

Gophers Again Top National Football; Duke Ranks Eleventh

LOUISIANA IS SECOND, 'BAMA THIRD, PITT 4TH

Southern Teams Move In For Wave Of Support

By ALAN GOULD
NEW ORK, Nov. 24.—(AP)—Minnesota's Gophers are right back where they started—at the top of America's collegiate football heap.

Ballots in the sixth or semi-final ranking poll conducted by the Associated Press restored Minnesota to first place today after trailing Northwestern for three straight weeks.

The assist is credited to Notre Dame, which achieved what Minnesota failed to accomplish by wallowing the sluggish Wildcats in their final game. Northwestern thereby dropped abruptly to seventh place in this week's "top ten" despite the team's otherwise all-conquering record.

The two leading aggregations of the deep south, Louisiana State and Alabama, moved up into second and third place on a wave of voting support. They face final tests this week against Tulane and Vanderbilt, respectively, with Rose Bowl and Sugar Bowl invitations at stake.

Deacons Are Ready To Meet Wildcats

WAKE FOREST, Nov. 24.—With the date of the game with Davidson college there on Richardson field Thanksgiving day only a few days off, Coach Jim Weaver has pronounced his Demon Deacon squad as fit and ready to go to battle in this annual Turkey day classic against the Wildcats.

According to Coach Weaver, his boys will spend most of the time this week in perfecting the timing and execution of their plays. The Deacons were largely occupied in last week's drills with setting up a defense to be used against the famous running and passing attack of Mr. Teny Lafferty and company.

Sink The Navy

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 24.—(AP)—The Navy, its football telegraph shored over to full speed ahead, flew its best and biggest "Sink The Navy" signals today.

Huge signs and cartoons appealing to Navy to defeat its chief gridiron foe were hung in Bancroft Hall. The regiment is holding pep meetings nightly preparing for the game Saturday in Philadelphia.

Fire The Army

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 24.—(AP)—The Army's head coach, has two worries as the annual battle with Navy draws near.

One is that his team, though fully recovered from the influenza attacks which caused trouble in the mid season, has not regained the form shown in early season. The other is that the blocking and tackling are not what they should be.

Branch Bank Opens

RALEIGH, Nov. 24.—(AP)—The state banking department announced today that the First-Citizens Bank and Trust company of Smithfield opened a branch at Richlands Monday morning.

Volley Ball Is In Full Swing Among B. S. College Girls

(Special to The Star.)

BOILING SPRINGS COLLEGE.—Nov. 24.—The girls of Boiling Springs college are showing the football boys what spirit really is. The girls were divided into Red and Black teams at the first of the year. These sides are being held throughout the two years to provide competition in the intramural program.

With Reds winning the softball tournament Blacks the soccer, now they are competing in volleyball, playing two or three days. Each day the winner will have won two out of three games, of twenty-one points each. The girls are carrying banners decorating the gymnasium and are showing even more enthusiasm than that shown at intercollegiate games.

Captain Quessie Hunt, a freshman from Casar, has led her team to victory over the Black team.

After volley ball games between the classes and societies the scrimmage of basketball for the intercollegiate program will begin.

Carolina's Defeat Cause Of Death Of Old Rameses

CHAPEL HILL, Nov. 24.—(AP)—Solemn ceremonies befitting his regal Egyptian namesakes will be held by University of North Carolina students at chapel hour tomorrow for Rameses III, who Thursday would have wound up three years of mascooting Tar Heel football teams.

The old fellow with the permanent wave in his horns died suddenly at Hogan's farm near here of what attendants said was heart trouble aggravated by North Carolina's recent defeat by Duke.

In his three-year tenure, the deceased hung up nifty record for future mascots to shoot at. In his three years of sideline patrolling, Rameses III's goaty good luck brought the Tar Heels 22 victories, five defeats and one tie. His three year contract would have terminated Thanksgiving against Virginia at Charlottesville.

But his was a life of ups and downs. Early in his reign the snatchers got him. Bent up evil, they came at night, literally pulled the wool over his young brown eyes and made off with him. A posse of indignant students, armed with ladders and things, swept over to Duke university's ram-rustler hideouts, but found not a trace of the baby goat.

Later Rameses III simply showed up on the campus here, nibbling grass, but university G-men (Goat-men) were unable to put the finger on suspects at the neighboring school.

Rameses IV, of the Texas Rameses, already has received the accolade as the new mascot. He was sent here last year by Frank O. Ray, an alumnus now living in the Lone Star state, and was immediately established as heir apparent.

Moving To Begin Subsidy For Ships

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—(AP)—The Maritime Commission is moving rapidly to gear newly-created administrative machinery to the task of substituting a multi-million dollar ship subsidy program for the present system of mail contracts.

Breaking new ground in the field of government aid to the merchant marine, officials reported today they have practically completed organization work and have begun devising methods for terminating existing mail agreements.

THEY'RE ALWAYS KICKING!

Shelby Definitely "Out" Of Carolina League Ball

The Cleveland Cloth mill is definitely out of the Carolina league baseball circuit and there is no certainty that the mill will have a team at all next year, it was learned this morning.

Nellier will the mill sponsor a basketball team this winter, as the high school gymnasium is hardly in condition for fast play and for the comfortable seating of a large crowd.

Decision on the baseball situation has been hanging fire for some time, but was made definite last night following a meeting of Carolina league representatives at Charlotte where a salary limit of $600 per week was adopted.

Steve Woodson, financial manager of the team last year said salaries plus operating expenses would run the cost close to $800 per week, much more than Shelby will be able to take in.

If Shelby has a team at all, it will be in a class D league.

In the meeting last night were representatives from Charlotte, Concord, Kannapolis, Mooresville, Lexington, Shelby and Forest City.

THOUSANDS HAVE AVOIDED COLITIS

BY WATCHING THESE SYMPTOMS
Colitis is inflammation of the colon or large intestine, and is generally caused by excess acidity, poor digestion, fermentation, or the presence in the colon of irritating bacteria or parasites. All of these causes can be treated with a doctor's prescription, known as Antioferon, which has been tested for more than forty years, and has been found absolutely safe and reliable. The first warning of colitis are usually gas, bloating, belching, flatulences and diarrhea. Get a bottle of Antioferon from the drug store quickly, and clear up these warning symptoms before serious trouble develops.
