

THE DAY'S NEWS IN PICTURES

MOST RECENT PHOTO OF THE POPE—Pope Pius XI imparts the papal blessing for peace before leaving Castel Gandolfo, his country residence, to return to Rome. Soon after this appearance the pope contracted a severe cold.

A FIGHTING POSE—This excellent closeup of Gov. Alfred M. Landon shows the Republican presidential nominee putting over a potent argument during his campaign tour of the lakes' states.

'QUIET' LONDON SEES RIOTS—London, usually considered the most orderly large city in the world, sees riot action now when Fascists invade the East End, where Fascism is anathema. Look at the London bobbies swing their clubs!

HOSPITAL BILL PAID, SHE CAN RETURN TO BABY—When she couldn't pay her bill in a Chicago hospital where she went for observation, Mrs. Helen Sifferling was forced to stay. Judge Philip J. Finnegan came to her aid, however, forcing Mrs. Sifferling's divorced husband to pay the bill. Now Mrs. Sifferling is back with her two-year-old daughter, Harlene, shown above.

F. D. R. SPEAKS TO 50,000 IN DENVER—Fifty thousand persons, crowded into an entire city square around the state capitol building in Denver, Colo., listen to President Roosevelt assert that government relief and other costs were coming down with an increase in private employment. The president pledged the New Deal to "more action, sound action . . . to save the constitutional representative form of government in which we rejoice."

GOVERNOR ALLRED PLAYS FARMER—Visiting the Texas Centennial exposition in Dallas, Gov. James V. Allred of Texas tries his hand at milking the champion cow, Carnation Ormsby Butter King. The cow averages 57 quarts of milk daily.

IT WILL FLY—HE HOPES—A flight over the English channel is the ambition of Francois Baudot, former chief engineer of the Bleriot airplane works, who has created this aerial bicycle.

Fashions of the Fashionable

DINNER OUTFIT—This dinner ensemble modeled here by Ann Sothern, screen actress, is in two pieces. The short tunic blouse is banded in white fox. The skirt, following fashion's latest whim, is designed so that one spot in front is almost up to the calf, thus forming a short train in back.

ANCIENT ROMAN STONE REPLACED IN LINCOLN'S TOMB—This ancient Roman stone, 25 centuries old, sent to President Abraham Lincoln in 1865 by citizens of Rome, has been replaced in the Lincoln tomb at Springfield, Ill. Five years ago the Lincoln tomb was reconstructed and the stone removed and stored.

MIRIAM'S BACK—Miriam Hopkins, screen actress, returns to New York following a European vacation.
