Court Order from Yadkin County.

THE YANCEY HOUSE, in Raleigh, has been re-opened by Dr. G. W. Blackwall, recently of Kittrell's Springs. He is said to be an excellent landlord.

OUR FRIENDS AND PATRONS have been waiting anxiously to receive the official vote of all the counties, in order to ascertain the exact vote of Judge Settle and Col. Phillips. Also, the full official vote of each of the Congressional Districts. We decided on getting them until they are examined at the office of Secretary of State. As soon as we can do it them, we will publish full tables, and hope every one will preserve them for future reference.

Hon. T. L. Skinner's majority over Sprague in the 6th Congressional District, is 1,631.

Gen. Leach's majority over Scott in the 5th District, is 1,[illegible]. The most astonishing result of the election.

Mr. Waddell's majority over Dockery in the 3d District, is 851.

Col. S. H. Roger's second majority over J. H. Harris, (col., is 1,001.

Col. Harper's majority over Jones in the 7th District will reach about 2,000.—Ib.

OAK CITY CONVENTION.—Gen. R. B. Vance addressed the Oak City Council at their Hall on Monday night. He gave them an eloquent and powerful speech. By the way, it is about time for another revival in the Oak City Council. We judge from what we see and hear, that King Alcohol has the ascendency yet in those parts.—Temperance men, be up and doing.—Ib.

Some of the South Carolina papers assert that Gov. Scott, the new carpet-bag lord, it over the white people of South Carolina, when he lived in Ohio, was worth only $[illegible] in property; and that now, after being Governor of South Carolina for a short time, he is worth about $1[illegible]

[illegible] are some Treasury-suckers and Commissioners in South Carolina as well as in the Old North State. The only difference is, the latter have been sucked almost dry.—Charlotte Democrat.

From every quarter of the [illegible] we continue to hear the most cheering news as to the prospects of both the corn and cotton crops; unless some disaster overtakes them, there will be the best yield our farmers have realized since the war.—Rutherford News.

JUDGE HEISKELL.—We are pleased to learn that Judge Heiskell of Memphis, Tenn., intends residing a portion of his time at his mountain home in this State. His law partnership will be kept up in Memphis. He rejoices with us over the Conservative victory in this State.

THE BANKRUPT LAW—CHANGE IN ITS PROVISIONS.—The Bankrupt law went into effect on the 1st of January, 1867. An amendment was passed by Congress to the effect that at the expiration of the year after the law went into effect, no debtor should receive a discharge in bankruptcy unless his net assets would pay fifty per cent of his proved debts. Subsequently an extension of time to the operation of this amendment was made so that it would not go into operation till January 1, 1870. Since that date, up to the present time, comparatively few petitions have been filed in bankruptcy, it is being supposed that the [illegible] 50 per cent clause [illegible] without reference to the time when they were incurred. Congress has by a joint resolution so modified the law that the "50 per cent clause" will not affect debts contracted prior to 1870. This amendment is very important and will affect the debtor class throughout the United States, at least those whose debts were contracted before that year. A large number of merchants and others coming under the intent of the Bankrupt act have been hitherto deterred from taking advantage of its provisions on account of the effect of the "50 per cent clause" which is so materially modified by this amendment, and a revival of the business in the Bankrupt Courts—for the last year almost a nullity—will probably result from those who seek another opportunity to enter into business unencumbered with their past liabilities.—New York Times.

HOW TO ESCAPE TOBACCO WORMS.—Every person who lives in a tobacco country knows how troublesome to planters the horn worm is and what labor it requires to destroy these insects and so prevent them from ridding the tobacco leaves, as they ripen on the hill. Some of our North Carolina neighbors, we learn, have of late adopted an easy method of protecting their tobacco crops against this worm. They simply use a solution of cobalt (or fly-stone), to be had at all drug stores, which destroys the tobacco fly that lays the egg that hatches the worm.—The common Jamestown weed, which vegetates everywhere, is allowed to grow in limited numbers in the tobacco ground, and in the fence corners, and the cobalt in a powdered state mixed in a solution of honey water is dropped in the blossoms of the plant. As the tobacco flies freely feed from the flowers of this weed, they imbibe the poison, which kills them almost instantaneously. We are told that where this specific is used, the dead flies may be seen laid out on the ground for and near. Of course the fly being dead, the egg is not laid and the worm is not hatched.

Dr. Cole, druggist informs us that he has furnished this preparation to a number of Caswell farmers, who have used it with marked success. It surely saves a deal of labor and time.—Danville Times.

PERIODICALS.—The New York Eclectic for September is at hand with a very interesting table of contents, comprising twenty-five articles from almost as many of the leading magazines of the world. Among we note: The Council of the Vatican. Madame de Maintenon. The old Prisons of Paris and their Inmates. Charles Dickens—By Anthony Trobope. Lectures on the Science of Religion.—By Max Muller, Lord McCauley's School Day. Women in the Middle Ages. Execution of Marshal Ney. Recent Solar Researches. Moliere, Poetry, Literary Notices, Science, Art, Varieties. It is also embellished with a fine steel engraving of MOLIERE, the great Comic Poet of the age of Louis XIV in France. Terms, single numbers, 45 cents. Yearly subscription, $5. Address E. R. Pelton, Publisher, 108, Fulton street, New York.

The London Quarterly Review for July is also on our table, and is one of the most welcome publications ever finds its way there. We have read with great interest the article on "The Church and the Age" in the present number, and, we doubt not, the other articles are equally interesting. We commend this review to all in want of such a work.—Terms, single number, $1. One year, $4. Address the Leonard Scott Publishing Co., 140, Fulton Street, New York.

Demorest's Monthly Magazine combines the most useful, beautiful, comprehensive and complete Magazine now issued. It employs only first class writers in all its numerous departments, including Music, Stories, Poetry, Household matters, Architecture, and Gardening; and its Fashions are unquestionably far ahead of all others, both for beauty and Originality. "Demorest's Monthly," for handsome typography, high-toned literature, and first-class illustrations, is not excelled by any other. The September number, just issued, is fully up to its usual standard, and fully entitles it to the claim of being the Model Parlor Magazine of America. Yearly, $3. A choice of premiums, worth from two to ten dollars, is given to each subscriber, among which is a splendid Parlor Chromo, worth $3. Address W. Jennings Demorest, 838 Broadway, N. Y. *

Demorest's Young America, the juvenile Prince of Magazines, is on our table, and we find, as ever, that the children are on the qui vive of expectation for the good things they are always sure to find in it. The chromo of the Baltimore Oriole makes the present number especially attractive, and "Fiddling Freddy" still excites the attention of the juveniles. Yearly $1.50, with a beautiful premium worth the cost of "Young America." Address W. Jennings Demorest, 838 Broadway, New York. *

AN ITEM OF NATURAL INTEREST.—The subject to which we wish to direct the reader's attention is one of great importance to Americans, both as regards their individual and national interests; for while it contributes to the honor and greatness of the one, it advances the interests of the other; and no man, or class of men, or nation, can feel satisfied that they have done their duty to their flocks and herds unless there are means provided for their care and restoration when sick, a remedy against contagion, and a preventative against empiricism and barbarity. The means, remedy, and preventative are comprehended in the Veterinary Science and proper care of our Domestic Animals, to which the "American Stock Journal" is especially devoted, a copy of which should be in the hands of every Farmer and Stock Owner. A specimen sent free to all who apply. Address N. P. Boyer & Co., Publishers, Parkersburg, Chester county, Pa. *

ARREST FOR REVENUE FRAUDS.—Two or three months ago, a rough looking man clad in laboring garb, applied at the tobacco factory of the Messrs. Brown, in Patrick county, Va., for employment. It was given him, and being a very quiet, inoffensive sort of a man, everything went along smoothly until recently, when suddenly our workman threw off his laboring toggery, appeared in a different style of dress, announced himself as a Revenue detective, and arrested the Messrs. Brown, on the grave charge of defrauding the U. S. Revenue by using spurious stamps. He had remained long enough in the factory to obtain a pretty clear insight into matters and things, and then he closed in upon his victims.—Salem Press.

A TEXAN ANECDOTE.—About the close of the Texan war, a steamboat was running between New Orleans and Galveston, the captain of which, in a truly patriotic way, let it be known that he would transport the discharged Texan soldiers to New Orleans without charge or reward. It may be made a sure thing that the worthy steamboat man was not without calls. One day a stalwart fellow came down and demanded passage on the aforesaid promise. The captain looked at him for a moment, and then asked:

"Were you in the war?"

"Yes, Sir-r-r-r," responded the six-footer.

"What were you?" said the captain.

"A high private," answered the applicant.

"Go right on board, stranger," said the captain, "I've been running this boat two years, and carried up more than two thousand men that fit, but you're the fust private I've met so far."

EDITORIAL CODE OF HONOR.—No class of people occupy a more responsible position than editors. The public justly look upon them as patterns and exponents of the people. The state of society is now estimated to a great extent by the tone and sentiment of the press. If the journals of our country, and some of the men who conduct them, are to represent the sentiment, intelligence and civilization of our people, we fear that our moral and civil status will occupy a low position in the estimation of the civilized world. We are continually pained to witness evidences of the low standard of morals and civilization which is exhibited by some of the journals of our times, and the men who represent them.—Exchange.

☞ Hon. John Pendleton Kennedy, a well known politician and author, of Baltimore, died at Newport, R. I., on Friday, whither he had gone with his family for the benefit of his health. Mr. Kennedy had a national as well as local reputation as a writer and politician. He was born in Baltimore in 1795, and graduated at Baltimore College in 1812. He studied law under the celebrated Wm. Wirt, and was admitted to the bar in 1816, and practiced law successfully for about twenty years. In politics he was an old Whig, and served as presidential elector from Maryland in the contest which elected Harrison in 1840. He was the author of the well known novel of "Horse Shoe Robertson," and many other works of interest.

Mr. Kennedy was highly respected wherever known, not only for his literary abilities and political prominence, but for his genial social qualities and elevated personal character, and for the active part taken by him in all these enterprises undertaken for the improvement and happiness of the community in which he lived.

SPICE ITEMS.

As a lady was walking up the Bowery, a young rowdy purposely stepped on her dress and tore it. To the lady's remark that he should have been more careful, he replied insolently: "The street is free and I'll walk or place my foot where I like." "So will I," replied a by-stander, and with a well-directed kick he sent the fellow sprawling in the gutter. Taking off his hat he said to the rowdy: "I suppose you accord me a similar privilege, and admit that I, too, may place my foot where I please."

"The arrangements of nature are admirable," exclaimed a young lady during the late high winds. "The same wind which disarranges our dresses blows dust in the eyes of the wicked young men who would take advantage of our confusion." She was a very philosophical girl.

The Ohio legislature at its last session passed only seventy-two general acts, and the Columbus State Journal says there was less buncombe legislation and less of the mischievous special tinkering business than at any other session within the memory of the oldest inhabitants. That's a commendable distinction for any legislature to strive for.

Some idea of the extent of the Western egg trade may be formed from reading a paragraph in the Toledo Blade, stating that recently there arrived in that city, in a freight train on the Wabash Railroad seven car loads of eggs. There were in each car 125 barrels, or 875 barrels in all. Allowing 120 dozen eggs in each barrel, there were 1,260,000 eggs on board that train.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS.

The poor, emaciated Consumptive who is now beyond all hope of recovery, might now be hale and hearty had he not neglected that slight cough. Be advised, if you have a cough or cold, get at once a bottle of DR. TUTT'S EXPECTORANT and you will soon be relieved. Do not put it off.

CHOLERA!!!

The following letter is from Mr. Woodward, of St. Louis, to J. N. Harris, Esq., of New London, Conn. Mr. W. is a gentlman of high resectability, and during the prevalence of the cholera in St. Louis, watched the result of the application of the Pain Killer for this disease, and his testimony can be relied upon with the utmost confidence:

DEAR SIR:—You recollect when I saw you in January last, my expressing to you my most sanguine expectations that DAVIS' PAIN KILLER would have a tremendous sale in the west this season, and my anticipations have been more than realized, and the testimony of thousand who have used it has been they would not be willing to go to bed at night without it in the house.

On the appearance of the cholera in this city, such was the confidence in the Pain Killer as a remedy, that many who purchased it remarked to me that they had no fears or dread of the cholera as long as they had the Pain Killer by them, and hundreds took it daily as a preventative, for no person can have a derangement of the bowels or diarrhœa if they use this medicine This was the security and confidence of hundreds acquainted with it, and when their friends were attacked with the Cholera they would administer the remedy in large quantities, and in every case when it has been taken in any of the first stages of this disease, it has proved successful.

I consider it an infallible remedy. I have not heard of any individual in any family who used the Pain Killer when attacked but speedily recovered.

The clerk informed me that he administered it to persons when cold or in the cramps, and it gave imediate relief, but still it should be given quickly, for when the discharge of "rice water" has begun, the hope of life has fled.—Should this disease make its appearance among you, and all probability it will, be not alarmed; you and all others there have the remedy, and I am confident if the Pain Killer is used, not a single death by Cholera will occur in your city.

Respectfully yours,
A. T. WOODWARD

SINKING SLOWLY.

Diseases that progress rapidly to a crisis are not the only ones to be dreaded. Canker or dry rot does not blast a tree as suddenly a stroke of lightning, but unless arrested, it destroys it as certainly; and in like manner chronic debility, although it does not kill with swiftness of yellow fever, is as sure to sap the springs of life eventually as any acute disease, if not checked by invigorating medication. There is something inexpressly touching in the spectacle of premature decay. Languor, pallor, emaciation, depression of spirits, and a distaste for exertion, are its ordinary symptoms, and they should be promptly met by tonic treatment.—The best invigorant and exhilarant that can be administered in a case of this kind is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The stimulating principle of the preparation rouses the dormant energies of the system, and the strengthening and regulating properties give a permanent and healthful impulse to the vital forces thus brought into play. The failing appetite is re-awakened the process of digestion and assimilation are quickened the quality of the blood is improved, the secretions become more natural, and every organ that contributes to the nourishment of the body undergoes salutary change. By these means the repair of the physical structure is effected and its health and vigor restored. In no class of diseases has the benificent operaion of the Bitters been more marked and striking than in those characterized by general debility and nervous prostration. Ladies affected with these ailments find in this most wholesome of all tonics and correctives the safest and surest means of relief. It is strong to restore and powerless to injure. Such is the uniform testimony of "clouds of witnesses."

THIS COMPANY, NOW THOROUGHLY established, has met with the most unprecedented success during the few weeks since it commenced operations. Its agents are steadily engaged in an active and most flattering successful canvass.—They are receiving applications constantly, and the Company is ISSUING POLICIES EVERY DAY.
The people are daily availing themselves of the privilege of Insuring in A Home Company,
and are justified in their expectations of the benefits to be realized from a retention of their money at home for the benefit of Home People.
The Capital Stock is rapidly increasing by constant subscriptions and is sought after with much eagerness. The dividends in a few years will make the investment more than desirable.
IN THE 'WILMINGTON LIFE'
THE POLICIES
ARE ALL PARTICIPATING,
and policy-holders share the dividends, and are entitled to the participating privileges without the responsibilities of the mutual plan. Our people cannot be too fully impressed with the advantages of insuring in this Home Institution,
which promises so much of present and future good. Its onward march has begun with every assurance of final triumph and the increase of strength in its progress. Let us have done now and forever with the ruinous fallacy of sending our money abroad for the enrichment of others, and determine that henceforward we will retain it at home for the benefit of the Community and State.

THE TREMAINE PianoFortes are acknowled by all who have them in use, and by the First Musical Talent, to be equal, and in many respects, Superior to any Manufactured.
They combine Immense Power, Equality, Sweetness and Brilliancy of Tone, Elasticity of Touch, and Great Durability.

Dealers, Teachers and others desiring to purchase a first-class instrument are invited to examine these Pianos before making their selections elsewhere.

PATENT AGRAFFE TREBLE,
Together with all modern improvements. The most thoroughly seasoned timber the market affords is selected, regardless of cost, as we feel assured it will be the cheapest in the end.

The great increase in the sale of our instruments, has enabled us to reduce our prices for First Class Pianos, from ten to twenty-five per cent. less than any other house (offering the same class of instruments) in the United States.

While we act upon the maxim of "quick sales and small profits," we make it, at the same time, a special object to furnish our customers with instruments in no way inferior to the best in the market.

Many families have had a desire to obtain a Piano, but could not afford to pay the dealer a profit of from $100 to $300, neither do they wish to purchase a cheap made instrument, that would cost more to keep in repair than it is worth, hence a large class of our music loving people have been obliged to do without.

We can furnish New Seven-Octave Piano Fortes from 275 to 950 dollars. Second hand Pianos from 40 to 250 dollars.

☞ Parties ordering by mail may rely upon the best selections.

Our Pianos are fully warranted for six years

THE BURDETT
Combination ORGAN.
(With Carpenter and Burdett's New Improvements.)

The disagreeable reedy tone entirely over come in this instrument.

The Verdict is Unanimous!

The Greatest Success of the Age!!

We Challenge the World to Equal It!!

And cordially invite the profession, dealers and the musical world generally to examine this truly wonderful instrument.

The Burdett Combination Organ

As its name indicates, is an ingenious union of all our standard improvements, combined with many new features never before introduced or attempted in Reed Organs, together making this Organ the SU PLUS ULTRA of instruments, and one that has already created a revolution in the public mind in the decided favor of the general adoption of Reed Organs, both for secular and sacred music, where an instrument is required either to accompany the voice or to produce orchestral effects.

With the multitudinous and surprising combinations that are contained in this instrument, the most intricate music of the "great masters," can be rendered as on a grand organ; or the most simple music for the melodeon can be played by a child.

All the various improvements on the Burdett Organ are protected by patent, belong exclusively to the Company, and can be used on no other organ.

The present Burdett Organ has received the most cordial and highest enconiums from those ranking among the first of musicians and organists.

The New York Independent says of the Burdett Organ: "It is by far the most perfect reed instrument we have ever seen."

The Christian Leader says: "We had no idea that a reed instrument could be brought to such perfection"

The New York Observer says: "Its purity of voicing, richness of tone, and wonderful orchestral combinations, together with a number of new and original stops, render it an instrument of such perfection as to be beyond competition"

The press and public everywhere who have had an opportunity of listening to its beautiful strains, not only give it their unqualified approval, but unhesitatingly concede that it stands without a rival.

The Burdett Organ ranges in price from $135 to $1000.

We have also New Cabinet Organs at $45, $75, $100, &c.

TO PHYSICIANS.

NEW YORK, August 15, 1868.

Allow me to call your attention to my preparation of

COMPOUND EXTRACT BUCHU.

The components parts are Buchu, Long Leaf, Cubebs, Juniper Berries.

MODE OF PREPARATION.

Buchu, in vacuo. Juniper Berries, by distillation, to form a fine gin. Cubebs extracted by displacement with spirits obtained from Juniper Berries; very little sugar is used, and a small proportion of spirit. It is more palatable than any now to use.

Buchu, as prepared by Druggists, is of a dark color. It is a plant that emits its fragrance: the action of a flame destroys this (its active principle), leaving a dark and glutinous decoction. Mine is the color of ingredients. The Buchu in my preparation predominates; the smallest quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation: upon inspection, it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopœa, nor is it a Syrup—and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflammation exist. In this, you have the knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of preparation.

Hoping that you will favor it with a trial, and that upon inspection it will meet with your approbation, With a feeling of confidence,

I am, very respectfully,
H. T. HELMBOLD,
Chemist and Druggist of 16 Years' Experience.

NOVEMBER 4, 1854.

"I am acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the Drug Store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise." WILLIAM WEIGHTMAN, Firm of Powers & Weightman, Manufacturing Chemists, Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.
