BEAUTIFUL DINNER
HONORS MR. AND MRS. HOEY
 Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Falls entertained at a beautiful dinner party Saturday evening at the Hotel Charles, honoring Governor-elect and Mrs. Clyde R. Hoey. The affair also celebrated the birthday anniversary of Mr. Hoey. Mrs. Falls received her guests in a dinner frock of white crepe combined with white velvet, and Mrs. Hoey wore a modish dinner gown of black taffeta embroidered in gold.

A long table in the hotel dining room was decorated with mounds of red roses and nandina berries, banked about flame colored tapers. The Christmas holiday note prevailed in all decorations and in details of the menu and added to the festive gaiety of the occasion.

A birthday cake with lighted candles, which was presented to Mr. Hoey, when cut, produced the traditional birthday cake emblems to be found by a number of the guests.

After dinner the host toasted Mr. Hoey and the hostess proposed a toast to the charming new first lady. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Hoey, Mr. and Mrs. O. Max Gardner, Judge and Mrs. E. Y. Webb, O. M. Mull, Lee B. Weathers, Dr. S. S. Royster, Joe Whisnand, Byard Falls, Mrs. F. R. Morgan, Mrs. P. L. Hennessy, Mrs. J. W. Hill, of Concord, Miss Sara Louise Falls, Miss Isabel Hoey, Mrs. M. Webb Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoey, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hoey, Jr., of Canton, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Webb, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lineberger, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. George Blanton, Mr. and Mrs. George Hoyle, Forrest Eskridge and Mr. and Mrs. Falls.

HONOR MR. AND MRS. HOEY
AT CLUB DINNER
 Governor-Elect and Mrs. Clyde R. Hoey were guests of honor Friday evening at a dinner at the home of Mrs. F. R. Morgan on Cleveland Springs road; the affair represented the annual meeting of the Twentieth Century literary club to which husbands of members are invited. Mrs. Hoey wore a dinner dress of old blue crepe trimmed in beadwork about the shoulders and bodice; Mrs. Morgan wore a frock of black velvet with rhinestone clips, and both wore shoulder bouquets of gardenias, sent by Mrs. B. D. Stephenson, daughter of Mrs. Morgan, who is spending sometime in Florida.

The Morgan home was decorated with blue and silver poinsettias. Christmas lights and candles in the same colors, a white Christmas tree, gay with blue baubles, and a few red poinsettias arranged among the blue and silver for contrast. Democratic donkeys, used as place cards, marked the places for twenty guests at five small tables arranged in living room and sun room, and donkey candles and three small flags decorated the attractive birthday cake presented to Mr. Hoey in recognition of the fact that Friday was his birthday anniversary. In further compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Hoey the club members gave the latter a guest book, with her name embossed on the cover and names of the members of the club and their husbands listed in its first pages, and gave Mr. Hoey a shower of handkerchiefs.

Mrs. George Hoyle, president of the club, announced after-dinner features of entertainment; Miss Helen Stephenson, granddaughter of the hostess, presented the birthday cake to the governor-elect; and Mrs. Morgan introduced Mr. Hoey, who made a pleasing talk on "Women in Politics."

In introducing Mr. Hoey Mrs. Morgan called attention to the fact that the Twentieth Century club holds a distinction in having sent two of its members to the governor's mansion in Raleigh as first ladies of the state, and that one of its members, Mrs. Hoey also occupies the unique position of being wife of the governor-elect and sister of a former governor.

Mrs. John F. Schenck helped Mrs. Morgan to serve and direct the evening's entertainment. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Hoey, Mr. and Mrs. George Hoyle, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McMurry, Mr. and Mrs. O. Max Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Schenck, Judge and Mrs. E. Y. Webb, Mrs. S. O. Andrews, Julius Suttle, Mrs. J. D. Lineberger, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thompson, Lee B. Weathers, George Hart and Mr. and Mrs. R. T. LeGrand.

Textile Workers Strike In Lowell

LOWELL, Mass., Dec. 14.—(P)— Demanding a 20 per cent wage increase instead of the 10 per cent offered, loomfixers of the Boott Manufacturing company declared a strike today.

Meanwhile loomfixers in the Merrimac mills delayed taking strike action until they determined whether an increase promised by that plant would meet their demands for 20 per cent. They went to work this morning, but a spokesman said they would leave the plant at noon unless their demands were met.

About 275 fixers are employed in the two plants.

MACFARLANE GOES INTO FINALS IN NASSAU TOURNEY

Last Year Cut Finger Kept Him Out Of The Money

NASSAU, BAHAMAS, Dec. 14.—(P)— Willie MacFarlane carried his 54-hole lead into the final round of the $4,000 Nassau Open golf meet today—and hoped there would be no broken bottles on the course.

The veteran campaigner from Hollywood, Fla., held a one-stroke lead with a 200 but he recalled he was out in front at the three-quarters mark in the same tournament last year.

With just a few holes left, he picked up a broken bottle and in throwing it off the fairway out his index finger. He promptly lost several strokes to par and finished in third place while Leo Mallory of Norton, Conn., won with a 271.

A Sunday card of 65 coupled with two previous par 68's to make MacFarlane front-runner in the final competitive round of 1936 for the professionals who follow the winter circuit.

One stroke behind at the final lap in quest of the $800 top prize was Paul Runyan of New York. Horton Smith of Chicago stayed in the thick of the race with 202.

Behind these three the field was closely bunched. Denny Shute, of Coral Gables, Fla., P. G. A. champion, and Herman Kelsor of Springfield, Mo., were at 208.

Harry Cooper of Chicago equalled par on every round for a 204, where he was even with Ky Laffoon of Orlando, Fla.

Five were tied at 206, including Henry Picard of Hershey, Pa., who slipped yesterday after pacing the field for a day with a 63, and Ralph Guidahl of St. Louis, a pre-tournament favorite.

Hayden Newton of Grand Junction, Colo., Jack Mallon of Manchester, N. H., and Willie Klein of Miami Beach also languished six strokes behind the leader.

SEVERAL ARE HURT IN WAKE ACCIDENTS

RALEIGH, Dec. 14.—(P)— Clarence Coley, 60, of Raleigh, suffered a possible brain concussion when struck by an automobile here late Sunday night and police placed John Harkfield of Raleigh under $750 bond on a charge of reckless driving pending outcome of Coley's injuries.

In an accident at Zebulon Rupert Medlin of Bunn and Miss Katherine Coleman of Paschall suffered minor injuries as their automobile was sideswiped by another.

Miss Anita Winkler, member of the faculty at LaFayette school, spent the week-end in Boone where she went especially to attend the funeral of her uncle, who was buried at Boone yesterday. Her mother, Mrs. J. L. Winkler, who has been seriously ill following a stroke several weeks ago, remains about the same.
