SALISHURY, N. C., May 25th, 1870. HON, LEWIS HANDS:

Dear Sir :- Your favor of the 24th Inst., ask ing my opinion as to whether I concur with yo in your article in the last number of the Old North State, entitled "The XIV Amendment-The Legislature," was received to-day, ' I entirely concur with you in the conclusion at which you have arrived, that any person banned by the 14th article of the amendments to the Constitution is ineligible to a scat in the Legislature. The great object of this amendment was every part of the State; to prevent certain classes of our citizens who had heretofore occupied positions of honor and profit, either under the State or Federal Government, and had taken an outh to support the Con stitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in rebellion against the government of the United States, from again being vested with office, until Congress had removed their disabili-

Now to say that a person beretofore banned is the above rumor. The story to us appears in-credible. That a man like Mr. Stephens, a pubnot eligible to the office of a Constable, but is eligible to a seat in the Legislature, is ascribing to the framers of this article an utter stupidity, which no one would willingly do.

Such a construction will violate the intenand spirit of the act. I therefore agree with you that a member of the Legislature is an officer within the meaning of the 14th article. Yours truly,

"RALFION May 7th, 1870. My Dear Sir: I merely write to say that I like the general tone of your paper very much; and that I often wish you would move with it to Kaleigh. The editors of the two papershere seem to imagine that they and their fortunes and reputations are all that is worth the attention of an admiring world. They have no word for ingernal improvements for immigration, for tariffs, taxes or currency; but countless columns of villification of each other. What a contrast do these Raleigh papers make with those of-Richthirds of the space given to the above named subjects which are so much neglected here.— There they have a sufficient amount of political venom, but they have the good sense and the capacity to give it utterance in language at once chaste and terse, if compared with our slangwhangers. It is doubtless to this constant disof internal improvement and immigration, that the people of that State are indebted for the rapid sale of their lands to Northern and European buyers, as well as for the vigor with which Railroads are being built. If the editors in this State could be induced to take a similar course there can be no doubt that similar results would

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT TO HON, THOS. RUFFIN. At a meeting of the Bar of Orange Superior

Court Spring Term, 1870, the following proceed-On motion, John W. Norwood was called to the chair, who explained the object of the ffeet-$6.505 96 ing, and Henry K. Nash requested to act as Sec-> draft resolutions appropriate to the occasion Whereupon the meeting adjourned until the next morning at 10 o'clock, when the following was presented and unanimously adopted: The death, since the last term of this court. of the Honorable Thomas Ruffin, the late eminent Chief Justice of the State, in the town of Hillsboro', the scene of his early professional labors, for a long period his home, and his chosen place of retirement in his declining years, has left a void in the community which is the subject of deep and general regret, and which has brought together his professional brethren, practicing in the court, to give expression to their sense of his loss to the country, and their appreciation of a public character so admired, distinguished and useful. Entering upon an active career in the practice 3,760 00 of the law early a or attaining to years of ma-11,267 00 jority, and pursuing it either at the Bar or upon the Bench until his voluntary will drawal from the highest seat of justice in the State, when approaching the age of seventy, he won distinction as a Counselor, Advocate and Judge, which by general concession assigns him few rivals and no superior in the annals of North Carolina, and for the Convention, about $130,000 00 to $140. gives him a place in the front rank of American Lawvers.

His recorded judicial arguments for twentyits approbation in every department of learning the store of Phillips Brothers, who will store known to our jurisprudence, whenever our sys-tem of law shall be administered or studied. To this high excellence as a Judge he added the attributes of a public spirited and patriotic citizen, an enlightened, hospitable and liberal gentlenfan, an example to be imitated in every social and domestic virtue, and the faith and practice of an humble christin. Happy in the consciousness of a long and well spent life, he was not less fortunate in the circumstances of its termination, although he had reached the 83rd year of his age, his faculties were unclouded, his spirits unabated, and his society, conversation and counsels were still the charm and guide of his family, his friends and neighbors. Therefore Resolved, That the members of the Orange Bar sincerely lament the loss which the profes sion and the people of the State have sustained in the death of the Honorable Thomas Ruffin, whose public services, talents and virtues are justly the pride of his country, and have given, ore disposing of their enormous stock of lustre to her fame

Resolved, That the report of these proceedings be published in the Hillsboro Recorder, Raleigh

Sentinel and such other papers of the State as shall be pleased to copy the same; and that copy be likewise transmitted by the chairman of this meeting to Mrs. Ruffin, with the assurance of our heartfelt sympathy in the afflicting bereavement of herself and family. Whereupon the meeting adjourned.

JOHN W. NORWOOD, Ch'm.

HENRY K. NASH, Sec'y. The New York Methodist of this week states that after eight years of unceasing ef- in great variety. We have just received a lot of fort, it has "the satisfaction of announcing FANCY CASSIMERES, the triumph of lay delegation," the necessary three-fourths vote having been secured. The late canvass in Maryland shows that has 45,000 black voters. As there are about 35,000 white Republicans, and the Democrats cannot poll over 70,000 votes, the pext political contest in the State will be an interesting one. The following is an old sailors direction to 433 00 a dentist: "Tis the aftermost grinder aloft 1.110 00 on the starboard quarter."

Bismarce(who is sick) is yet a comparatively young man. Born in 1814, the same 408 80 year with Prim, he is five years young rthan on Beust and Gladstone, and six years ounger than Napoleon, his greatest rival. At the age of fifty-six Bismare is said to be 84 00 disgusted with life.
