MRS. C. F. SHERRILL IS FETED ON HER BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Yesterday afternoon at Vauxhall on the Cleveland Springs road Mrs. J. D. Lineberger entertained at a delightful party honoring her mother, Mrs. C. F. Sherrill, who was celebrating her seventy-eighth birthday anniversary. Guests were members of the Woman's Bible class of Central Methodist church, of which Mrs. Sherrill was teacher for many years, and a few of Mrs. Sherrill's friends who are members of other denominations.

The living room, sun room, den, and reception hall were lovely with a profusion of spring flowers.

As soon as guests had assembled, they sang "Happy Birthday" to Mrs. Sherrill, and she responded with gracious words of appreciation. Yesterday was also the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Durant Crowder, and Mrs. Crowder, a member of the class, was offered a toast by Mrs. J. W. Harbison. Mrs. Lineberger presented Mrs. Crowder with a lovely potted Easter lily as an anniversary gift.

Mrs. George Hoyle then led the group in several delightful games and contests, and Mrs. Dale Stentz class teacher, was prize winner.

REFRESHMENTS

Mrs. Lineberger then invited the group to the dining room where Mrs. Hoyle served lime ice at the dining table and cake, ham biscuits, and sandwiches were served buffet style from silver platters. The center decoration of the table which was covered with a lace cloth, was an exquisite silver cierge holding a center arrangement of rich red tulips with fern. The branching candelabra held slender lighted tapers of a blending shade. The hostess was assisted in serving in the dining room by Mrs. Paul Hardin, Jr., Mrs. Jean Schenck, Mrs. Clyde Short, Mrs. Lewis Forney, Mrs. Julius Suttle, and Mrs. Will Lineberger.

A social hour concluded the afternoon. About seventy guests were present for the occasion.

LOVELY HOME CEREMONY UNITED MISS BROWN AND LT. LANDRUM

Miss Marylois Brown of Miami, Fla., and Lt. C. Ervin Landrum, USNR, of Landrum, S. C., formerly of Shelby, were united in marriage on Easter Sunday afternoon at six o'clock at the home of the bride in Miami.

Rev. Daniel Iverson, pastor of the Shennandoah Presbyterian church, heard the vows of the impressive ring ceremony at the improvised altar formed of an archway decorated with white roses and ferns and arrangements of Easter lilies against a background of potted palms.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, William H. Brown, of Portsmouth, Va. She had chosen a street length dress of hyacinth blue novelty crepe and white accessories. At her shoulder was a corsage of white orchids.

Maid of honor was Miss Katherine Dersheimer, also of Miami. Her dress was a becoming gray and white flowered sheer model with a dainty pin flower hat. She wore a shoulder corsage of pale pink roses and carnations.

Lt.-Comdr. F. W. Burcham attended the bridegroom as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony Lt.-Comdr. and Mrs. Burcham entertained at their home in Coral Gables at a reception for the bridal party, guests, and a few close friends of Lt. and Mrs. Landrum.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Brown of Portsmouth, Va., Mrs. Landrum is a native of Pittsburg, Pa. She was graduated from St. Petersburg Junior college, Fla., and attended the George Williams college of physical education in Chicago, Ill., and the University of Miami. She has been instructor of physical education at the Ada Merritt Junior High school in Miami for the past two years.

Lt. Landrum, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Landrum of Landrum, S. C., attended the schools at that place and was graduated from Furman university, Greenville, S. C., in 1940. Until 1942 he was connected with the M. and J. Finance corporation of Shelby at which time he entered the navy. He was a very popular young man and has a wide circle of friends in the city. Lt. Landrum is at present assigned to Dinner Key Base.

The couple are making their home at 1661 S. W. 22nd street, Miami, Fla.

Mrs. Frazier Has Party At The Country Club

Yesterday afternoon at Cleveland Springs Country club Mrs. Dan Frazier was hostess at a lovely party when guests were present to make up six tables of bridge.

Mrs. Frazier chose a smart spring frock of soft blue wool jersey trimmed with crystal buttons of the same shade.

Bouquets of white and purple lilies and sprays of spirea adorned the lounge.

As soon as guests had assembled, the hostess served a delightful salad course with individually iced cakes with pastel frostings.

After several progressions had been enjoyed, scores were added and prizes awarded. Mrs. Bernard O. Stephenson was high scorer for the afternoon while Mrs. C. M. Dennis received the consolation prize.

Mrs. Jack Vincent of Elizabeth City was the only out-of-town guest.

Mrs. Best Honored At Luncheon By Mrs. Bond

Mrs. Herman Best, who, before her recent marriage, was Miss Margaret McInnis, of Red Springs, N. C., was honored at a delightful luncheon at one o'clock yesterday when Mrs. Harvey Bond entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. LeGrand, on South Washington street.

Guests, when they had assembled, were invited to the dining room where they found their places at the single table by lovely handpainted place cards in pastel colors, each of which depicted the bride theme. The table was covered with a lovely cloth of pale pink linen and held as a centerpiece a handsome Dresden candelabra encircled by matching fingerbowls. Each fingerbowl held a dainty arrangement of such tiny flowers as forget-me-nots, pansies, and lilies-of-the-valley, and the spaces for candles in the candelabra held other tiny floral arrangements in pastel colors.

Marking Mrs. Best's place was a wedding gift wrapped in white and tied with white satin ribbons. Topping the package was a nosegay of spring flowers which she wore as a corsage. Each guest also presented Mrs. Best with her place card to be put in the bride's book.

After the delicious three-course luncheon had been served, guests enjoyed an informal hour together. Mrs. R. T. LeGrand, mother of the hostess, assisted Mrs. Bond in entertaining.

Covers were laid for the following: Mrs. Best, Mrs. James Lockwood, Mrs. R. T. LeGrand, Jr., Mrs. H. Eugene LeGrand, Mrs. Alfred Eskridge, Mrs. Leon Bradshaw, Mrs. Howard Schade, Mrs. R. E. Lawrence, Jr., Mrs. Tom Hawkins, and the hostess.

Miss Hord, Mr. Patton Wed In Baltimore, Md.

On Sunday morning, April 1, in the Overlea Methodist church of Baltimore, Md., Miss Maude Aya Hord of Waco became the bride of Frazier P. Patton of Washington, D. C., formerly of this city.

The pastor, Dr. Barrette Rise, officiated as the vows of the double ring ceremony were taken before a background of palms with Easter lilies centering the arrangement.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Aubrey Clay of Kings Mountain, organist and sister of the bride, presented a program of nuptial music. The traditional wedding marches were used.

WEDDING COSTUME

The bride wore an aqua wedding costume with lovely white blouse trimmed in Georgia lace and a black picture hat. A corsage of white purple-throated orchids was at her shoulder.

Mrs. Carl Davidson of Kings Mountain attended her sister as matron of honor. Mrs. Davidson chose a smart suit of black gabardine with black and white accessories and a shoulder corsage of gardenias.

Following the ceremony Mrs. Clay and Mrs. Davidson entertained a few close friends of the couple at a wedding breakfast.

Mrs. Patton is the youngest daughter of Mrs. W. G. Hord and the late Mr. Hord of Waco. She was formerly a teacher in the Cleveland County schools, but for the past few years she has been employed with Eastern aircraft in Baltimore.

NATIVE OF ASHEVILLE

Mr. Patton is a native of Asheville, N. C., and formerly operated a barber shop in Shelby where he will be pleasantly remembered. He is now engaged in business in Washington, D. C., where the couple will make their home following a wedding trip to New York City.
