Mrs. C. F. Francis Buried At Earl

Mrs. C. F. Francis, age 65, who died Saturday morning at her home in the Modern extension of Gastonia, was buried Sunday at New Hope church. She was a native of Cleveland county but had lived in Gastonia for the past thirty years. Funeral services were held at West End Methodist church, Gastonia, before the remains were brought to Cleveland county for interment.

She leaves eight children: Pearl of Charlotte, Met at home, Fred L. of Asheville, Walker at home, Woodrow of Suffolk, Va., Mrs. J. T. McGarry of Clarksburg, W. Va., Mrs. L. C. Coggins at home, and Mrs. C. A. Winget of Charlotte.

HOME IS HARDER TO RUN THAN A BANK

HARRISON, Ark.—(P)—Operating a bank is a "soft job" compared with running a house, says Mrs. Agnes Shinn, who does both.

Mrs. Shinn, who five years ago inherited a bank presidency at the death of her husband, reflects: "Mothering six children, seven in laws and four grandchildren is my biggest job."

She says the secret of successful banking is "being careful with the people's money."

Second in command at the bank Mrs. Shinn directs is another woman, Vice president Jobelle Holcombe.

The swastika, generally interpreted as a sun symbol, is one of the most ancient and widespread of all ornamental forms, appearing in both hemispheres.

TEN HEADLINERS FOR YEAR LED BY FDR, WALLY

War, Hauptmann and Astor Cases Next; Others

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(P)—The ten most interesting news developments of 1936, from the American viewpoint, as selected by J. M. Kendrick, executive news editor of The Associated Press:

1. Roosevelt
 President Franklin D. Roosevelt again was the key point of interest and developments—all the more emphatically so with his overwhelming re-election over Governor Alf Landon, of Kansas, the Republican nominee, following a bitter campaign attack and defense of New Deal policies.

Early in the year, the supreme court held unconstitutional the agricultural adjustment act; likewise the Guffey act. But the president did not permit the power of the supreme court to become a dominant issue in the campaign.

Father Coughlin, Lemke and Townsend fopped, so far as the election was concerned.

The soldiers' bonus was paid. The social security act went into effect. The President opened the pan-American conference in Buenos Aires, receiving a record-breaking reception.

Business conditions improved generally throughout the country. There were widespread wage increases. There was a very sharp increase in dividend payments, the latter caused, in part, by the new surplus tax laws. Unemployment decreased, but remains very much of a problem.

2. Mrs. Simpson
 The Simpson affair, which became known first through the American press and then developed into the issue between King Edward and his government, headed by Prime Minister Baldwin, after the news finally was printed in England—a story that goes into history with other great romances. The sensation came only a few months after the death of King George and cost Edward his throne.

3. Wars
 War and threats of war: Italy won its war of conquest with Ethiopia; then the Spanish revolution took the headlines and became the dynamite spot in the ever-growing talk of another world war. Hitler reoccupied the Rhineland; denounced the Locarno pact; signed an agreement with Japan against Russia and the latter let the world—Germany and Japan, in particular—know it was ready for war; Japan continued its drive into China; saw several of its ministers assassinated in a military plot.

4. Hauptmann
 The execution of Bruno Hauptmann, kidnaper of the Lindbergh baby.

5. Mary Astor
 The Mary Astor child custody case, which brought to light a spicy diary, much to the discomfort of playwright George Kaufman and numerous others connected with the motion picture industry.

6. Bad Weather
 The spring floods in the east, the drought in the midwest and the tornadoes in the southeast, marked by a heavy loss of life and property damage.

7. Eleanor Holm
 Eleanor Holm Jarrett, the swimmer who made no secret of her taste for champagne, gave Avery Brundage, the Olympic team chief, a real and interesting, though losing, battle for her place after she had been banned.

8. Louis' Flop
 Max Schmeling, the German, knocked out Joe Louis and gave most sports writers a lesson in the fallacy of predictions. It was the greatest upset in a thrilling year of sports.

9. Labor Schism
 The schism in the American Federation of Labor, with John L. Lewis on one side and William Green on the other.

10. Zioncheck
 The humorous antics of Representative Marion Zioncheck, of Seattle, Wash., which changed into tragedy with his suicide.

Among the other leading stories of the year were: The Canadian "stork" derby; the Moose River, Nova Scotia, gold mine entombment and rescue; the rise of the popular front government in France; the maritime strike; the beginning of regular trans-Pacific passenger flights by air; the Goodwin, Ark., plane crash, in which 17 persons lost their lives.

POUND PARTY AT ST. PAUL CHURCH

(Special to The Star.)
ST. PAUL, Dec. 21.—The young people's Sunday School class in the Saint Paul Methodist church will give a "pound party" Wednesday night, Dec. 23. Each person present is asked to bring a pound. Misses Mary Edith Murray and Blanche Harrelson will direct the games for the evening.

Horton and Dwight McSwain, who have been in Florida for the past month, have returned home.

Miss Essie Dalton, a member of the faculty in Henderson school, is spending the Christmas holidays with her mother, Mrs. E. A. Dalton.

Miss Helen Craft, a student at High Point College, has returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Craft, to spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Costner visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Costner Thursday. Mrs. Costner is suffering with an attack of flu.

Miss Martha Jane Murray is much improved after suffering with asthma the past week.

The farmers in this section have lots of scrap cotton to pick. Even though it has been so rainy and damp the past while, lots of folks are pulling off the bolls and picking the cotton in the shelter.

E. J. Tally of Greensboro, visited Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Murray and family Friday.

TALK TO PARENTS

Too Content
By BROOKE PETERS CHURCH
 "We are such a happy household and so content to be together, that we make little social effort. When we are all at home playing games and reading and chatting we feel no need for friends. Even the children make few outside contacts."

Yes, the Browns were a happy family—the envy of their friends and neighbors, whose children loved to go out or have their friends in, and whose homes rang with the noise of arguments and even quarrels much of the time.

But there is such a thing as being too happy and contented alone, too united and peaceful. Life is not like that. Life is a struggle and only the ability to adjust to struggle can fit a child to meet it and cope with it successfully. If children are satisfied to live within the four walls of home, asking nothing from the world outside and giving it nothing in return, their training for the future is inadequate. They are living in a fool's paradise, and when they must take their places and earn their livings in the real world, they are apt to be shocked and feel at a loss. They cannot make friends, are sensitive and frequently critical.

Often parents do not realize the dangers of too excessive a home life. Children should have friends coming in and out, they themselves should visit and play with other children. Instead of taking pleasure in their being always at home, the parents should encourage them to go out on their own and mix with other children.

Even a certain amount of argument and quarrel among members of a family need not be a bad thing. It teaches children to hold their own and shows them the necessity for give and take. It can be made into a valuable training in the art of keeping one's temper.

College Author Is Oxford Candidate

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 21.—(P)—A college boy author whose mental-ity came under fire in the South Carolina house of representatives a year ago, will represent South Carolina in the southeast trials for a Rhodes scholarship to Oxford.

He is Peter E. Moody, of Cooleman, N. C., a Wofford college senior, whose sketch depicting cotton mill life, appearing in the college literary journal, roused the ire of legislators from up-state cotton mill districts.

A house resolution asserted Moody's sketch was full of distortions relative to the habits, outlook and living standards of cotton mill workers and termed the author "a mental case—undoubtedly either insane or criminal."

The resolution directed that a state psychiatrist examine the student-writer, but before the psychiatrist's report was formally presented to the legislators, a second resolution to drop the whole matter was adopted.

Moody will represent South Carolina in the trials along with William H. Grimball, Jr., college of Charleston junior. They will compete in Atlanta Monday with students from North Carolina, Virginia, Georgia, Florida and Tennessee for the four scholarships offered for the southeast.

10 CITIES NOW USE PARKING METERS

OKLAHOMA CITY.—(P)—Parking meters, first installed in Oklahoma City on July 14, 1935, now are in use in 10 cities in the United States, says their inventor, Carl Magee, lawyer and one time militant editor.

Magee says Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth and Tyler, Tex.; St. Petersburg and Miami, Fla.; Kansas City, Mo.; Meadville, Pa., and Topeka, Kans., in addition to Oklahoma City are now using the nickel in the slot devices regulating parking time.

Don't put up with useless PAIN

Get rid of it
 When functional pains of menstruation are severe, take CARDOL. If it doesn't benefit you, consult a physician. Don't neglect such pains. They depress the tone of the nerves, cause sleeplessness, loss of appetite, wear out your resistance.

Get a bottle of Cardol and see whether it will help you, as thousands of women have said it helped them.

Besides easing certain pains, Cardol aids in building up the whole system by helping women to get more strength from the food they eat.

New England Textile Wage Scale For All Is Proposed

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Dec. 21.—(P)
 —A price list for all types of textile employees, designed to put an end to diversification of wage scales in various mill centers will be submitted to fine goods manufacturers in all New England states, Horace A. Riviere, vice president of the U. T. W. announced here.

The price list, he said, was originated and adopted by the textile councils of Fall River and New Bedford and accepted by the manufacturers is as follows:

TURKEY SURPLUS GOES TO NEEDY

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo.—
 —Canned turkey is on the menu for many El Paso county farm families this winter.

There was such a big turkey crop the farmers were unable to obtain a normal price for their birds so J. Ralph Young, Colorado Springs WPA director, suggested they be canned at the WPA kitchens.

Seventy-five per cent of the canned product was returned to the turkey grower offering his birds, and 25 per cent was retained for distribution to needy families.

Collodion was discovered in Paris in 1846 and again in Boston in 1848.

Man Power MOUNT CLARE, W. Va.—(P)

—One farmer has gone back to more ancient days to get his crop of corn from the fields to storge. Because of a shortage of horses, he and his friends are carrying the big sacks from the fields to the bins.
