

Championships Decided But Rose Bowl Choice Still Remains Mystery

BELIEVE 'BAMA OR LOUISIANA TO BE CHOSEN

Washington Prefers Crimson Think Experts

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The college football world clears up a long unfinished business this week as it finds its attention not a little attracted by widespread speculation over the identity of Washington's rival in Pasadena's New Year's Rose Bowl contest.

Louisiana State's brilliant 33-0 conquest of Tulane, giving the Tigers their second successive Southeastern conference championship, certainly did the Baton Rouge powerhouse no harm in Rose Bowl calculations.

Whether it was sufficiently decisive to counter-balance Washington's reported preference for Alabama's Crimson Tide probably will be known some time this week. The fact remains, however, that Louisiana State nosed out Alabama for the Southeastern conference championship.

Only the Southwest conference title remains to be awarded. Arkansas can capture the championship outright by beating Texas Saturday. A tie will force the Razorbacks to share the title with Texas Christian's Horned Frogs.

- Otherwise, section championships have been decided as follows:
- 1936
  - East—Yale, Penn.
  - Big Ten—Northwestern.
  - Big Six—Nebraska.
  - Pacific—Washington.
  - Southern—Duke.
  - Southeastern—Louisiana State.
  - Rocky Mountain—Utah State.
  - 1935
  - East—Princeton.
  - Big Ten—Minnesota, Ohio State.
  - Big Six—Nebraska.
  - Pacific—Stanford, California, U. L. A.
  - Southern—Duke.
  - Southeastern—Louisiana State.
  - Rocky Mountain—Utah State, Colorado.

ALL EXCEPT TWO TEAMS ARE DEFINITELY "OUT"

SEATTLE, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Seattle football fans were confident today Alabama or Louisiana State would be chosen to meet Washington in the Rose Bowl.

Sometime this week, possibly by Wednesday, Ray Eckmann, Washington athletic director will name his opponent for the Huskies in the Pasadena New Year's day football battle.

He was on his way to confer with members of Rose officials and will make the announcement in Los Angeles, he said.

Eckmann intimated the contenders had narrowed down to the two Southeastern teams, each undefeated and tied once.

He hinted it might take a flip of a coin. This indicated that Pittsburgh, Duke and others already had been eliminated from serious consideration.

It is no secret Washington would like best to get another crack at Minnesota, but the "Big Ten" conference prohibits post-season games. In the opening game of the season here, Washington lost to Minnesota, 14 to 7, but scored twice as many touchdowns, and gained more yards.

BAND OF L. S. U. ONE OF BIGGEST

By QUINCY EWING
BATON ROUGE, La.—(AP)—Castro Carrizo, the man who slaps the red dabs of color into the picture—"shows" the Louisiana State university students put on at football games, won't accept any credit for helping the university's grid team perform.

Costa Rican by birth, Spanish by ancestry, and dynamic and peppery by nature, Carrizo is the leader of the 207-piece L. S. U. cadet band, the nation's largest and one of the best. He was picked for the job by late Senator Huey P. Long, who collaborated with him in writing L. S. U. pep songs.

It is he who plans the band formations and displays that have won the plaudits of crowds before games and at intermissions. He works over the intricate drills and maneuvers as a coach pores over the plays that win the game.

To Name Opponents For Sugar Bowl

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 30.—The opponents have not been named for the New Year's Day Sugar Bowl football game here but nearly all the 38,000 tickets have been sold.

Joe Cousins, chairman of the football committee of the mid-Winter sports association, sponsor of the game, said between 28,000 and 30,000 tickets, worth about $85,000 already are sold.

It was indicated Louisiana State or Alabama would be named as the southern representative and either undefeated Santa Clara or Pittsburgh as the other team. Cousins said the announcement would be made Tuesday or Wednesday.

Norman Schoen Wins Scoring Honors
NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Dick Weisgerber, an Eastern boy who went west to make good in a big way on the football fields, made a great bid to snatch the national scoring leadership from Norman Schoen of Baldwin Wallace during the past week, but fell 19 points short of his mark.

PANTHER CAGERS PLAY IN COUNTY

Coach Virgil C. Yow and his High Point college Panthers, the freshman team, will make an annual appearance against some of the strongest rural Cleveland county teams this week.

Yow piloted his varsity Panther team to the North State conference basketball championship last year.

On Wednesday night, December 2, the freshmen play Piedmont high at Lawndale, on Thursday night they meet Polkville high at Polkville, and on Friday night the Fallston high cagers entertain the collegians. A game with Belwood on Tuesday night is pending.

Basketball fans in this section of the state will be interested to see "Stork" Hampton, ganging 6 feet 4 inch freshman center from Rutherfordon, in action during these games. The freshman from the western section of the state shows much ability on the court, and is a likely prospect to cop the pivot post on the High Point varsity later in the season.

This is the fourth year that the High Pointers have visited Cleveland, and as in past years, a large crowd is expected to be on hand for each game to be played this year.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 30.—(AP)—Ralph Guldehl, St. Louis golfing automobile salesman, faced the Professionals' last major tournament today with the $1,000 Augusta open first money and a slender lead for the Radix trophy.

The undefeated and untied teams are (x) Tennessee Wesleyan, Western Reserve, (x) Arkansas State Teachers, (x) St. Benedict (Kans.), (x) Middlebury, (x) Carroll (Wis.) Santa Clara, and (x) Kirksville (Mo.) Teachers.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Everybody has been wondering where Larry McHall will bob up next season... Reports have had him going to Brooklyn, St. Louis and other spots... The real dope is that right now the former general manager of the Reds is trying to put an International league franchise in Jersey City to be used as a spearhead for a chain of minor league clubs with working agreement with the Giants... They may be a fight on this at Montreal next week... Newark (owned by the Yankees) is getting a protest ready, claiming it controls the territory since Jersey City is within the International league's ten-mile limit.

SPORTS SLANTS

Students at Duke university who have termed Capt. Clarence McKay (Ace) Parker of their football team as "Duke's ideal undergraduate" will tell you that "it's only the beginning for Parker."

They will tell you that you've only heard of him as one of the greatest football players in Southern gridiron history (incidentally, they think he's the best in American football history) but that there will be years to come when you'll hear of him as one of the greatest of major league baseball players.

They will tell you that "their Ace" is a money athlete—one who can run 100 yards for a touchdown when the score is tied—one who can come up in the last of the ninth with one on, two out, his team one run behind, take two and hit one out of the park for the ball game.

Five-Letter Man
They will tell you that because they've seen him for years. They've seen him roam the gridiron, they've seen him on the basketball floor, they've seen him in the ball park, on the golf links, on the tennis court, in the swimming pool, on the cinder path.

They will tell you that because of the greatest all-around athletes in this country's history. Even the coaches of the various sports at Duke will tell you he could make letters in football, basketball, and baseball (he did that last year) and in track, golf, tennis and swimming, if time allowed his participation.

At Woodrow Wilson high in Portsmouth, Va., he did make letters in football, basketball, baseball, track and golf.

Jack Coombs Agree
But, getting back to this "only the beginning" stuff: He has been trailed by big league scouts since he came to Duke. He is said to be able to go into any big league camp and field the outfield with any of them. All he needs is a little brushing up on his hitting. He has a hard time hitting that curve ball—don't they all?

Take it from Jack Coombs, the former "iron man" of Connie Mack's great teams from 1906-14, who says: "He is a great competitive athlete. He has the fielding ability. He takes a nice cut at the ball. He may become in major league baseball as great as he has been in college football. He has the something it takes."

As for Parker himself, this modest, rugged gentleman and scholar, has two great ambitions: He wants to be an all-America football player and he wants to be a major league baseball player.

As with all great men, his goal is set high. Those who have seen him on the Duke gridiron this fall say he should reach the first of his goals. His other is a matter of time but all his followers will tell you that he is "in." That this boy can do anything he sets out to do in athletics.

He has convinced everyone who knows him at Duke that athletes, like poets, are born, not made.

ALLSTARS LICK MOORESVILLE 7-0

The final flourish of football in Shelby brought a win for a team of allstars playing an unusually hard game against the Mooresville pros. In the final minutes of the game "Boss" Connor shoved across a touchdown and then made the extra point to lead the visitors 7 to 0. The game was played at the Cloth Mill park Saturday afternoon as a charity affair for the Salvation Army.

Shelby players who saw most action were Kale and Putnam at ends; Hamrick and Dodson at tackle; Green and Blanton at guard; Funny McSwain at center; Eddie Lawhon, Wade Vaughn, Bucky Connor and Roy Lee Connor were in the backfield.

Substitutions were Wolfe, Ervin, Brown and Humphries, the latter of Kings Mountain Wingers. Tank Everett played the role of manager for the Shelby team.

Among the outstanding players for the visitors were Buck Mauney, all-state end from Lenoir-Rhine, the Broome boys from Lincolnton and Rex Reynolds also a L. R. player.
