The Old North State out representation was the fundamental prin-eiple upon which the foundation of the Re-public was laid."

The fathers did, indeed, lay it down as a

SALISBURY, FRIDAY, FEB. 26, '69

maxim that taxation and representation should go together, but, we imagine, they THOSE EDITORS with whom we exdera we trust they will pardon us in consid-eration of the large number of subscribers which we have among the bench and the bar, and remember that it is our duty to serve all classes of our readers as fac as we may be able to do so. But we imagine that this opinion will be found integesting to all as a history of coinage in this country.

APORTANT DECISION BY THE SU-PREME COURT OF NORTH CARO-LINA. The Septeme Court of the State has de-cided that the stay law is unconstitutional and, therefore void-Mr. Justice Reade de-

We are as ignorant as our Cheraw conlivering the opinion. That the Court has deeided correctly in this case we have no doubt, temporary on this subject-we have scarcely the dissenting of Judge Rodman to the conheard it mentioned for a month pasttrary notwithstanding. But while the de-cision rendered in the case presented has were not even apprised of the fact before that the company had been organized. We hope doubtless been according to law, the opinion, as delivered, containing the reasons which influenced the Court in arriving at its conour people will soon wake up to the importance of the enterprise.

We think that the road will be built soonelusion, seems to us to be liable. as a judicial er or later. Trade, though it may be tempoopinion, to severe criticism. The reason for rarily diverted to other channels, will, at such decisions, it seems to us, should ever be based upon the law governing the case, and rail road ever projected in North Carolina of various kinds. There is also a space within which such person shall have taxanot upon the practical workings of the acts of was a road from Salisbury to Charleston .- consecrated to the use of the Confe-Assembly, the Constitutionality of which may be questioned. Would it not have been suffi-tiont, aftershowing that the stay law "impair-United States. For many years the mercient, aftershowing that the stay law "impair-United States. For many years the mer-United States. For many years the mer-chants of Salisbury had been in the habit of the "Confederate dead," erected by some which he can obtain, including that deed the obligation of contracts," to have shown waggoning their goods from Charleston, and of the ladies of the town. It does that such laws by the States were prohibited by the Constitution of the U. States, which it was natural that a road to connect the two eredit to their industry, taste, and inge- examination of the assessor, and on his the Judges of the Court were sworn to ob- points should have been thus early projected. nuity.

serve? We think it would. But an argu-ment is made that the existence of such a law for eight years has been productive of ho growing out of the State sovereignty views that of Mr. George S. Brandt, it is the sole disc, and all articles or objects liable to good to the people of the State-that "the of that day, that a great North Carolins port attempted interference in favor of one class should be built on only that one of the state should be built on only that were in sucattempted interference in favor of one class should be built up and that our schemes of and escess the duty thereon, including the anount, if any, due for license and in-say unjust hopes, and has prevented the with that end in view. A counter project of a road to Fayetteville for the purpose of build-a note or memorandum, addressed to such

CORRESPONDENCE. For the Old North State. Mr. Edilor : As you invite communica-tions from every quarter, I respond, and send you a few "jottings by the wayside." The town of Fayetteville is quite an af-

CORRESPONDENCE.

INPORTANT DECISION BY TUE U.S. SUPPRESE COURT.
We and use of a standing of the second that the seco travelers ; no friend or bröther could be commissioner authorized to perform the more polite, kind or considerate than he duties of such judge at chambers, for an is at all times. It is truly refreshing to most with duties when such person as for a can be accompliabed without a zealous atten-tion, while the way is open and the minds of is at all times. It is truly refreshing to the people inclined towards it. Let it go meet with one who has the comfort of contempt. It shall be the duty of such forward.—Cheraw Democrat.

ted States Arsenal. It is all in ruins now; proper officer for the arrest of such person, the citizens deplore its loss very much as and upon his being brought before him to it constituted one of the chief features of proceed to a hearing of the case, and upon interest in the town. I learn that several such hearing the judge or commissioner handsome private houses were consumed shall have power to make such order as he luring its destruction. ahall doom proper to entirce obedience to

The Cemetery is beautifully located at the requirements of the summons and puner or later. Trade, though it may be tempo-the castern extremety of the city, it is ish such person for his default or disobe-rarily diverted to other channels, will, at handsomely laid off and looks quite sum-last, seek its natural highways. The first mer-like with a large number of evergreens sor or assistant assessor of the district great rived from the evidence elicited by the own view and information, such list or re-

The Virginia oyster crop is said t be worth $10,000,000 a year.

General Items.

The snow is only six feet deep on the Rocky Mountains.

There are said to be numerous fai among the New York dry goods how Parson Brownlow is said to be so gr an invalid that he has to be carried about

The Kentucky "Blue Grass this winter imported $2,000,000 mules to the South.

A Cincinnati lady recently had a at the breakfast table, fell into the fire was burned.

The small pax is said to prevai at St. Louis, Cin

nits, and in that

Ex Governor Wickliffe, of Kontucky, an octogenarian and blind, recently argued a case for two hours before a Kentucky Court! wood

The Irish girls of St. Louis sent nearly $10,000, during Christmas week to their friends in the old country. The House sergeant-af-arms at Washington, who is paid a salary of $9,592, is making at least $10,000 a year by fees.

A little daughter of Mr. Moses Cowis tenant in common with E. O. Foxhall and wife Mary, of Edgecombe county.) lying on the waters of the Yadkin river and Abbott's bie property to enter into and upon the ard, living near Eminence, Md., came to her death a few days since by having a creek, in the county of Davidson, ten miles from the N. C. Railroad, adjoining each oth-er and the lands of David Smith, Henry Owen pot of boiling soup poured down her throat by a negro woman. and others one Tract or Capt. Kidd's treasure has at last been One Thousand and fifteen found - in the caves of Salisbury Conn ACRES. An explorer, "reports" the discovery of human equine skeleton, guns, pistols, and the other THREE HUNDRED AND TWELVE acres. This well known landed en-tate, contains 500 acres of River Low Lands swords, utensils of various kinds, gold of rare quality. The purchaser, of the said Hargrave's molety, can, no doubt, purchase the other moiety upon reasonable terms. The said Hargrave has a good, fee simple title to the

The Winter is over a FRESH AND CHOICE BARDED SEEDS

ASSIGNEE'S SALE

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

R THE MANEGRAFAL DISP

JAS. R. MIXON, WILL STREET LOS D

Ballabury, N. C. "JIMMY? ROBINSON.

Sensation in Europe I" The Pride and Boast of America I Mr. JAMES ROBINSON, in re-visiting the Mr. JAMES BOBINSON, in re-visiting the South with a Circus of his own, would state that he does so in accordance with a long ther-ished desire to appear before the friends of fils childhood, in the hope of traceising the fame marks of approtation that he was so off-tinges the recipient of at the outset of his professional career. Weaver of golden gifts from all the Crowned Heads of Europe, possessor of the Dismond Studded Belt, and with the conceded and universally admitted title of "Champion," is desires in his manhood to receive the full endorsement of approval from huse who sus-tained and encouraged how in his Inlancy. ROBINSON will ride, as he alone can, at each entertainment, his ch entertainment, his

RAPID BARE-BACE ACT

Throwing his Fore and Back Somersailly over igh Barriers and Balloons, and carrying his afant son. Clarence, on his head !

Master Clarence I The youngest, smallest and prettiest child who has ever appeared in the arens, and who, by the New York press, has been christewal the Mile of Beauty, will be introduced in Min-iature Manage Act, in which he will, on his El-fid White Pony, give a series of exercises illus-trative of the Purisian Haut Feele 1

OF REAL ESTATE OF GREATVALUE Man is fearfully and wonderfully mad Reader, if you weigh 140 pounds, 70 of In the matter of Jesse Hargrave, Bankru them are water, and if you squeeze your-ON TUESDAY, the 16th day of March, 1869, I will offer for sale for Cash, at the resi-dence of Jesse Hargrave, in Davidson county, said Bankrupt's interest in, or undivided more-ty of, two valuable Tracts of Land (of which be self in a hydraulick press about six backets full will run out.

made." This may all be true, and if so ing up the port at Wilmington was agitated. would have been a good reason for the re- But a road in that direction would have had peal of the stay law by the legislature, even to cross many of the largest streams in the If its constitutionality had not been question- State and could only have been built at a ed, but certainly not to base a judicial decis-ton upon. to have said, will ultimately

This, is not the only reason given by the be built, runs parallel with the Yadkin and Court, independent of the law, to justify its Pee Dee Rivers and will only have to cross opinion to the public. It has traveled out of some insignificant streams which flow into the second to intimate-if not to express-an them. The advantages of such a route must opinion u, on the question of the Constitu- be apparent to all.

tionality of the Homestead provision of the There is already a road from Charleston State contstitution. And none can read the to Cheraw and when this road is built the for the climate and soil being adapted apinion without concluding that the court has idea of the projectors of the first road in might prove more highly remonerative, determined, whenever a case shall arise, to North Carolina will be carried out. And than any thing they can now produce. sustain the committationality of the Home- when the W. N C. road is finally completed stead, both in its application to new. and old an as to connect with the railroad system of price, and many are about engaging in debts. A Homestead having been provided the Great West a tremendous trade must be its culture, yet there is no guarantee that for ull, as the court more than intimates is concentrated at Saliabury and Charleston, and it will continue to maintain the present

The validity of a retrospective homestead York now is. We shall take occasion suon may ultimately be sustained by the Federal to recur to this subject.

Judiciary-we are not going to recapitulate our oft expressed opinion to the contrarybut certainly that august tribunal will not be governed by the reasons which seem to have influenced our Supreme court. The Supreme court or the United States will scarcely allow that the provisious of a State constitution have any validity where they conflict with the Federal Constitution, por that Congress-the body which statched a 000,000 of the recent appropriations, and in agricultural puradits. case from the hands of the court to prevent will diminish the debt of the State to that a decision upon the constitutionality of one amount. The appropriations made for the of its own acts-is "the guardian of the W. N. C. R. R., the W. C. & R. R. R., and United States Constitution." any more than the N. W. N. C. R. R. are not affected by the other departments the government. Nor this decision, as those roads had been charis it to be supposed that it will be driven from tered at the time the new Constitution was the law even by "an enlightened public senratified. Maza hi timent which is founded upon justice."

In the case just decided, the court seems to have blended the functions of the judiniary with those of the legiststure and to have endeavored to decide and egislate the law into such a shape as, in the other day, which we think of interits opinion, would be most beneficial to ereat enough to make public, as we have the people of State. It has labored in seen no mention of it elsewhere. Its argument to show that such will be the effect of its action, and such may really be the case. The people will generally North Carolina coast than before, and that acquiese in the decision and good may re-sult from it-we cannot tell. But there are const. sult from it-we cannot tell. But there are cases, where debts have been contracted since the war, where injustice must ensue unless the debtors are governed by a very North Carolina the weather has been unhigh sense of honr. For our part we are willing to do what a friend of ours said has been unusually bad and cold-freezhe would do if the people would elect him to an office-"submit-acquiese." within the memory of man.

We may possibly publish the opinion next week.

SUFFRAGE.

A Radical contemporary speaking of the fifteenth, or suffrage, amendment to the Con-

Fayetteville, N. C., Feb. 16, 1869.

STREAM.

A friend informed us of a curious fact

Does not this account for the remark weather we are having and have have had he past and present season ? While in

Yours truly,

TRAVELER.

WESTERN N. CAROLINA.

Mr. Editor : In the present depressed condition of the people of the South, es-pecially those engaged in agricultural pur-suits, it might not be unprofitable for Although cotton is now bearing a good tor all, as the cont, more than intimates is concentrated at Samodry and Charleson, and price after the next crop is made; for, if saved from oppression' even without a stay great advantages from it. Charleston will be the largest ever made. This fact alone then be nearer to the Great West than New Will be calculated to depress the price.

to recur to this subject. THE CHATHAM R. B. BONDS. The injunction granted by Judge Watts some time since, restraining the Treasurer from issuing the Chatham R. R. Bonds, has been confirmed and made perpetual by the Supreme Court. its, &c., from all which there can be no reasonable doubt that the Hop would be

This decision carries with it about $12,- well worth the attention of those engaged The fact that the labor required in the cultivation of, and preparing the Hopsfor market, is of a very light kind, and can be easily done by women and children, is a strong inducement for a trial; for after the crop is set, they may do nearly all the ter mining part of the work. The Hop is a native plant ; the roo ing percential; it may be seen in the EARTHQUAKES AND THE GULF spring sending up numerous annual flexi-ble stems, which twins around neighboring trees, and often climb to a great The subject is one of much interest. surely some of our numerous intelligent farmers might take the initiative on a sub-

Since the late carthquakes in Califor-There is a steady and increasing de nie, the Pilots on the coast testify that the mand for them, and they bring very re-Gulf Stream is twenty miles nearer the munerative prices.

> 15 ets. per lb. S.e. U. S. INTERNAL BEVENUE.

The attention of all U.S. Internal Revusually pleasant and mild, in Florida it enue tax payers of the Sixth District is The benefits to be derived by the comrespectfully called to the following pro- mercial interests of North Carolina can ing oranges and killing the trees, an ocons of the law : currence that never happened before H. H. HELPER.

Assessor.

And another subject for pleasant con-templation is the belief on the part of Sec. 14.' And be it further enacted, some scientific men that in this State we That in case any person shall be absent Agnes Hospital, Baltimore, ou Monday will never again experience long cold from his or her residence or place of busispells of weather as heretofore, and but ness at the time an assistant assessor shall afternon, at the age of 77 years. He very little bad weather of any sort. call to receive the annual list or return, it had been engaged in the ministry fifty We have always contended that North shall be the duty of such assistant asses' proling was the best place in the world. been whe have moved of had better to be an under the time of his death was believed to be the oldest Catholic present prices over four hundred millions Atteenth, or suffrage, amendment to the Coa-stitution says: <sup>2</sup> "It followed most faithfully in the foot-steps of the patriot fathers whose memorable maxim that there should be as taration with. <sup>2</sup> "It followed most faithfully in the foot-steps of the patriot fathers whose memorable maxim that there should be as taration with. <sup>2</sup> "It followed most faithfully in the foot-steps of the patriot fathers whose memorable maxim that there should be as taration with. <sup>2</sup> "It followed most faithfully in the foot-steps of the patriot fathers whose memorable maxim that there should be as taration with. <sup>3</sup> "It followed most faithfully in the foot-steps of the patriot fathers whose memorable maxim that there should be as taration with. <sup>3</sup> "It followed most faithfully in the foot-steps of the patriot fathers whose memorable maxim that there should be as taration with. <sup>3</sup> "It followed most faithfully in the foot-steps of the patriot fathers whose memorable maxim that there should be as taration with. <sup>3</sup> "It followed most faithfully in the foot-steps of the patriot fathers whose memorable maxim that there should be as taration with. <sup>3</sup> "It followed most faithfully in the foot-steps of the patriot fathers whose memorable maxim that there should be as taration with. <sup>3</sup> "It followed most faithfully in the foot-steps of the patriot fathers whose memorable maxim that there should be as taration with <sup>3</sup> "It followed most faithfully in the foot-steps of the patriot fathers whose memorable maxim that there should be as taration with <sup>3</sup> "It followed most faithfully in the foot-steps of the patriot fathers whose memorable <sup>3</sup> "It followed most faithfully in the foot-steps of the patriot fathers whose memorable <sup>3</sup> "It followed most faithfully in the foot-steps of the patriot fathers whose memorable <sup>3</sup> "It followed most faithfully in the foot-steps of the patriot fathers whose memorable <sup>3</sup> "It followed most faithfully in the foot-steps of the patriot fathers whose memorable <sup>3</sup> "It followed most fait or fraudulent list of valuation, he shall add one hundred per centum to such duty; ed to have exclaimed, when spoken to For the Old North Carolina. THE CULTIVATION OF HOPS IN road."

sioned by sickness or absence as aforesaid, no man be ashamed of a hard fist or a sunthe assessor may allow such further time for making and delivering such list or re- burnt countenance. Let him be ashamed turn as he may judge necessary, not ex-esceding thirty days; and the amount so added to the duty shall, in all cases, be collected by the collector at the same time and in the same manner with the duties; and the lists or returns so made and subscribed by such assessors or assistant assessors shall be taken and reputed as good and sufficient lists or returns for all legal ed in pursuance of law or any false or stantly. fraudulent list, return, account, or statement, with intent to defeat or evade the valuation, enumeration, or assessment in tended to be made, or if any person who being duly summoned to appear to testify investigated by prominent physicians or to appear and produce such books as aforesaid, shall neglect to appear or to and they have come to the conclusion that the bite of a dog enraged is as noisproduce said books, he shall, upon convicconous as that of one that is rabid, and tion thereof before any circuit or district court of the United States, be fined winter months as during the heated term any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned for not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of th court, with costs of prosecution.

ITS AN ILL WIND THAT BLWE NO ONE ANY GOOD.

presentative Republicans, and to conduct his Administration in spite of the Repub-From a careful examination by the U lican platform. He is the equally pro-S. Coast Survey, and from the Pilots of nounced supporter of the fifteenth amend our own waters, extending from New Berne via Hutteras Inlet, we learn that ment, incorporating universal suffrage." since the late earthquakes in California the course of the Gulf Stream has been The President on Tuesday accepted very materilly changed, being now muc the report of the Government Commis-sioners on an additional section of twenty ten to to twenty miles nearer the coast of miles of the Central Pacific railroad, ex-North Carolina than formerly. While the tending to the 510th mile-post east from damage to our cities in California was very severe, the benefits to this section of Sacramento, and directed that the Govour coast will be correspondingly large ernment bonds be issued thereon. form the fact that the bed of the ocean inlets and harbors of our coast have been The Okalona Miss., News says that changed and improved, thereby making them less dangerous. The channels are deeper, and the inner bar (commonly called the Swash) at Htteras, where our sail vessels and steamers have experienced so much trouble in years past in consequence of the shallow water, they are now ennabled to pass without difficulty.

hardly be over estimated, - Newbern Times

Father John F. Hickey, a well known and venerable Catholic priest, died at St-mon in the lands be longing to the estate of Samuel Hargrave, de and in case of a refusal or neglect, in ca-ses of sickness or absence, to make a list poor religion if it won't stand one rail-(ieb 29-8-3t-p126) P. O. Lexington, N. C.

NEW YORK and North Carolina Let no man be too proud to work. Let STEAMSHIP LINE FROM

This Line will comprise the following steam ashumed of dishonesty and idleness.

A man danced a jig in a Memphis bar-room with such vigor as to jar a pis-tol off a shelf behind the bar and ex-MARY SANFORD, John Moore. plode it. Nobody appeared to be hurt, With such additional Steamers as may purposes. Sec. 15. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall deliver or disclose to any assessor or assistant assessor appoint-gone through her brain, killing her in-R. foot of Wall street.

> The attention of Shippers is called to the LOW RATES and FACILITIES The recent stage cases of hydrophobia offered by this Line, which are superior to in the vicinity of New York have been any hereto THROUGH BILLS OF LADING given to all points on the North Carolina Railroad and its Connections via Golds-J. A. SADLER dogs are just as likely to go mad in the WORTH & DANIEL, Agents, Wilmington, N. C. JAMES HAND, Agent, feb29-8tf 119 Wall Street, N. Y Forney in his "Occasional letter says

JOHN S. HENDERSON. ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW SALISBURY, N. C. Will attend promptly to the Collec

ion of Claims. FALL & WINTER IMPORTATIONS. 1869.

出现上于那边是警 电分分分图 Ribbons, Trimming Ribbons, VELVET RIBBONS.

SILKS, SATINS, VELVETS, FANCY BONNET MATERIALS.

BLONDS, CRAPES, NETTS. French Flowers, Plumes and Orna ments, Bonnets, and Ladies' Hats in Straw, Silk, Velvet and Felt. We offer the largest and best assorted Stor in the United States, comprising all the late Parisian Novelties, and unequalled in choice variety and cheapness. ARMSTRONG, CATOR & CO.,

237 and 239 Baltimore Street, BALTIMORE.

Notice to Debtors. THE NOTES given to me as adminis trator of E. W. Griffiith, Jonathan Vog-ler and Jacob Hanes, dee'd. have been placed in the hands of Thomas J. Wilson, Esq , for collection and settlement. Parties interested would do well to call upon him at once, as they might thereby save cost. LEWIS HANES.

Feb. 26, 1869.

Contectionist. And a Powerful Auxiliary Corps, who, togeth-er with a fine stock of elegantly trained, blood-ed, and marked Horses and Ponies, constitute

BEST CIRCUS EVER BROUGHT SOUTH !

SPECIAL NOTICE :

There are "NO SIDE SHOWS." por other religar surroundings, such as fewelry Cases, Lotteries, or Other Games of Chance, Permitted on o ear the pr Tas, Robinson's Champion Circus The People of the South will also bear mind that the Management does not RESORT TO OUTSIDE DISPLAT. to draw a crowd. The merit of this show is made manifest by the style in which the Performances are Given.

No useless outlay for Showy Placards, to catch the eye, and minlead the public. The simple, plain announcement, The Original Rob-inson, "Jimmy," Pet Boy of the South, Only Rider in the World, is Coming 1 Sould be suf-ficient to invare for the Champion, the support of the People. Tickets, sumitting the holders to the Circus, before the openuus of the ticket-waron, can be before the opening of the ticket-wagon, can be obtained at the Boyden House. Will also exhibit at Morganton, Thursday, March 4; Statesville, Friday, March 5th. C. C. PELL, hat and coat choose to fret about it, let them; but it is nothing to me."

General Business Agen (feb 29-1t)

Mr. Hares of that place has knocked velocipedes, wagons, and locomotives out over ordinary roads.

Want of Respect .- "When a stranger treats me with want of respect," said i philosophie poor man, "I comfort myself with the reflection that it is not myself he of existence by the invention of a selfpropellor that runs fifteen miles an hour

"Gen, Grant, reticent as he is on most other subjects, allows no one to doubt his intentions to constitute his Cabinet of re-lights, but my old and shabby coat and hat, which, to say the truth, have no particular claim to admiration. So, if my

Three million bales of cotton this year, ject which may lead to valuable results.

