The people of Salisbury Township favorable to the call of a State Convention, are respectfully invited to meet at the Courthouse in Salisbury, on Saturday the 6th instant, at 12 o'clock, M., for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent said Township in the County Nominating Convention.

By order of the Ex-Com. of Salisbury Township.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—At the election held on Monday for Mayor and Commissioners of the Town of Salisbury for the ensuing year, the following gentlemen were elected with little opposition, on what was known as the "People's Ticket."

INTENDANT:
James S. McDubbin.
COMMISSIONERS:

SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS:

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.—The pupils of Miss JENNIE CALDWELL'S school, gave a very pretty private entertainment to a few friends and patrons, at the school room, which was beautifully decorated, the evening of May 1st—a MAY QUEEN CROWNING. One of the smallest girls was selected for the Queen, and a little boy, smaller still, the crowning Knight. The "maids of honor" were also small, so that on the whole, it was almost infants in a roll usually played by older actors. Their several parts, including both action and speeches, were very sweetly rendered, and elicited continuous applause. The scene was reproduced three times before the audience would be content.

These exercises, together with the usual congratulations and paying of respects to the Queen, were succeeded by cakes, candies and fruits; and these again by plays and various amusements, and the entertainment closed.

It was pleasing and gratifying to all, and will doubtless be long remembered by some of their little ones present as a dear incident of their childhood.

RURAL CAROLINIAN EDN. MAY.—Varied, fresh, instructive, decidedly the best Agricultural monthly on our table. The frontispiece, handsome engraving of General Johnson Haigood, President of the South Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical Society, is worthy of the Magazine and General. General Haigood is no Militia General, but a Confederate officer, who won his spurs upon the field of battle, and in taking in the lead in favor of improved agriculture, he is only following his old habit of being always in front. Dr. E. M. Pendleton of Spartanburg, Dr. C. U. Shepherd, the celebrated chemist, and B. Mason of Elba, Col. D. Wyatt Aiken, and a score of other well posted planters, make their contributions to this number. A glance at the names of the various places at which correspondents date their contributions is convincing proof of the wide circulation and extensive influence of the Rural Carolinian.—The only wonder is that such a Magazine can be supplied at the low rate of $2 per annum, and afford a reasonable profit to the publishers. Messrs. Walker, Evans & Cogswell, Charleston, S.C.

Chiefly Among the Colored Gentry.—The colored gentlemen of Wilmington had a Tournament on Monday last at the old Tournament grounds near that city. The Star says: The following were the successful knights: George W. Murray won the first prize, a fine silver watch and chain. The second highest prize, a champagne supper, was won by Washington Howe. The crowning took place at City Hall.

We expect soon to hear of a Tournament by the "strong-minded" women, headed by Victoria C. Woodhull and Tennessee Claflin.

Hon. O. H. Dockery, of Richmond county, son of Hon. Alfred Dockery, has been appointed and confirmed Consul to Stettin, Prussia.

Mr. Coley, recalled.

Mr. Belo, the President of the North-Western N.C. Railroad has been invited to Richmond to meet and consult with the merchants of that city and some Pennsylvania gentlemen in regard to the completion of our road.

Western Sentinel.

The Highest Bridge in the World.—The Baltimore Bridge Company is having manufactured a wrought iron standard for a railway in South America, which is 573 feet long and 250 feet high.

I. O. O. P.—North State Lodge of this excellent and ancient Order had a celebration in this city on Friday Wednesday. Maj. Seaton Gates of Raleigh delivered the address. We were not present, but hear the address spoken of on all hands in the highest and most complimentary terms. We learn that an effort will be made to obtain a copy for publication. Major Gates is a gentleman of culture and very fine literary tastes and attainments, and the address will be looked for with much interest by members of the Order, and others.—Old North State.

We learn from a gentleman who was present, that the Annual Commemoration of the Odd Fellows of Salisbury was, every way, a most pleasing occasion. The Lodge in that town is in a very flourishing condition, and numbers among its members some of the best citizens in the community.

The procession of the day, headed by the Salisbury brass band, is described as an imposing one. The exercises were conducted in the Presbyterian church, where fine choir, aided by a splendid organ, sang several of the songs and chants of the Order.

The afternoon and evening were devoted to work of the Order, showing evidences of gratifying progress and efficiency.

We are pleased to learn that Major Seaton Gates, M. W. G. M., will, at the earliest solicitation of North State Lodge, furnish a copy of his address for publication.—Telegraph.

Seizing an ill still in Rockingham, the Revenue runner brought him that he would impress the wagon and team of lumbering farmer absent from home. Meeting the farmer on the road, he was compelled to give up the team, to its owner, and while seeking another in the neighborhood, the owner of the unguarded still started that away, so the Revenue man got back to Greensboro empty handed.—*Telegraph.

THE MASON AND THE REVOLUTION.

PARIS, April 30.—The Masonic procession, half a mile in length, passed through the streets to-day and planted their banners on the ramparts under fire. All the Lodges in the city were represented. Several Masons were wounded while on the ramparts.

VERSAILLES, April 30.—M. Thiers granted an interview to the Masonic delegation from Paris, which arrived here last night. He told them that the Government desired to see an end of the civil war, but France could not capitulate in the presence of an armed insurrection. He referred them to the Committee for the restoration of order within the city of which he had usurped control.

PARIS.—Evening Evening.—Yesterday witnessed a grand scene at the Champs Elysees, the military departure of the Freemasons to visit M. Thiers. A large crowd had collected to witness their departure, when the besiegers suddenly opened fire on them, causing the people to scatter widely. The French troops advanced and planted one hundred and twenty flags on the ramparts, a flag for each lodge.

The Freemason delegation was coldly received by Thiers, and returned to the city on foot. The Masons take pins with the National colors in guarding the banners of the Order on the ramparts, and doffed under a terrible fire.

Closed in Disgrace.

PARIS, May 1.—General Claretz has been dismissed by the Committee, and it is stated here, with the approval of that body, were arrested by the Executive Committee. Rossel succeeds him.

Terrorie Bonapart.

PARIS, May 1.—The firing last night was fearful, and apparently utterly reckless. Nothing to compare with it has occurred since the commencement of the war. The city is generally excited and alarmed. Groups of frightened people are in every street discussing the state of affairs. Gen. Okolowicz's wound is very severe, and his recovery is doubtful.

The delegates from the Masonic Lodges of Paris have returned from Versailles, unable to accomplish anything. They report that Thiers expresses the opinion that a peaceful arrangement with the Paris commune is possible.

Versailles Accounts—Very Not Yet Occupied.

VERSAILLES, May 1.—A large number of troops moved toward Paris to-day, as reinforcements to the army of investment.

The editors of all the moderate journals in Paris have been ordered to be prosecuted by the commune, and are leaving the city as rapidly as possible.

7 P.M.—The negotiations for the surrender of Issy failed, and the bombardment was recommended and is now very violent.

VERSAILLES, May 1.—Negotiations are pending for the surrender of Issy. The Versillists demand a hostage, that Fort J.-Y. must be not exploded, and thrown in such an event, to shoot the parishion. Sixty thousand men are now ready at Reuil, to make an attack.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Advertising will not sell worthless medicines long, as many persons have doubtless discovered; but a medicine that recommends itself, as Simmons Liver Balsom does on trial, only requires to be kept before the public to insure success.
