-married man, seized and bound him, and in his presence indecently assaulted his wife. Brant O'Neil and James and John McCroffy have been arrested as the perpetrators. Great excitement prevails, and lynching is freely spoken of.
