LUTHERAN CONFERENCE.

A correspondent of the Hickory Tavern Eagle gives the following account of a late session of the Lutheran Conference held in Catawba county:

"Conference met, at time and place, according to previous arrangement. Preaching by Rev. Mr. Peterson, in which he ably discussed the subject of the Christain armor. After preaching, an election was held, which resulted as follows: Rev. J. M. Smith, President; Rev. J. R. Peterson, Secretary, and A. J. Fox. Treasurer.

The next business in order before the meeting was an essay, prepared by the Rev. J. R. Peterson, on the subject of good works, which was called for and read; this placed the subject before the meeting for discussion.

After some able and intelligent discussion a resolution was offered:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that good works are necessary." The sense of this resolution is that good works are necessary for the christian's light, and not necessary or do not necessarily contribute anything towards making him a christian no more than the good works and charity of a child to his fellow children contributes to making himself a child. I think this is clearly conceivable and admisable to every mind that a child cannot be capable of any of those things until he is a child and inasmuch as he is încapable of performing a good work in the sight of God, until he is a child of God; so then, as the child acts because he is a child, so also the christian acts because he is a christian, and not in order to become one. But in conclusion I will say that where pure faith is cherished in the heart of the believer there is true christianity from whence good works flow as free as water from its fountain head.

After the adoption of this subjec', as before mentioned, the meeting was then adjourned till Saturday morning nine o'clock, with usual exercises.

Conference met according to adjournment, with the usual exercises, preaching by the Rev. J. A. Fox, after an able and eloquent shower of Divine intelligence in which consisted in not only the drops but the spoutings of the soul-strengthening and soul-refreshing powers of Devine intelligence, the unfinished business of Friday was then resumed.

The essay prepared by Rev. J. M. Smith upon the subject of the Union of the North Carolina and Tenuessee Synods, was presented and read. This placed the subject before the meeting for discussion, whereapon a considerable discussion ensued-resulting in the opiaion of the meeting that a union was expedient, but not practicable at

The meeting then adjourned to meet on Friday before the last Sunday in March, 1862, in Christ's Church, Gaston county, N. C. Sunday morning arrived which brought auxiety and gratitude-anxions to receive the imperishable bread distributed -gratfied to see so many apparently ready and waiting to receive. When the hour arrived for preaching, the audience was entertained by Brother Fox, who delivered an efficient discourse upon the subject of the "Keys. of the Kingdom." For refreshment 40 minutes were had.

After which the congregation reassembled and were entertained by Brother Peterson, with an appropriate sermon to the occasion; after which confession and absolution were attended to, whereupon the Lord's supper was administered, in which a goodly number were

One of the most contemptible habits that can curse man is that of making low remarks about women passing along the street. It is a sure index of low breeding and a shallow mind, No true gentleman will do it.
