Prospectus.

THE PUBLICATION OF THE NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday, the 2nd of January next.

Confidently relying on the hearty support which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains nor expense in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old times, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise, has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the Church, also, partake of the progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies, brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, lagged and almost hopeless, in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the church to the importance and necessity of work; of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first chief aim. In this we need assistance. We are not alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; by contributions from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co-operation in a common cause, for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us the means and opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all we hope for on the earth.

SCALE OF DEPRECIATION.

The following bill passed during the present session:

A bill to be entitled An Act to establish a Scale of Depreciation of Confederate Currency.

Whereas, By an ordinance of the Confederate Congress, passed on the 18th day of October, A. D. 1862, it is made the duty of the General Assembly to provide a scale of depreciation of the Confederate currency from the time of its first issue to the end of the war; and it is further therein declared that "all executory contracts, payable in money, whether under seal or not, made after the depreciation of said currency before the 1st day of May, 1865, and yet unfulfilled, (except official bonds and penal bonds payable to the State) shall be deemed to have been made with the understanding that they were payable in money of the said currency," subject nevertheless to evidence of a different intent of the parties to the contract; therefore,

"Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same," That the following scale of depreciation be and the same is hereby adopted and established as the measure of value of one gold dollar in Confederate currency, for each month and the fractional parts of the month of December, 1864, from the 1st day of November 1861, to the 1st day of May, 1865, to wit:

"Scale of depreciation of Confederate Currency, the gold dollar being the unit and measure of value, from Nov. 1st 1861, to May 1, 1865."
