MEETING TOMORROW
Members of the T. E. L. class of the First Baptist Sunday school are invited to meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the church for the regular social and business session.

WOODSON WILL BE
STRESS TO CLUB
Mrs. Harry Woodson will entertain members of the South Washington bridge club Thursday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Miss Margaret Anthony on South Washington street.

WOMAN DIVISION TO MEET THURSDAY
There will be a meeting of the woman's division of the Woman's club Friday afternoon, at the Woman's club room, beginning at 3:30. Mrs. J. L. McDowell and Mrs. Guy Wertz will serve as hostesses.

WOMAN CIVIC LEAGUE
MEETING POSTPONED
The meeting of the Junior Civic League, scheduled for tomorrow afternoon, has been indefinitely postponed to avoid conflict with the show being held tomorrow at the fairground.

Mrs. P. WRIGHT
ANNOUNCES
Mrs. A. P. Wright announces the marriage of her daughter, Lucille, to Mr. Mayhew, which took place Sunday, November 8, in Gaffney, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayhew will make their home with the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Mayhew on the Cherryville road.

Mr. and Mrs. WHITE
WILL HAVE
Mr. and Mrs. Harvey White entertained a group of friends at an informal dinner party Friday evening at their home on Cleveland Springs road.

MISS MARY
AND CHARLOTTE
Misses Mary and Charlotte Tedder were hostesses last evening to members of the Lottie Moon circle of the First Baptist church, entertaining at a regular meeting.

Mrs. Burnet, who is a gifted artist, has studied in New York and Chicago under Daveneck, Randall Davey and Antoine Steiva, and has exhibited her work in many southern cities. At an exhibition in Memphis a few years ago her pictures were awarded the grand prize over all classes of art work entered.

MRS. WALLACE MCGINTY
IS SHOWER HONOREE
Mrs. Wallace McGinty, bride of the autumn, was the inspiration of a party and shower given Friday

Mrs. Wallace McGinty is the inspiration of a party and shower given Friday evening by her aunt, Mrs. W. A. Pendleton, at her home on South LaFayette street. The Pendleton home was decorated with a mixture of autumn flowers which made the setting bright for the evening's fun, which was afforded by a variety of games and contests. Contest winners were Mrs. Eubert Irvin, Mrs. Arthur Hicks, and Miss Mary Frances Carpenter and each of the girls gave her prize to the bride.

Presentation of the flower gifts was made by giving Mrs. McGinty the end of a string, which she followed to the room where the packages were arranged.

A salad and sweet course with Russian tea was served by Mrs. Pendleton.

GREEN FAMILY HAS BIRTHDAY DINNER
The children of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Green gathered at the home of their son, Hershel Green, and Mrs. Green, 608 Fullerton street, Sunday to celebrate the 59th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Green.

The guest of honor occupied the seat at the head of the long table from which dinner was served. She received a generous gift of money from her children.

Members of her family and friends present during the day to add to the pleasure of the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Yates Green, Mr. and Mrs. James Copper, Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Green, all of Shelby, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCraw and daughter, Frances McCraw, of Gaffney, Mr. and Mrs. Jonnie Green and children, Unie Mae, Rilla and Jonnie, Jr., of Boiling Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Blanton and children, Michael and Patsy Ann, Mr. and Mrs. John Edd Queen, Miss Daisy Hamrick and Hatcher Spangler.

MRS. WYTAMAN CRAWLEY IS PARTY HONOREE
Mrs. Clyde Daves and Miss Frances Grayham entertained at a pretty party at the home of Mrs. Daves on West Graham street Friday afternoon complimenting Mrs. Wytaman Crawley who, before her marriage in late October, was Miss Selma Branton. Mrs. Paul Whisonant, also an October bride, shared honors. Mrs. Crawley wore a smart model of green light wool with brown velvet trimming and brown accessories. Mrs. Whisonant wore a frock of beet root with grey accessories.

Yellow, white and purple chrysanthemums and yellow and bronze marigolds formed a rich floral pattern in the rooms where four tables were placed for hearts dice. Marigolds filled a basket which formed the centerpiece for the lace covered table and four small baskets which centered the four card tables.

When players compared their scores at the end of the evening the award for high score went to Miss Lallage Spurling. The hostesses gave Mrs. Crawley a pretty crystal vase and Mrs. Whisonant a piece of white pottery.

Mrs. Grady Mauney helped the hostesses when they passed refreshment plates of salad and other party goodies. Harvest shades of orange and yellow appeared in refreshment details.

The group of young ladies present included the two brides, Miss Spurling, Miss Letha Branton, Mrs. Ed Branton, Miss Madge Spurling, Miss Lalene Grigg, Miss Helen Ruby Irvin, Mrs. Lowery Austell, Graham, Mrs. Glenn Stine, Miss Miss Helen Collins, Miss Pauline Dedmon, and Mrs. Norman Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans Allen announce the birth of a daughter this morning at the local hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whitaker and son, Joe, spent yesterday in Asheville with Misses Mary Sue and Carolyn Whitaker, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Whitaker, who are students at Asheville Teachers college.

Mangum Roberts was taken to Duke university at Durham yesterday for treatment. Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. J. F. Roberts and Mrs. L. O. Hunter made the trip down with him but will return home today. Mr. Roberts' brother, Dr. Louis Roberts, is house physician at the University hospital.

Among the Shelby friends who attended the funeral of C. A. Morgan in McCormick, S. C., Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baber, Dr. and Mrs. B. M. Jarrett, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Hamrick, Oren Hamrick, E. B. Jarrett, Mrs. Clint Newton, Betty Hull, Clyde Short, Rhoe Hamrick, Joe Buff and Horace Eason.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Shipp of Charlotte paid a brief visit to friends in Shelby yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Spake was able to be out yesterday for the first time following a serious illness and an operation some weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey White and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse White visited Mr. and Mrs. M. E. White in Chester, S. C., last Thursday evening. Mr. White, father of Jesse and Harvey White, had suffered minor injuries in a fall at his home there last week.

Behold the decorative richness of this lovely crochet! Then see the simple "pattern" medallion that, repeated, goes to make up dainty accessories for your home. It's really a tatting design only it goes much faster. Lacy as snow crystals, yet durable as iron, these are made of inexpensive string, or, if finer ones are desired, mercerized crochet cotton.

Chair set, quickly made from these, is a most acceptable gift, as is also doily or buffet set. In pattern 5728 you will find instructions for making the medallion and joining it to make a variety of articles; material requirements; illustrations of all stitches used.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to The Shelby Daily Star, Household Arts Dept., 259 W. 14th Street, New York, N. Y. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS AND PATTERN NUMBER.

Perky Marian Martin Frock Proves Easy To Make, Easy To Wear

PATTERN 9088

Picture of a young lady about to make a good impression—and she's chosen the right frock, too! Easy to wear, easy to look at and easy to make, is Pattern 9088, and so chic and fashion-right that you'll want it made up in any number of different colors and fabrics. Why not stitch it up for "everyday" wear in cotton or wool challis, jersey or woolly cotton? Then for your "gala" events turn out a version in lustrous satin, velveteen, or wool crepe? Fresh and "different" is the "revere" collar, (which may be accented by buttons or a novelty "tie"), and just see the Gibson Girl sleeves (you've been reading about them—here they are!) Very new too, is the all-around flare of the skirt. Complete Diagrammed Marian Martin Sew Chart Included.

Pattern 9088 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 requires 3 5/8 yards 39 inch fabric.

BE SURE TO STATE SIZE
Write at once for the new issue of Marian Martin pattern book! Don't wait another minute to get this new book filled with smart, modern and advanced styles in frocks, suits and blouses for the workday morning, the brighter afternoon or the glamorous evening. Scores of suggestions on accessories, fabrics and gifts, too. Book is but fifteen cents. Pattern, too, is but fifteen cents. Twenty-five cents for both when ordered together.

Today's SMALL TALK

By MRS. RENN DRUM

THE SEASON FOR PAWING THROUGH MOUNTAINS of Christmas cards is almost upon us again and with it comes an article, appearing in the November 7 issue of The Literary Digest, on the why and wherefore of Christmas cards, how they are made and how they sell. The article interested me enough that I'm taking it for granted some parts of it will interest you and so I'm quoting from it:

"Last week only a scattered few of the more far-sighted holiday-card senders had begun to lay in their Yuletide sentiments. Nevertheless, manufacturers could predict record sales with the assurance of an umpire calling a third strike. They could even have done so back in April for the simple reason that retailers buy in March, and greeting-card sales to them has exceeded the 1935 demand by 15 percent.

"All of which means that Americans this Christmas will browse through some 300,000,000 green, blue, red and otherwise hued ready-made holiday sentiments. (People shop endless for cards, not for bargains, but for 'just the right one.') They will pile on shop counters a mountain of pennies, nickels, quarters $21,000,000 high.

"Cards will cost them from one cent to $1 unless they want something special. In that case, from the jewelers or from smart specialty shops, they can order $4 cards reproduced from famous paintings."

"The article goes on to say that manufacturers plan their cards more than a year ahead, production for Christmas 1937 being already underway. The popularity of cards for all seasons has increased to such an extent in the last several years that Christmas cards now account for only 35 percent of the annual card sales; birthday, gift, hope-you-are-better and other such cards account for another 50 percent and other holidays take care of the other fifteen percent.

Most of the tender sentiments penned for consumption by the card-buying and sending public are written by regular staffs of composers, who are paid regular wages for being sentimental regular hours each day. Edgar Guest, under exclusive contract to one greeting card company, turns out several dozen touching card sentiments a year, and J. P. McEvoy, short story writer, is another prolific producer of greeting sentiments.

"For boys like them the pay is good, McEvoy having been known to turn out $10,000 worth of sweetness (in writers' fees) in a year, but the lesser lights are expected to be 'sweet' at the rate of about fifty cents a line.

THE SEASONS ARE CAPRICIOUS. Just when I'm getting out of my winter undies and making elaborate preparations to face the North Wind which meets me in my short-cut alley each morning, the season goes into reverse and brings out springtime blossoms.

A story in Shelby's best newspaper yesterday told of cherry and damson trees putting on their April white, practically defying the maples' reds and golds, and Sunday afternoon Adeline Blackley plucked a tiny lilac blossom from a determined bush in her yard.

Jumping from the Blackley's lilac bushes to their menagerie, which includes a bunny, a cat, a dog and a turtle (or is he still living?) in fact anything young Shem takes a fancy to, I liked the story about their dog which goes out to the sidewalk at a regular hour each afternoon to meet Mrs. Beunna

Bohn, as she comes home from school. Poor doggie, how was he to know that there's no school on Saturdays. Last Saturday afternoon he trotted out to the street and sat there expectantly, waiting for Mrs. Bostic to come. Finally she noticed him and called out the window to tell him she was already home. He's still wondering, I suppose, how she got by him.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamrick Have Family Dinner

LATTIMORE, Nov. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Hamrick of Lattimore entertained Sunday at their home here at a family dinner at which time covers were laid for: Mr. and Mrs. Less Hamrick and son, George, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hamrick of Shelby, Mr. and Mrs. Gleason Hamrick, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Canipe, the hosts and their daughter, Miss Sara Hamrick.
