DRUGS, MEDICINES, &c. PECTORAL BALM! An approved and effective Remedy for Chronic Bronchitis—Asthma; the wasting Coughs in advanced age; Bleeding from the Lungs, &c., and capable of doing more real service in confirmed Consumption, than all the Expectorants, Cough Mixtures, &c., extant.

It is scientifically compounded of ingredients well known for their virtues and adaptation to the disease named, and is the result of long and extensive experience, and patient investigation of the laws of the animal economy together with an intimate knowledge of remedial agents in their physiological and therapeutic effect on the human system.

It is quite unlike the numerous Expectorants, Pectorals, &c., so recklessly and persistently palmed upon the suffering and confiding people, in that it is not an Expectorant, per se, it is based upon Opium or Morphine, in order to lull the poor sufferer with its delusive influence.

Of the several ingredients which compose this valuable Balm, there is no one which is not constantly used, by the best Physicians, in the diseases above enumerated, and of many eminent medical gentlemen, to whom its composition has been made known, there has not been one, who has not highly approved it; and in some instances, have not only presented it for their patients, but have used it in their own cases, with marked advantage.

THIS elegant and truly valuable Medicine, has from time to time, been in extensive use, by the best physicians of the South, in all the cities and towns, viz: Charleston, Savannah, Augusta, Atlanta, Charlotte, Columbia, &c., and is highly valued, by the multitudes of people who have used it. Many in this town and surrounding country, have enjoyed its benefits, and will no doubt, well remember it. A great number of the strongest, and most unqualified certificates of its value, have been voluntarily tendered the proprietor, many of them from persons of highest respectability and intelligence.

The Medicine is pleasant to take, and perfectly free from the possibility of harm, under any circumstances or conditions of health, indeed it is perfectly safe, even for an infant. It is especially adapted to the present season, when the approaching warm weather occasions such a degree of lassitude, and debility, particularly in weakly and prostrated systems, as often become almost insupportable.

40 YEARS BEFORE THE PUBLIC. IF OTHER Remedies FAIL FOR BRONCHIAL AND LIVER DISEASES read the following: Thomas H. RAYNER, Esq., Greenville, S. C., writes: "I had your Pills in the last family medicine chest, and I have had them ever since. My disease is bronchial affluence, and a complete prostration of the nervous system. I have used them ten or fifteen times, and I can testify that they are the very best medicine for such a family disease."

The Cure is Thorough. Kenneth Hayes, Esq., Clerk of Columbia county, writes (April 2, 1893): "During the latter part of the year 1892, I was severely afflicted with rheumatism and neuralgia, which I had for some time become so excruciating that I was compelled to get out of bed and sit up, and the pain would not leave me. I had used many other remedies, but they had no effect. I then tried your Pills for Rheumatism, and I can testify that they are the very best medicine for such a family disease."
