THE FLIRTATION OF MARRIED LADIES.

"Vie," the vivacious local gossip of the Chicago Tribune, reads the following lecture to her married sisters:

The other topic I want to touch upon is—the flirtation of married women. It sounds bad, doesn't it? And I wish it were confined to so low a strata of society that you and I need never touch upon it.

SUDDEN DEATH WHILE BATHING—A WARNING.

A dispatch published yesterday announced the death by drowning at a swimming place in Philadelphia, of Miss Killduff, and alleged as the cause the gassing beyond her depth.

Miss Kate, daughter of Dr. Robert Killduff, residing on Spruce street, was drowned while bathing in the large pool at the swimming place.
