Ban Revoked

ATHENS, Nov. 14—(P)—Admiral Constantine Alexandris, minister of merchant marine, revoked today a ban on unemployment allowances for seamen which had provoked a hunger strike by more than 400 Greek mariners stranded in Britain.

(A London dispatch last night said eight Greek seamen had been hospitalized as a result of the hunger strike, which started a week ago in Liverpool and spread to other ports.)

THOUGHT WIFE DEAD; Convicted Of Bigamy

NEWTON—Convicted of bigamy, ex-soldier Jacob Canipe was sentenced to serve twelve months on the State's highway, at hard labor, as part of the conditions of terms laid down in Superior court here Monday by Judge Allen H. Gwyn, of Reidsville.

Canipe was given two years additional, suspended for five years on condition he remain in the States and will visit their homes here soon.

Thought Wife Dead; Convicted Of Bigamy

Canipe was accused of marrying Virginia Shuford of Hickory on July 16 of this year, while still married to Minnie Mae Williams Canipe of Lincoln county. He contended that he had been told his first wife was dead and that they had been separated some time prior to the date her parents told him she was killed in an explosion in Tennessee while on defense work. He has two children who are with his father. He received a medical discharge after being wounded in the Pacific about two years ago.
