

THE STAR'S Women

SARA NEWTON, Editor Phone 1100

RECENTLY MARRIED

G. M. 3/c ALLEN AND MRS. ALLEN

ALLEN-MODE WED DING VOWS ARE TAKEN AT UNION BAPTIST CHURCH

Miss Lydia Mode, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McClure Mode, of this city, became the bride of Gunner's Mate 3/c Billy Franklin Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Allen, also of Shelby in a quiet ceremony performed Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock at Union Baptist church. Only members of the families and a few close friends attended.

Rev. A. M. Kiser heard the double ring ceremony at the altar adorned with three floor candelabra holding tapers and two baskets of white gladioli and greenery. Prior to the ceremony the candles were lighted by S 3/c Haywood Shuford, nephew of the bride.

Miss Rachel Spangler, pianist, played "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise," "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," "Always" and "Liebesstraume" prior to the ceremony and accompanied Miss Mildred Crowder, soprano soloist, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Beauregard." The traditional wedding marches were used, and "Indian Love Call" was played during the vows.

ENTERED TOGETHER

The bride and bridegroom entered the church together. She was wearing a lovely dress of pale blue crepe with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride's mother chose navy blue crepe with blue and white accessories, while the bridegroom's mother wore a sheer print with black accessories. Both had shoulder corsages of white carnations.

Ushers were Gordon Mode, brother of the bride, and Campbell Roberts.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a small reception at their home.

Pink and white gladioli were used in the home and the lace-covered dining table held a centerpiece of white blossoms on either side of which were lighted white tapers. A lovely three-tiered wedding cake were served by Mrs. Punch, decorated sandwiches, and wedding cake were served by Mrs. Raymond Greene, sister of the bride, and Mrs. A. Play Carpenter.

The bride is a graduate of Lattimore high school and the Evans school of commerce, Gastonia. She is now bookkeeper for the Carolina Dairy.

The bridegroom, who is stationed in the Atlantic, is spending a 30-day leave in the States. He is a graduate of Number Three high school and has been in service three and a half years.

Mrs. Allen will continue to make her home with her parents while her husband is in service.

CALENDAR

MONDAY

3:30 p. m.—General meet of W. M. S. First Baptist church, held at church. Royal Ambassadors in charge of program.

3:30 p. m.—Sunbeams of First Baptist church meet at church.

6:45 p. m.—Susan Anderson circle of First Baptist church have picnic. Members meet at church.

Woman's auxiliary circles of Presbyterian church meet as follows:

4:00 p. m.—No. 2 with Mrs. Richard Riviere.

No. 3 with Mrs. Joe Piner.

5:00 p. m.—No. 1 with Mrs. Frank Love for picnic.

6:30 p. m.—No. 4 with Mrs. Harvey White for picnic.

8:00 p. m.—Business women's circle meets at church.

SUPPER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Lutz of Belwood had as their dinner guests Tuesday Rev. J. D. Sheppard, Mrs. Sheppard and daughter, Sonja, of Shelby, and Rev. C. E. Lutz, Mrs. Lutz and children of Salisbury.

Five Tables In Play At Country Club Tea

Five tables were in play yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Tom Cornwell, Jr., and Mrs. Alfred Eskridge were hostess to members of the women's division of Cleveland Springs Country club at their Friday bridge tea.

Prior to play cooling refreshment plates of fruit punch, sandwiches, cake and cheese straws were passed.

Mrs. R. H. Rogers was winner of high score prize, and Mrs. Charles Padgett won second high.

Only club visitor was Mrs. R. P. Dicks of Rockingham, guest of her daughter, Mrs. George Blanton, Jr.

Lovely bowls of gladioli and marigolds decorated the club lounge.

Personals

Mrs. James Lockwood and son, Charles, have returned to their home in the Lafayette apartments after spending the past six weeks in Atlanta, Ga., visiting friends.

Mrs. Joe Moore and little daughter, Nancy Jo, of Kings road will spend the week-end in Rock Hill, S. C., with Mrs. R. J. Brown.

Miss Jane Cooke is visiting Miss Anice Miller, student at A. S. T. C. summer school, Boone.

Mrs. S. P. Parker and little daughter, Cynthia, of Macon, Ga., formerly of this city, will arrive tomorrow to visit Mr. and Mrs. Harvey White, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McBrayer and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Putnam accompanied Mrs. Mackie B. Hamrick of Boiling Springs to Charleston, S. C., to see her husband who is a patient at Stark general hospital. They returned home yesterday. He is being transferred to Lawson general hospital, Atlanta, Ga.

Miss Mary S. Clark is spending the week-end in Charlotte with Miss Evelyn Stapleton.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Laidlaw have gone to Florence, S. C., for a visit with relatives.

R. L. Creech will leave tomorrow for Brunswick, Ga., to spend a week with his daughter, Mrs. Ben Hartman, and Mr. Hartman.

Major and Mrs. Frank Love, Jr., left today for San Antonio, Texas, where Major Love has been assigned following a 30-day leave. He has been serving with the eighth air force in England.

Miss Martha Ann Mauney accompanied Rev. H. N. McDalruid, and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, of Greenville, N. C., to Montreal yesterday to spend a week. The Rev. Mr. McDalruid is a former pastor of Shelby Presbyterian church.

Mrs. George D. Washburn and daughters, Bettie and Carolyn, are spending a vacation at Crescent Beach, S. C.

Miss Beverly Clark will leave this afternoon for Hartwell, Ga., to spend several days with friends and relatives.

Mrs. R. P. Dicks of Rockingham is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Blanton, Jr., at her home on North Lafayette street.

Yates Williams, Floyd Williams, and Plato Champion will leave for New York Monday to spend about a week buying for the Double Shoals store.

M. L. Spake, Jr., has returned home after spending a week in New York City.

T/Sgt. and Mrs. Edsel Howell are spending the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Miriam R. Howell before leaving tomorrow for Lockbourne Army air base, Columbus, Ohio, where they are stationed. They will all be the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Hamrick of Falston tomorrow.

Informal Party For Lt. (jg) Hamrick

Mrs. Felix Hamrick and Miss Marietta Hamrick of Boiling Springs entertained at the former's home Thursday morning at an informal drop-in party in honor of Lt. (jg) Edith Holland Hamrick of Boiling Springs and Jacksonville, Fla., bride-elect of this month. Lt. (jg) Hamrick's marriage to Lt. John David Bridgers of Greenville, N. C., and Jacksonville, Fla., will take place August 27 at Cecil Field in Jacksonville.

The Hamrick home was decorated with lovely summer flowers. During the morning iced drinks, salted nuts and decorated sandwiches were served. Lt. (jg) Hamrick was presented with a gift of linen.

Guests were invited to call between ten and eleven o'clock.

LAWDALE ITEMS

Miss Merryll Ford Whisnant, student at W. C. U. N. C., Greensboro, who is spending the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Durham Whisnant, will have as her house guest this week-end her college roommate, Miss Nina Trogdon, of Asheboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Whisnant of Lincoln are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Shehan and little daughter, Kay. Miss Ena Whisnant is spending ten days in Cincinnati, Ohio, visiting her brother.

HOME ON LEAVE

Chief Ph. M. Burwell T. Bridges, patient at the Naval hospital, Bethesda, Md., is spending a leave with his sister, Mrs. Charles Stockton of Lattimore.

BIRTHS

To Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Richards, Jr., Lawndale, a daughter, born August 1 at Shelby hospital.

To Mr. and Mrs. Clayton White, Lattimore, a son born Aug. 2 at Shelby hospital.

To Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Patterson, Kings Mountain, a daughter, born August 3 at Shelby hospital.

HAVE TONSILLECTOMIES

Warren and Jeannette Shiver, children of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Shiver of Kings Mountain, underwent tonsillectomies this morning at Shelby hospital. They are recovering nicely.

MRS. HYATT HAS NO RECOLLECTION OF KILLING BABY

GREENSBORO, Aug. 4. —(P)—The trial of Mrs. Cynthia Grace Hyatt, charged with murder in connection with the death of her 14-month-old son, Tommy, who was thrown into an abandoned well last April, moved into its fourth day today.

The 24-year-old Trinidad native wife of a recently discharged Greensboro soldier, took the stand last night and testified that she had no recollection of throwing the boy into the well. She said she remembers only awaking from a nap to find the baby's crib empty and then notifying the police that he had been kidnapped.

Earlier in the day, several defense witnesses, her brothers, Ronald and Noel Ocastro of Port of Spain, Trinidad, and her husband, Arthur J. Hyatt of Greensboro, among them, testified that they believed Mrs. Hyatt was not mentally capable of determining right from wrong last April when the boy was killed.

They told of her fainting spells a 1 other occasions when she was subject to laughing and crying spells.

Joseph Y. Queen On His Way Home

Sgt. Joseph Y. Queen, who has been in Europe 18 months, is now at a staging area there awaiting transportation to the States to spend a furlough with his mother, Mrs. R. C. Hicks, here. He has been with Co. K, 120th infantry, 30th division, in Normandy and Germany and has amassed 86 points by the army point system.

Lots In A Name

MUNICH. —(P)—Denazification of German names of places has brought some strange new signs to streets and squares of old Bavaria.

Citizens of Georgenmund instead of walking down Adolf Hitlerstrasse now promenade on Oklahomastrasse. In Schwabach the Horst Wesselstrasse is now Texasstrasse.

NEWS OF OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN UNIFORM

Carl Clifford Hughes Gets Bronze Star

Word has been received here that T-5 Carl Clifford Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hughes of Jackson street, had been awarded the Bronze Star medal for meritorious service in France, Belgium, Luxembourg and Germany from July, 1944, until May, 1945. "As S-2 clerk, he has demonstrated technical skill, efficiency, resourcefulness and devotion to duty, contributing materially to the smooth operation of his section," the citation read.

Lonus Valentine Back After Overseas Duty

Pfc. Lonus E. Valentine, sr., has returned to the States after nine months of service in Europe and is spending 30 days with his wife and two sons on Bowman street. He holds the good conduct medal, the combat infantryman's badge, and three campaign stars.

Lt. John Schenck, 3d At Camp Blanding, Fla.

Lt. John Schenck, 3d, who recently reported to Miami, Fla., for reassignment following a 30-day leave and convalescent period at Welch General hospital, Daytona Beach, Fla., has been assigned to Camp Blanding, Fla. He and Mrs. Schenck are making their home in St. Augustine.

Major Matthews With Hospital Overseas

Major R. S. Matthews, husband of the former Miss Jessie Hoyle of this city, is now serving overseas with the 304th General hospital on Tinian island. He was formerly stationed in Columbia, S. C., and Atlanta, Ga. Mrs. Matthews and two daughters are making their home in Columbia while he is on overseas duty.

Kings Mountain Man Home From Europe

S-Sgt. William Wells of Kings Mountain is spending a furlough there with his wife and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Wells, after almost a year in combat in the European theatre where he was twice wounded. Sgt. Wells wears the good conduct medal, the combat infantryman's badge, the Purple Heart with one star and three major stars on his ribbon. Only 22 years of age, he has 96 points and expects to be discharged when he reports to Camp Butler after his furlough.

Mrs. Hugh Wells Calls Husband's Parents Here

Mrs. Hugh Wells has telephoned her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wells, that she has arrived back in the States aboard the Queen Mary and is now visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. DeFabeo, in Newark, N. J., for several weeks. She is awaiting definite word from Sgt. Wells as to whether he will return to the States or not before coming to Shelby for a visit.

Forest City Man Gets Bronze Star

Word from Fifth army headquarters in Italy has revealed that Sgt. George T. Hawkins, Jr., of Forest City has been awarded the Bronze Star medal for meritorious service in combat in Italy. He served as an anti-tank gunner with the 87th Mountain infantry regiment, 10th Mountain division. He is a son of Mrs. Ola Hawkins of Forest City.

James L. Peeler Has Furlough

Pfc. James L. Peeler recently spent a 15-day furlough with his wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Raines. He will report back to Lemoore, Calif., where his wife, the former Miss Lucille White, has been visiting him. She plans to remain here with her parents for awhile.

J. V. Hamrick Awarded Bronze Star In Italy

S-Sgt. J. V. Hamrick, who lives on route 3, Shelby, has been awarded the Bronze Star medal for heroic achievement in action with the Fifth army in Italy, headquarters there has announced. Sgt. Hamrick served with the noted 363rd infantry of the 91st "Powder River" division.

Sgt. Collett White Awarded Bronze Star

Word has been received here that 1st Sgt. Collett White, husband of Mrs. Doris White of Lattimore, has been awarded the Bronze Star medal for meritorious service in combat in central Germany where he is with a field artillery battalion. Since going overseas, Sgt. White has amassed 81 points under the army point system.

Marvin Barrett Now At Augusta Hospital

Word has been received from Oliver General hospital in Augusta, Ga., that Marvin A. Barrett of route one, Shelby, now a patient there, has been promoted to the rank of private first class. Pfc. Barrett is receiving medical treatment at the hospital.

Hal Borders At Air Field In Nebraska

Pfc. Hal Borders, son of D. Fuller Borders of Shelby, has been assigned to the Alliance army air field at Alliance, Nebraska, to assist in the job of redeploying troop carrier units from the European theatre to the Pacific.

Jeff Connor Home After 28 Months In Italy

Sgt. Jeff Connor has returned to Shelby on a thirty-day furlough and is spending the time with his mother, Mrs. May Wells Connor, on North Washington street. He has spent four years in service, 28 months in the ground air force in Italy. He arrived from overseas last week on the Argentina.

EVANGELISTIC MEET

TOCOGA, Ga. —(P)—The 25th annual convention of the National Laymen's Evangelistic Association, embracing eight states, will be held at Lake Louise conference grounds Aug. 23-26.

Shirts and dresses are now being made from a Florida weed, known as ramie, originally imported from China.

COLD... CALCULATING... LUSTING FOR REVENGE!

THE CHICAGO KID
Starring DONALD BARRY
With LYNN ROBERTS, TOM POWERS, HENRY DANIELS, CHICK CHANDLER

TODAY ONLY

ROCKERS

Reduced Prices

on all
FREDRIC
one-minute
PERMANENTS
AUGUST 6 to 20
Inclusive
PHONE 404
FOR APPOINTMENT

Ella Beauty Shop

S. WASHINGTON ST. — NEXT TO HOME STORE

AIR CONDITIONED

IT'S 20° COOLER

STATE

MONDAY - TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY

Whose Susan?

"Innocently Yours" to GEORGE BRENT

"Dangerously Yours" to DON DEFORE

"Soulfully Yours" to DENNIS O'KEEFE

"Respectfully Yours" to WALTER ABEL

And to every one
Jean Fontaine is terrific in her first gay, romantic comedy.

Joan Fontaine
George Brent

HAL WALLIS' Production
"The Affairs of SUSAN"

with
DENNIS O'KEEFE
Don DeFore • Rita Johnson • Walter Abel
Directed by William A. Seiter
A Paramount Picture

ALSO NEWS

— LAST TIMES TODAY —

"CAN'T DO WITHOUT LOVE"

— STARRING —
VERA LYNN

— ALSO —
SPORT — NEWS — CARTOON

The warmth of her kiss on his lips

ROGERS

OPENS TONIGHT
LATE SHOW

HUMPHREY Bogart

AS YOU'D NEVER SUSPECT HIM — (or would you?)

co-starring
ALEXIS SMITH SYDNEY (THE CAT) GREENSTREET

Conflict

YOU'LL GASP BUT YOU WON'T GUESS!
Please don't tell the murder secret to anybody!

THE AMAZING MR. FORREST

Released by PRC Pictures

DOUBLE FEATURE

Mon. CAROLINA Theatre Tues.

EXTRA:

COLOR CARTOON

And Chapter No. 2
"Captain America"

TODAY Last Times

Edward Everett Horton
"THE AMAZING MR. FORREST"
ALSO
Roy Rogers "Man From Oklahoma"