Prayer Groups Vote On Continuance Of Meetings

The Community prayer groups, which have held weekly meetings throughout the city each Wednesday since before the Allied invasion of Europe, voted yesterday at their meetings on whether to continue the sessions or to disband since peace has been declared. The South Washington and East Graham street groups decided to discontinue services with yesterday's meeting. The North Morgan street group voted to continue until some later date, while the West Graham street prayer band decided to continue their meetings through the final signing of the peace treaty.

These prayer meetings held in each neighborhood were begun under the leadership of Mrs. R. L. Ryburn and were originally known as pre-invasion prayer groups. Three of these community bands organized prior to D-day have held meetings for over a year.

Mrs. Jack Price Feted At Lovely Bridge Party

Mrs. Jack Price of West Palm Beach, Fla., was honored yesterday afternoon by her cousins, Mrs. Max Dixon and Mrs. Carl Dellinger, at the home of Mrs. Dellinger at a lovely bridge party.

The hostesses and Mrs. Price received guests as they arrived. Mrs. Dixon was wearing frock of blue and fuchsia sheer. Mrs. Dellinger chose a blue and yellow linen print, while Mrs. Price's dress was a soft blue and white sheer.

Mixed summer flowers were used throughout the home where tables were arranged for play. High scorer for the afternoon was Mrs. Ethel Sterne of London, England, Shelby visitor, and recipient of second high award was Mrs. Marshall Moore, jr. An honor gift of antique china was presented Mrs. Price, and Mrs. Sterne was also given an attractive guest prize.

A sweet course with sandwiches and iced drinks was served at the close of play. The hostesses were assisted in serving by Mrs. C. C. McMurry, jr., Mrs. A. W. Wright, and Mrs. Ward Arey, jr.

Six tables were in play.

Caveny-Tucker Vows Solemnized In Colorado

Miss Cecile Marie Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund L. Tucker, of Edgewood, Colo., and Staff Sgt. Charles Caveny, son of Mrs. Belle Surratt Caveny and the late Spurgeon Caveny of this city, were united in marriage in an impressive ceremony Thursday night, August 2, at the home of the bride's parents in Edgewood, a suburb of Denver.

Vows were taken at eight-thirty o'clock before the Rev. Mr. Fooks of the Congregation church of Denver in the presence of members of the family and close friends of the couple.

The bride, who entered with the bridegroom, wore a becoming dress of apricot pink with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. Waymon Tucker, sister-in-law of the bride, attended as matron of honor, while Mr. Tucker, brother of the bride, served as best man.

Mrs. Caveny attended the Edgewood schools. She is an accomplished violinist and is a member of the Edgewood Symphonic orchestra. She is at present employed with the personnel section of civil service at Fort Logan, Colo.

Staff Sgt. Caveny, eldest son of his mother, was graduated from Shelby High school, attended the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and finished at Furman university, Greenville, S. C. Prior to entering service in 1942 he was employed by the N. C. state revenue department. He now has a 30-day furlough following 17 months of duty in England with the eighth air force.

Staff Sgt. Caveny reports to Sioux Falls, S. D., at the conclusion of his furlough, and Mrs. Caveny will continue to make her home in Edgewood while he is in service.

VISIT BROWNS

J. M. Moon and son, Thomas C. Moon and R. B. Cook returned this week to their home in Winder, Ga., after visiting their aunt, Mrs. W. H. Brown, and family on route four, Shelby. Thomas C. Moon has recently received a discharge from service after 12 months of duty.

RECENTLY MARRIED

TECH. SGT. AN D MRS. SCOTT

SCOTT - REINHARDT VOWS TAKEN IN LOVELY CHURCH CEREMONY

Miss Joyce Donaline Reinhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Reinhardt of this city, became the bride of Tech. Sgt. William R. Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Scott of Fort Worth, Texas, in a beautiful ceremony performed Sunday afternoon at five o'clock in LaFayette Street Methodist church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Gibbs, pastor of the bride, at the altar adorned with white gladioli against a background of pines and floor candelabra holding white tapers. White gladioli tied with white ribbons marked the pews.

Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Marvin Blanton, jr., pianist, and Miss Reeves Pomey, soloist, who sang "Always" by Berlin and "Because" by D'Hardelot. Traditional wedding marches were used for processional and recessional.

WEDDING GOWN

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dainty gown of white eyelet embroidery fashioned along traditional lines and a fingertip veil attached to a Juliet cap. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible topped by a white orchid.

Miss Roberta Reinhardt, of Washington, D. C., sister of the bride and maid of honor, chose a dress of soft white nylon and carried a cascade of red radiance roses.

Miss Florence Borders of Charlotte, bridesmaid, was gowned in embroidered blue chambray and carried a cascade of pink gladioli.

Lee Roy Misenheimer, brother-in-law of the bride, of Rockwell, N. C., attended as best man, and ushers were Carl Blanton and Ralph Hawkins, USN, of this city.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue sheer frock with a shoulder corsage of white rosebuds and asters, and the bridegroom's mother, wore a dress of pale blue mesh with a corsage of pink snapdragons.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a short wedding trip. For traveling Mrs. Scott chose a white flannel suit with brown accessories and the orchid from her Bible.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

Mrs. Scott attended Shelby High school and the National School of Commerce, Charlotte. She held a position in Charlotte with the Wilby Kinsey corporation prior to her marriage.

Tech. Sgt. Scott received his education at Faschal High school and Texas Christian university, Fort Worth. He has just returned from the Pacific theatre of operations where he served for a year with the Army Air forces. At the conclusion of his furlough he will report to San Antonio, Texas, for reassignment, and Mrs. Scott will accompany him there.
