An Exclusive Alice Brooks Design

Household Arts by Alice Brooks
Handsome Squares Quickly Crocheted in String
PATTERN 5735
A spread that's easy to make and quite the most beautiful ever! Those decorative squares are done separately, the butterflies set off by a lacy K stitch, borders by plain filet mesh. Picture the beauty of refreshment cloths from these, or a scarf or pillow. Smaller squares, that result from finer cotton, make small but lovely gift articles. You can use the squares together or repeat just one design alone. In pattern 5735 you find instructions and charts for making the squares shown; an illustration of them, and of the stitches used; material requirements. To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to The Shelby Daily Star, Household Arts Dept., 259 W. 14th Street, New York, N. Y. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS AND PHONE NUMBER.

Crash Is Fatal To Durham Youth

DURHAM, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Relatives today awaited the arrival of the body of Robert Lee Brame, 20, before arranging funeral services. Young Brame was killed last Wednesday night when his automobile plunged off a mountain road near Golden, Colorado. The discovery of his body was announced last night.

Brame and his bride, the former Lorena Perry, who were married here Oct. 17, were on their way to Seattle, Wash., where he has to work.

They stopped in Denver and news reaching here said Brame left his wife at a hotel and drove to the top of Lookout Mountain to buy souvenirs. Colorado authorities said that on his way down he apparently was blinded by a fog and that his car went over a cliff.

Mrs. Brame was reported to be on her way home.

In addition to the widow, Brame is survived by his parents and three brothers, J. B., Charles and Thomas Brame, all of Durham.

Brame attended the University of North Carolina last year but suffered a broken neck while playing football several months ago and did not return to the university this fall.
