Perhaps, after awhile, an American artist will give us the Virgin and the Ohild. It would be more upt to be impartial than that of any of the ancients. 1/They put their own nationality into the picture, and it was a German Christ, or a Venetian Christ, or a Tuscan Christ, or a venetian Christ, or a Tuscan Christ, but the American, having in him the blood of many lands, and in his face a commungling of the features of all na-tions, when he gives us upon canvas Ma-ry and the Child, it will be a world's affection bending over a world's Christ.

WAS ST. PAUL A BACHELOR.

It seems to be a pretty general impres-sion says a recent writer, that Paul was a at the head of thousands of men whose bachelor, and many ladies of the present destinies were surpended on arbitrary day have formed an opinion of him which is decidedly unfavorable. I believe, and purpose to show, that Paul was actually to labor or business event twelve hours a married man, and a strong advocate of "Woman's Rights." The Corinthian is icft for study, and this will amount to Reside the state in the state is in the course of the year. upon the subject of matrimony in a time of great persecution, and, under the cirtances he seems to think that for the time being the unmarried had better remain so. Eusebius, Clement, and other historians, speak of Paul as a married man, and according to the best historical evidence we can get, he was at the time of writing this epistle a widower. And thus he remained true to his dead will and ad-monished other men who had lost their store to pursue a similar course. If there is a woman in America who is particularfter her death, we should like to see her. The postle's advice to wives, 'in the fifth chapter of Ephesians, seems to be very offensive to some because he admonishes them to obedience. Husbands are very fond of quoting it. If there is but one rext it is that; but do you ever hear the twenty-fifth verse from masculine lips 7— Listen: "Husbands, love your, wives, area a Christ loved the Church, and gove Liston: "Husbands, love your, wives, even as Christ loved the Church, and gave himself for it." THE CONSOLIDATION of the two most popular Southern Companies is full of advantage to the policy holders of both Companies. Its expenditures will be less, and with less relative risk. The future dividends will be more certain, and probably greater in amount, and a better reser ved fand created.

No Right of old rolley holders will be effected ; they will continue to pay the same rule as to fore; to hold the same policies as before; to have the same rights, benefits and privileges as be-fore, and have equal present security with greater future benefits than before.

All renewals of old policies will be in name of new company. This Company has met with a success beyond all parallel in Life Insurance, and now offersto the Southern public a Home Enterprise equal to any and surpassed by none. It advices the payment of all cash premiums, because then divider ds will continually decrease such next payment, until nothing will be required, and the policy may be a source of income ; but it will allow one third loan on participating policies. It requires no notes for leans.

It has no restrictions on residence or travel, all policies are Non-Forfeitable, and the rights of parties guaranteed on the face of the Policy as a part of the contract. It has the following valuable features which no other company gives. The late war taught many Southern men, insured in Northern companies, the penalty of being separated from the Home Office, by having all their past payments forfeited. This company guinds against this is her policies, and in the event of a separation from its office by any intervention, guarantees to such all the right of Non-Forfeiture, said up policy, surrender value and reinstatement, as though there had been no such intervening cause. Its permanent investment of funds (as required by the Charter) is in mortgages or leins or
