For the Old North State. ROAD TO HEAVEN.

This beautiful song was written by a gentleman of Indiana, in the year 1844. The author is a member of the German Baptist Church. This song was printed in a musical monthly; it also appeared in the Gospel Visitor, a monthly published in Dayton, Ohio, H.J. Kurtz, printer and publisher. It has been sung a great deal in the West and South ; it is admired by all lovers of song. We have great respect for the author, the song is so well fitted up. He represents the Bible as the track, the faith and spirit is the car. This road has been built about 1800 years, and is still in good order.

1. The road to Heaven by Christ was made, With Godly truth the rails were laid ; From earth to Heaven, the line extends, To tife eternal, where it ends.

CHORUS-We're traveling home, we're traveling home, We're traveling home to Heaven above, We're traveling home, to Heaven above, To sing the Saviour's dying love.

2. Repentence, faith, that works by love, Each traveler needs to go above; Deny thyself, is all the fee, For Jesus Christ has made us free.

3. The Bible is the track alone On which to reach the Heavenly Throne To leave the track is foolishness. And brings poor trav'lers in distress. (Chorus.)

4. But don't you walk the track alone, There's danger all around you soon; Clear off the track, there comes a train, And try to get a place within.

5. The church is the commodious car In which we meet from near and far, To journey on toward our rest, Where saints will be forever blest. (Chorus.

6. Conductor, breakman, engineer, Are faithful men, to take us clear Through dangers in the wilderness, And bring us safe to Heavenly bliss (Chorus.)

7. God's love and spirit is the fire Which drives the train and engine higher But water plenty is needed, sure, If we would get along secure. (Chorus.)

8. For want of that, disasters dire, Have been occasioned by the fire; All who would safe in glory hide, Must keep close to the Saviour's side.

9. Where he stops, there our station be, Refreshments be provides for thee; All those who wish to go aright, Must watch and pray both day and night.

10. Poor sinners come, now is the time, The bell rings now in every clime; If you repent and turn from sin, The train will stop and take you in. (Chorus.)

A DOG DECIDES A CASE.

All intersting exhibition of entire asgacity took place in Mayor Cobb's court a few days since, which serves to illustrate the almost unerring instinct of a dog. Some seven or eight claimants for the posssession of the dog, all of whom were Senegambians, appeared before His Honor to iprosecute their claims to the ownership of the animal. In order to arrive at a correct decision, the magistrate was compelled to rest the subject in a Combination great measure with the dog, by resorting to a method somewhat in keeping with King Solomon's decision, in regard to the maternity of a certain child claimed by two women. The Mayor directed that each claimant announce the name by which they called him; then ordering the litigaints outside the chamber of justice, and rataining the dog within, he instructed the several candidates for possession to call him. Several tried by the most pathetic appeals to move the animal, but in vain, until at last one very sable specimen of the 15th amendment issue, yel. The Verdict is Unanimous! led out euphonious subriquet of "Busser," when the dog immediately "busted" to his lawful owner. The experiment was several times renewed with the same result, when the canine quadruped was And cordially incite the profession, dealers awarded by all the rules of law and equity to him for the dog had been a and the musical world generally to examine witners - Lynchburg Virginian.
