We heard it first at the dawn of day, And it mingled with matin chimes; But years have distanced the beautiful lay; its melody floweth far away. We call it now, "Old Times." A Galveston young man has lost faith in human nature worse than Grant did. He courted a girl over two weeks, and her parents said they wouldu' permit any such thing, so the young people concluded to elope. He got a youg man, a friend of his, to take the girl to New Orleans, where he would meet them and marry the girl, and go somewhere and enjoy life sensibly. THE CALM DEPTHS .- Shallow waters are easily mudied. After a night of storm, the waters of the bay along the beach, stirred by the winds, are foul and black with the mire and dirt. But look beyond, out in the deep water-how blue and clear it is ! The white caps on the surthe witness have all been examined, and ce show the violence of the wind, but the water is too deep for the storms that sweep its surface to stir up the earth at the bottom.
