

JUNIOR-SENIOR FRIDAY NIGHT

The annual Junior-Senior party will be held Friday night at the high school building. Due to the shortage of food there will be no banquet this year. There will be dancing and for the benefit of those who do not dance there will be games and other amusements. The girls will be attired in evening clothes and the boys may decide individually how they dress. Rachel Spangler was selected by popular vote to be beauty queen in a contest which was held earlier this spring. There will be a floor show later in the evening, and the dancing will continue until twelve o'clock. The program is as follows: 8:30 dancing in gym, games in cafeteria. 9:30 grand march followed by crowning of Miss Junior-Senior. 10:00 floor show, Buddy Bumgardner as master of ceremonies. 10:30-12:00 dancing and games. Cookies and punch will be served throughout the evening.

Moser of Claremont, who was killed on Highway 70 near Statesville on the night of March 23, will be removed from its grave in Bethel Lutheran church cemetery in the Oxford section later this week and an autopsy held, Attorney John C. Stroupe said today. Mr. Stroupe said he made a motion to this effect in Iredell county recorder's court Monday and that the motion was granted. Dr. Little, Iredell county physician, will perform the autopsy, it is stated.

Spring Poem—Asparagus

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
Associated Press Food Editor

Spring, for me, means not only a new bonnet. It means the time to eat asparagus—and strawberries, particularly in shortcake or ice cream—and soft-shell crabs, or shad with roe.

All these are wonderful things to eat. Combined, they make a beautiful meal. And not one of them is rationed. Let's go on some fine spring eating!

Asparagus combines beautifully with other delicate foods, or it can really be the mainstay of a meal, served with a good Hollandaise sauce, for instance, which you make with margarine—a God-send in these butter-rationed days. With this serve another vegetable and potato—and you've a beautiful and satisfying meal.

send someone to open Moser's steel vault.

Moser was killed when an automobile in which he and a Statesville woman named as Grace Anderson were riding wrecked near the Clinker Brick eating establishment. Eventually a charge of manslaughter was brought against the Anderson woman and a hearing was set for April 23. It was at this hearing that Mr. Stroupe, attorney for the Moser family, was granted his motion to have the body removed from its grave and an autopsy held.

Eastman Representative Talks At High School

Mrs. Martha Patton, representative of the Tennessee Eastman Company, visited the high school yesterday and talked to a group of students who are interested in taking jobs in the Oak Ridge plant this summer. The work is divided into four types: production trainee, chemical trainee, mechanical trainee, and clerical work.

Or have a first course of spring-identified fish with french fried potatoes. And follow this with cold asparagus, accompanied by a proper sauce and hot biscuits.

Asparagus Maryland
1 lb. asparagus
2 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine

1 tablespoon vinegar
1 teaspoon sugar
1 cup boiling water
Extra vinegar
Clove of garlic
3 tablespoons salad oil
1 tablespoon minced parsley

1-2 teaspoon salt
Wash asparagus and "peel" the ends of all waxy fiber. Tie into 3 or 4 bunches. Heat together butter or margarine, vinegar, sugar, boiling water and salt in a large kettle. Place asparagus flat in this liquid and cook uncovered until asparagus is tender. Remove and chill, saving the liquid. Measure the liquid when cold; add vinegar to make 3-4 cup. Add clove of garlic cut in half, 3 tablespoons salad oil, 1 tablespoon minced parsley and salt to taste. Stir. Remove garlic. Arrange chilled asparagus on large platter; remove strings from bundles and bind bundles with rings of green pepper. Garnish platter with tomatoes, hard-cooked eggs and watercress. Serve the sauce in a side dish. Chilled asparagus is also excellent served with a vinaigrette sauce.

ASPARAGUS MARYLAND . . . Good spring eating.

If Today Is Your Birthday

By STELLA

THURSDAY, APRIL 26 — Born today, you are strong-willed and have a keen intelligence. You men have a good head for business. Your tact and diplomacy are outstanding characteristics and you know how to handle people so that they will enjoy doing what you want them to do. Be sure that you use this influence wisely. You are interested in politics and would probably make a considerable success in this field. Science is another field in which you might do very well. You are also interested in music and painting and may have some talent along these lines, as well. In other words, you are a versatile person who must learn to concentrate on some one thing early in life. Conquer that one thing and then go on to something else. Scatter your interests too widely and you will become a charming Jack of many trades, but master of none. You women, on the other hand, are more inclined to use your career of marriage and home-making, for you seem to have special talents along these lines. You are an excellent hostess, love children, and know how to make a beautiful and comfortable home. Both you men and women, however, should be cautious in your selection of a life mate since you are not one to stick it out if you are unhappy in your home life. You will not hesitate to make a second try.
