WART A NEW STATE.-The Radical ewspapers of Western North Carolina, such as the Asheville Pioncer, Jefferson Times Rutherford Star, &c., are in favor of dismembering the State, and forming a new one to be composed of Western North Carolina, East Transacts and Southwestern Virginia. How do our radical friends like that ? It sems that North Carolina is too conservative to afford these restless newspaper politicians the slightest chance for preferment, and their only hope is in getting up a new State, formed out of portions of old ones, so that there will be a host of new offices to fill. > > A POLITICAL CALL.

To the Native Union Men of the South : After consultation with many of the native original Union men of the South, it has been deemed advisable to call a meeting of such at the city of Knoz ville. Tennessee, on the first day of November text. The main object of this conference is to consult upon the present condition of the country, and to take into consideration the rights of those who, during the late civil war. were true to the Constitution and to the Un ion. It is not called in the interest of any particular party, or for any special party purpose. Hence all who were Union men are respectfully invited to meet us on that

Amongst the subjects which will be brought to the attention of the meeting will be something like the following platform of princi-

1. To accept in good faith the fourteenth and fift-enth amendments to the Constitution of the United States as the final settlement of the status of the African race.

2. Universal amnesty, and the restoration to every man of the civil and political rights which he enjoyed before the war. 3. Equality and uniformity in taxation, so that every section shall pay its proportionate part; that no interest shall be charged with more than its just proportion.

4. Compensation to loyal men in the South for property taken for the use of the Government during the war; and the payment of all claims due citizens of the South for services rendered prior to the war. 5. Payment of the public debt according to contract, and as speedily as is consistent with a due regard for the interests of the people; and a fair and equitable distribution of the banking capital in the South and West. 6. The repeal or modification of the oath of office as prescribed by the act of July 2d, 1862. 7. That all who are required to discharge the duties of citizens are entitled to all the rights and privileges as citizens.

It is desirable that every State in the South should be represented in the meeting.

THE BANKRUPT LAW-CHANGE IN ITS PROVISIONS.

The bankrupt law went into effect on 1st of June, 1867. An amendment was passed bankruptcy unless his net assets would pay fifty per cent. of his proved debts. Subsequently an extension of time for the operaon of this amendment was made so that it would not go into operation until January . 1869. Since that date up the present time. comparatively few petitions have been filed in bankruptcy, it being supposed that the so-called "50 per cent. clause" covered all debes, without reference to the time when "50 per cent. clause" will not affect debts contracted prior to 1869. This amendment is very important and will affect the debtor class throughout the United States, at least those debts that were contracted before that act have hitherto been deferred from taking advantage of its provisions on account of the

Their prints, cloths, cassimeres. &c., are all purchased by the case, and of these they have every variety in large quantities. The retail or wholesale purchaser need not go beyond Wittkowsky & Rintels' for anything he wants. They have as large a supply of groceries as any house in the city, and their stock of boots and shoes is not surpassed in either quantity or quality. They have made their selection of ladies' dress goods, for the fall and winter trade, with unusual taste and care, and when we were shown iuto the millinery department, presided over by Miss Betsy Williams, we vere quite bewildered with the richness and rarity of the articles there displayed, which the ladies know so well how to appreciate. The selection of artificial flowers, ribbons. &c., is said to be the rarest and richest ever brought to this market. They are certainly

WHAT DOES REASON SAY 1 The little mongoose when bitten by a deadly aerpent resorts to a certain plant, eats of it, and escapes the effect of the poison. That is instinct. Human beings on the other hand, mustdepend on reacon and experience in selecting the means of protecting health and life against unwholesome influences. Now, what does reason say on this vital subject? Does it against unwholesome influences. Now, what does reason say on this vital subject? Does it not tell us that to invigente and purify the system is the best way to protect it against the invisible poison which generates discusse?—Surely it does. The next question is, what guide shall we follow in choosing a medicinal safeguard? Reason replies let your monitor be experience. Well, the experience of eighteen years comprised in one univoken series of satisfactory testimonials asseme us that Hystetter's Stomach Bitters possess strengthening, regulating and antisoptic properties which are not combined in the same happy proportions in any other poparation chant. This therefore is the antidote to which reason bide us resort when our health is imperilled either by the malaris which produces gridenic disorders, or by any other cause, whether inherent and constitutional or connected with our habits, occupations and pursuits.

The venum of a noxious reptile is scarcely more subtile and dangerous than that which lurks in foul air and impure water. To escape the favors, billous disorders, disturbances of the bowels, and other serious maladies produced by these insalubrious elements, it is absolutely processary that the stomach and all the secret
