ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856. Doctor Aver, Lowell: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your Cherry Pectoral has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dan kerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily fail-ing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill; for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well. Yours with gratitude and regard,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills. THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their pene trating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body. remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and import healthy tone with strongth to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cure have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. ## HOWARD ASSOCIATION

A Benevolent Institution established by pecial Endowment for the Relief of the Sick and Distressed of. flicted with Virulent and Epidemic Diseases.

N times of Epidemics, it is the objects of this Institution to establish Hospitals, to provide Nurses, Physicians, Clothing, Food, Med. icines, &c., for the sick and destitute, to take charge of the orphans of deceased parents, and to minister in every possible way to the relief of the afflicted and the health of the public at large. It is the duty of the Directors, at such times, to visit personally the infected districts, and to provide and execute means of relief. Numerous physicians, not acting members of the Association, usually enrol their names on its books, sub- cent per pound, in Goods. ject to be called upon to attend its hospitals, free of charge. In the absence of Epidemics, the Directors have authorized the Consulting Surgeon to give advice and medical aid to persons suffering under CHRONIC DISEASES of a vitulent character, arising from abuse of the physical powers, mal treatment, the effects of drugs, &c. Various REPORTS and TRACTS on the nature Wanted and treatment of Chronic Diseases, by the Consulting Surgern, have been published for gratui s tous distribution, and will be sent free of charge to the afflicted. Address, for Reports or treatment, Dr. George R. Calhoun, consulting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 South Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa. By order of the Directors.

Poetry.

"The Beautiful lives in the depths of the Soul." The sunbeam may smile on the delicate flower, The zephyr of evening may breathe on the bower, The music of waters may murmur along And fill the calm air with the melody of song, But still, if the soul is not warmed by that smile. If zephyrs are powerless this heart to beguile-If music of waters, unheeded, may roll, The beautful lives not in the depths of the soul.

The brow of the belle may be white as the snow, Her has like the flower of the cypress may glow, Her voice in soft cadence may fall on the ear, Her eye of bright azure be dim with a tear, But still, if her heart is not pure as her brow, If red lips have uttered, and broken their vow, If tears are but passion she cannot control, The beautful lives not in the depths of the soul.

With form like Apollo, a youth may be blest, The fire of ambition may glow in his breast; His language be eloquent, touching and free, His station exalted and honored may be, But still, if revenge in his bosome abide, Companion of ignorance, vality, pride, Should the dark wave of crime like a broad river

The beautful lives not in the depths of the soul.

When glories of nature, and beauties of art, Shall find a response in the depths of the heart, When beautiful forms shall but index the mind, And words that are spoken in kindness be kind, When Charity, Purity, Friendship and Truth, Be found with us mortals in age, as in youth, If heavenly love doth but quicken the whole; "The beautiful lives in the depths of the soul."

Once-only once he dreads the prison or the scaffold, it as I'm a sinful woman-I smothered is evident that if that terror were rea sick man with his pillow; that was moved he would rush headlong into for his money; he would have del, murder; but if he refrains from the any way, because he had the lock hiv. indulgence of a furious animal wrath, Now," added she, with a long draun because he knows it to be an infringesigh, and after a pause, "I feel some- ment of divine and moral law, he is what better and more comfortable like protected from crime by a panoply a million times more impregnable than sitting posture, as if exhausted with If a young lady who indulges in this terrible narration; but I read in gossip, scandal, and back-biting is something more to say. Presently coming and vulgar, she may abandon tain and miserable consequence ensuing upon its total neglect.

> Until parents take to heart these primary truths and apply them diligently in the culture of their children's minds and hearts we can see no prospect of marked improvement. The ail and the penitentiary are institutions of human weakness and wickedness. Let men learn to amend their lives and these hideous emblems of an imperfect civilization will disappear. Moral reform must proceed from within-not outwardly. Make men better, and the prisons will fall to ruins from dilapidation and disuse .- Teach the rising generation to fear God and obey his commandments, and crime will progressively diminish.
