One Dollar a square for the first week, and Twenty-five Cents for every week thereafter. Sixteen lines or less will make a square.-Deductions made in favor of standing matter as follows:

3 Mos. 6 Mos. 1 YEAR. One square, $3.50 . . $5.50 . . $8.00 Two squares, 7.00 ... 10.00 ... 14.00 Three squares, . 10,00 . . . 15.00 . . . 20.00

When directions are not given how often to insert an Advertisement, it will be published until ordered out.

Professional and Business Cards, &c.

JAMES F. BELL, Jr., ATTORNEY AT LAW

SOLICITOR IN EQUITY. Statesville, N. C., Will promptly attend to all business intrusted to his care in the Courts, (County and Saperior.) of Iredell and adjoining Counties. January 1, 1859,-5-ly

DR. Y. S. DEAN Will attend all Calls, both in Town and Country, Office on College Avenue, two deers west of the Printing Office. Statesville, N. C.

DR. H. KELLY Offers his Professional services to the Office on College Avenue, opposite the Methodist Church, Satesville, N. C.

HAYNE DAVIS ATTORNEY AT LAW. STATESVILLE, N. C.

Will premptly and diligently attend to all business, entrusted to his pure. Office opposite the Jail. Ogt. 32, 1858.

Dr. A. A. LAURENCE LAVING COMPLETED HIS MEDICAL TOUCATION. and located, permountly, amount them. respectfully presents claims to the patronage of friends in State ville and fre !.

State-ville, March 8, 1850.

All kinds of Plate-trock. Teeth filled in the last possible namer.

STEVENSON & BOWEN. Whelmale Derlatin

EDERY CHOODING RAVE ASSOCIATION WITH THE , DANFEL M. ZIMMERMAN

53 North 28 Street, helety trch. PEILADELERIA. Where on Kneversed Stock will nny House in the Trade. Jan, 28, 1849,-894m

JAS. W. DRAME. COMMISSION MERCHANT. No. 13 St. Louis Street.

RECORDERANT. AH. Q. Ann. 11. 1849. - 7-11

T. C. & B. G. Worth, GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANTS

Wilmington, B. C. DEALERS in Lime, Plaster, Trais. Cement, Land Plaster, Robin- berelf. son's Manipulated Guano, Tasher & Charles Phosphattle Fogittizer. Orders for any of the above filled without charge of Commission. Trend Coch. March 4, 3m-pd.

SIMONTON THE subscribers having become lessees of this spacious New any first class Hotel in the Union.

HOTEL

MRS. M. A. WREN & SON,

WILSON & NEWHARD, LUKERS

STATESVILLE, N. C. KEEP constantly on hand a large assortment and she tried to say, cheerily : of Watches and Jewelry of all reasonable terms. August 28th, 1858.

The Subscriber having been appointed Agen

CHARLOTTE MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY

Of Charlotte. Will receive and forward Applications for clasping her stiff, cold hands. Winsurance against Loss and

The Company is doing a prosperous business

No call has ever yet been made for an in-E. B. DRAKE,

Vol. II.

THANKSGIVING.

We meet again in gladness, And thankful voices raise ; To God, our heavenly Father, We'll tune our grateful praise: Tis his kind hand that kept us. Through all the changing year, His love it is that brings us Again to worship here. We'll thank him for the Sabbath, This day of holy rest: And for the blessed Bible.

The book that we love best; For Sabbath-schools and teachers, To he so kindly given.

To guide us in the pathway That leads to joys in Heaven We'll thank him for our country. The land our fathers trod: For liberty of conscience,

And right to worship God O Lord, our heavenly Father, Accept the praise we bring, And true car hearts and volces Thy glod as name to sing.

Soon may thy gracious scept r Extend they ery land. And all as willing subjects Submit to thy command. Send forth the greged tellings.

And hasten on the day

When every isle and nation

Shall own Messinh's sway. ABIGAIL THORN

BY MADGE CARROL. A woman, old and poor, Gropes for her humble door In storm and night. Lo! morning's on the hill, And, standing on the sill Behold! an angel bright!

ways with a dull grey sleet; while the her. cruel wind came swooping along, sharp "Wake up," he said; "some one is never meddle with the business wood, and a small leaf of bread, a knew."

for the open common, where, half a greeting.

" The fable hands and helpless, Geopling blindly in the darkness." Softly the old woman murmured to

> ... All pay toust on thee is stayed, All my help from thee I brings Cover my defencel is head With the shadow of thy wing," that darkened night.

"All my trust on thee is stayed, All my help from thee I bring,

left, her frozen lips found feeble voice, her brow:

make a fire-I'm almost perished."

despairingly to her poor couch, and Abigail Thorn. She has drawn nearer of the chateau, my wife, whom I have ercise of such a regular course of econ- It is gratifying to learn that, at er the her, bowed head humbly to that which whose sheltering fold the storm never that skull of her paramour whom I farm may be done in due time, and olent people sent her $18 through a seemed the will of the Father. Sweet beats.

scripture words, like broken music, linked in wandering, but harmonious measure, floated through her mind. Dear promises of help and comfort, came wafted in wonderful minstrelsy related to me: to the portals of thought, and held off doubt and fear. Dear promises of help and comfort, hundreds of years him, 'you are going to leave us; you dwell here as long as you please, or, or with a neighbor, not only idling his ties of grain, the fate of the vintage, old, and familiar to all of us as a are about to change the life of a sol- to-morrow, if you prefer, you can con- own time, but hindering his triend's are all attributed to its influence; household story, but ever beautiful dier for that of the citizen. As this tinue your journay.' household story, but ever beautiful dier for that of the citizen. As this and new. When thou passest through the waters I will be with thee; and friendship, which are due to your tions of the old soldier! I should not own concerns, or it may be that he is of the grape expressed at times, and through the rivers, they shall not good conduct, induce me to offer you be surprised, if during that night, even wasting his time at work upon some under circumstances regulated by the overflow thee; when thou walkest some advice before you depart; and if in his sleep, he could have been heard thing of no profit to him, when his aspects of our satelite, if excellence through the fire, thou shalt not be you will submit to my conditions, into repeating never meddle with the bus- farm requires his attention, is aften a be hoped for in these products of the burned; neither shall the flames kin- the motives of which you are not now iness of others.'

not want. He maketh me to lie down have you?" in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters.

valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod, and thy staff, they comfort those lines breathing so much of prayer- consent. ful trust and pathetic tenderness:

"All my trust on thee is stayed, All my help from thee I bring, Cover my delenceless head With the shalow of thy wing."

Darkness folded about the senses of poor old Abigail Thorn-the darkness of life, not the darkness of death; then gently and quietly she fell asleep. It was night; a cold, bleak, winter's Some one touching her, presently she night. Great clouds were piled up in awoke; there was a soft, tremulous the sky, and round balls of hail were light in the room, and a man, noblewhirling down, covering all the high- browed and kindly-cyed, stood beside old soldier remained pensive, repeat-and keen, not saffering even the hum- coming to see you. See, I have made of others ; remit till to-morrow your blest thing to escape its icy fold. a fire, and spread the table; your anger. Very wise assuredly! well Hugging to her breast an armful of guests may be cold and hungry, you worth three louis d'or; but yet it is a has all the late improvement I leave to woman, old and poor, struggles on Sure enough, a glowing fire danced tune! through the storm and darkness. and crackled on the humble hearth, Some minutes after, the captain re-A woman, old and poor! There and out upon her own poor table was turned, and giving his friend a little was not a rent in her scant, thin gar- laid a cheerful feast. Just then a roll, exacted a promise from him, that Communications by mail or otherwise will ments, that the bitter blast did not knock came at the door; her unknown he would not open it, till the moment seek out; and, seeming to know where friend went to open it, and there, right of his greatest happiness. Then shak-Terms: Call or note on completion of work, her shoes were most worn, the frozen on the threshold, stood the husband of ing hands, and pressing the soldier to Tooth Extracted without pain. To sleet crept in to her cold, cold feet. her youth—he who died long ago, the his breast, with a sincerity and friend-But she went along bravely for all lost, but ever loved! The heart of ship characteristic of the French, this that; talking to herself, striving with Abigail Thorn was too full for any old companion-in-arms bid him adieu.

raising her off the ground; tossing fatal day that the dark water in one at once concluded, saying: her backward with a rush of blinding overwhelming torrent washed out its I am going to make my road kept, and indecement soft of equal to snow again. And all the while the beauty and its life. He, too, came straight. gold seemed like a wolf's teeth, with and kissed her; and next was admit- 'And I,' said his companion, 'prefer of borrowers are utterly mean, and the burning pain gnawing at her heart- ted her dove-eyed daughter Agnes- the most easy route. strings. Yet even in this fierce roar the dear darling of her home, her But it happened that this casy route of any of the tribe. In this country of battle with the outer elements, and sweet and willing helpmate, the third traversed some dangerous forests, and, of struggle with the failing powers one that the angels called away. Then the next day, the soldier learned that within, the fainting soul turned heav- came Charlie, and Jessie, and Lulie, his travelling companion had been as- buy his own. At any rate no decent enward, in all the sweet reliance of and Annie. Ah! seven times had sassinated-I assure you that he now inborn faith, in all that reverent love her mother's heart been rent almost appreciated the maxim which had led and truthfulness that uplifts to the to the tearing asunder; seven times, him to choose the safe road, and that creature, whose brief earth-hour had his heart, his good captain.

How long the way was! Many and bow their heads to hear their father's diers who passed through the place. many a winter night had she traversed prayer, then commence the cheerful He was very politely received, asthat road before, but never had it dream. No wender poor old Abigail sured that he was welcome, and invited seemed such an endless distance, or Thorn thought it surely was a dream, to the table of the lord. garments sheeted with snow and ice, playing on the rough wall and rafters of others. Abigail Thorn found herself at home. above her, she feared, tremblingly, After supper, the lady having all-others, and if taken in its proper sense, and buttons, fined with glazyd puslin then collected and put into a vial con-She sat a moment half insensible, still less one by one they should depart aholding fast the bundle of wood and gain.

ready left her seat, the lord of the very justly made. But the idea usuleather front, for the making and or (in strong alcohol.) The vial is in the temperature scarce half a de- ben, her husband, came and stood be-

"Now for my one match; I must watch beside you. It is now night; in it."

repaired in the best manner and on the most ling carefully, she attempted the light- found and ever loved, watching about with the affairs of another.' ing of it with still greater care, for her humble bed, Abigail Thorn fell 'Brave man,' said the lord, I see teeted. But on closer examination back; and by close application, workflame, then, as she hastily applied it tabernacle that had nursed and guard- him into the eastle vaults. to the light chips, a great hail-drop ed it like a mother.

gathering its scanty covering about the shadow of that loving wing, under condemned to drink at my table from omy, that the whole business of the publication of these facts, some penevslew. These are the bones of those nothing be suffered to waste by the newspaper office. - Boston Post.

REDELL EXPRESS

The Three Maxims.

A Family Newspaper-Deboted to Politics, Agriculture, Manufactures, Commerce, and Miscellaneous Reading.

their station there like angels, to ward regiment, went to bid his captain adieu. and besides, let me beg you to accept hour or two, perhaps more, at a grog- upon arganised nature. The circulation to inquire, you shall have no cause to On the morrow, he resumed his ing to have more to do than an other to particular countries, they would be

'I have only three louis d'or (nearly

And ever—ever, as a sweet refrain as wisdom is more precious than gold, ception! A young stranger, neither people have better "luck" then oth- M. Arago, who demonstrated that, so to these psalms of consolation, came and to prove my confidence in you, I more no less than a priest, was tender- ers, and as for himself, he never did far as actual observation has hitherto three louis d'or, all his fortune to the he raised his musket and a ball would is no fancy sketch; we are willing to tween the lunar changes and the vi-

these three maxims: MAKE FOUR ROAD STRAIGHT;

REMIT THAT TO-MORROW YOUR ANGER. Now, await me here a few moments.' During the captain's absence, the ing to himself, 'make your road straight; great pity that they were all my for-cheering words to keep alive the heart- outward token of joy, but in deep, The soldier began his journey. Hav-LATEST VANSON, how or stress that were well night dying out for quiet penetrating rills, it pervaded ing joined a travelling companion they been here, have succeeded in collecting and paylack of feeding. On she went, leav- her entire being, when Reuben came arrived at a place, where the road sep- there! beg the city's name sheltered streets and kissed her with pleasant spoken arated into two branches, both of Newspaper Borrowers. which, however, met at the same point: mile off, covered by night and storm, Another knock, and then in came one, apparently the more easy, turned stord the lone but she dailed home. Reuben the younger; Reuben her first- to the right, whilst the other, a little How the wind toyed with her now! born, entering in all the flush and joy inclining to one side, was a continua-Formerly of Liven, N. C., - benting down upon her bent figure like of life, with the same dear, beautiful tion of the main road. They were destrong wings, then surging up like face he had-turned back towards her liberating which route to take, when Leavy waves under her feet, almost the last day she had seen it thus—the the soldier, remembering the maxim, poor. It is an old Scandinivian pro-

for amid this little gathering from the he no longer regretted his three louis It dirties and rumples a paper to hangates of the Morning-land, stood a tiny d'or; but thanked, in the sincerity of dle it, and no man likes to have his been too short to give it any name but The next day, he arrived at the inn rowers' unclean hands. Subscribers of a small village, where he was advis-Oh! it was joy unspeakable-unfa- ed to pay a soldier's visit to the lord in good condition; and in order that thomable-to behold them, one and of the chateau, who took great pleas- they may do this, the papers must be all, assemble about the table, and ure in hospitibly entertaining the sol-bitter, bitter cold. She had been from which she woke to the agony of But strange to tell! In the midst of working harder than usual that day, slowly freezing to death! If it was a the repast, a lady clothed in black, and was so tired, perhaps that was dream, the angels surely had sent it with humble step, and downcast eyes, -her heart told her so; for what approached, and took a seat at the ta-Long before she reached her own blessed reality attended it. Oh, what ble; and this lady, one of the noblesse, disturber of the peace and hapiness of located near the public Square and Court door, her numb limbs refused to give months and years of untold misery, a French-woman, drank from a human families; he is a pest, a nuisance, and utterance to the prayer that had lin- spent in toil and loncliness, stretched skull! The soldier did not even seem should be permanently disposed of in that they are prepared to accommodate the traveling fluble and all who may favor them gered in her heart all the weary while between the wilderness of her present to notice it, and the conversation conwith patronage, with entertainment equal to _______the one star, shining for her in all life and the flower-blooming paradise tinued as before. He was none the less him from annoying honest, decent peoof days that had seen them thus bound enrious to learn the reason of this ex- ple who pay for their newspapers, and together! One by one, they had left traordinary conduct; but the important should be allowed to read and preserve in Mulberry street, who had disposed Cheap Barometer. the earth-walk; one by one, on this service which the first maxim had ren- them in peace. dearest of nights they had returned, dered him, in inducing him to select the push against the rickety door, and with their low, familiar converse safe road, made him practice the sec- Good and Bad Luck. and staggering blindly to a chair, her in her cars, and the ruddy fire-gleams ond; never meddle with the business The remark is often made that "hard at work, making boys plack flakes, which are collected by passing gree warmer than that she had just side her, saying, as he laid his hand on man; for one of the strangest of scenes tial hand; and she often rewards with- piece! I did not believe it, any ask- prove an unerring index of the weathhas been presented to your eyes, and out merit, and disappoints laudable ed to see her pass book. It was rue. er. In fine weather the precipitates sprinkles of rain were dropping down asleep. Softly as the mother withdraws that I can put confidence in you, and our misfortunes may be mostly traced ing from early light till darks (she The Elastic Egg. the il-contrived chimney. With a the clasp of her arm from the babe she that you are a man of honor; follow to our own errors, committed either could not afford a candle,) with such vigorous scratch she managed to make puts to rest, so was the life, the spirit me, and learn what your discretion through ignorance, or that which is assistance as we could give herein the the match flare up with a dull blue of Abigail Thorn stolen away from the has been worth! Then he conducted far less excusable, wilful neglect. way of bread, she had laid away the poor Abigail Thorn, in piteous accents, had dropped from the cloud's dark be- ering seemed to animate, and which shelter, food and water, his manure all the poor widow's hard earned rent, som, lay white and still over the un- appeared to menace the two visitors! well husbanded and secured from waste, and she could find no trace of the thief. Will receive and forward Applications for the Surance against Loss and Damage by Fire, on the principles of the Company.

The Company is doing a presence and forward Applications for the Company is doing a presence against Loss and the principles of the Company is doing a presence and forward Applications for the two visitors:

We friend, resumed the lord, the and all spare time employed in collecting tracked field, they took their journey.

My friend, resumed the lord, the and all spare time employed in collecting tracked field, they took their journey.

And the burden of toil and loneliness ing materials for increasing the quantum stant over the time time to menage the two visitors:

We friend, resumed the lord, the and all spare time employed in collecting tracked field, they took their journey.

And the burden of toil and loneliness ing materials for increasing the quantum stant over the time time time time to menage the two visitors:

We friend, resumed the lord, the ingression to menage the two visitors:

We friend, resumed the lord, the ingression to menage the two visitors:

We friend, resumed the lord, the ingression to menage the two visitors:

We friend, resumed the lord, the ingression to menage the two visitors:

We friend, resumed the lord, the ingression to menage the two visitors:

We friend, resumed the lord, the ingression to menage the two visitors:

We friend, resumed the lord, the ingression to menage the two visitors:

We friend, resumed the lord, the ingression to menage the two visitors:

And the burden of toil and loneliness in the two visitors:

We friend, resumed the lord, the ingression to menage the two visitors:

The agent was inexacted from waste, and the lord the two visitors:

And the burden of toil and loneliness in the two visitors:

The agent was inexacted from the two visitors:

The age

what you have seen, but who have not be done to-day-seldom has to take . According to popular belief, the I shall never forget the interesting had your discretion. I satisfied their refuge under the pitiful pleat of bad moon not only presides over human history which a soldier of the Empire curiosity, and their death alone could "luck." maladies, but, like comets, is made screen me from its consequences .-"An old soldier, about to quit his Your discretion has saved your life; quently and unnecessarily spends an ferences upon the weather, as well as Well! my brave said the captain to with my esteem, this purse. You can shop, store, sale, or other public place, of the juices of vegetables, the quali-ly embracing his wife!

shock, arrested his hand-Remit till should apply to you, I would saymend entertained. to-morrow your anger-causing him to your ways at once, and no longer be The opinion that timber should on-NEVER MEDDLE WITH THE BUSINESS OF OTHERS; drop the muzzle of his gun and sadly compelled to hide your faults ander ly be felled during a decline of the to lower his head. His jealously, how- the flimsy veil called ball "luk." - moon, is acted upon with undoubtever, was not of long duration; for the Cor. Washington Dispatch. priest was his own son! Adopted in his youth by the good pastor of the vil- The Africans. lage, who had attended to his studies, A correspondent of the Softhern only a few moments.

The old soldier, after along absence, being re-united to his family, and find- likely, and are from six to twen y-one ing his son, a priest, then the 'ne plus ing his son, a priest, then the 'ne plus years old; there is only one i oman ultra' in the minds of the peasantry, among them. They seem perfectly

An exchange paper says: A 'borrower' is an unfinished being. He is incomplete. There is a screw loose in his organization. He is a bad manthat is, an unsafe one. He never one an order for something at a tore, believed, will be collected, and paid comes to anthing good, and is always verb that when Satan wished to angle paper was torn into small pieces and upon the Women of America! with and finally catch a man he first set him a borrowing. The whole tribe newspaper borrowers are the meanest newspapers are so cheap that every man can-and every decent man does man will borrow a newspaper and obtain his reading in that way. If he can't get one of his own he will do without. favorite family journal soiled by bor to good papers like to preserve them kept clean, smooth and whole-one number of a paper lost breaks the continuity of a volume, and there is a degree of sentiment, too, about favorite family newspapers. A man acquires an affection for them, and as in the repeat them. case of his wife and baby he don't want any one else to meddle with his paper. Therefore a newspaper borrower is a

From the Beautort Journal. travelers, who have been witnesses of putting off till to-morrow what ought Luna Influences.

No. 19.

have any but bad "luck."

he had recently been ordained to the Recorder, writing from Jackso ville, ministry, and had preceded his father Telfair county, Georgia, gives the fol- contain more sap, and will, therefore, to the humble home of his childhood lowing account of the African; that be more spungy, more likely to be atwere recently at that place: The most of these negroes are very exclaimed: 'When shall there be a happy, and are as contented at I free moment of greater joy? It is surely from care as if roaming their ative A Glorious Record. carefully put away; they thinking it will answer the same purpose as money. "I'll take It for my Children."

> --------Life in New York.

Fom Hood's-Song of the Shirt are ex- work for the education of a number of ceeded by a revelation just make by the smartest men and women the world the Superintendent of the New York ever produced, was first laid in news-House of Industry, who, in vaiting paper reading, when the idea of books among the children of his charge, ound was repugnant. a hard-working, honest looking gidow of every article of furniture that fould | Dissolve some camphor in alcohol, be pledged, to support her family, and throw in the solution some soda. "We found her," said the visitor, The camphor precipitates in snewy some men are more fortunate than cloth caps, trimmed with braid, bow, the mixture through a filter; they are The meal was over, and then Reu- ed him attentively, and said : tainly very erroneous—which is, that pressing of which she received two then tightly corked and placed where 'My friend, you are not an ordinary fortune dispenses her gifts with a par- shillings per dozen, or two chara a it will not be disturbed, when it will "Go to sleep, now, mother; we will you have not even appeared to remark exertion. And indeed such would ap- "In good times" she said, "I wed to rests on the bottom, but on the appear to be the fact to the superficial get three and sixpence a doze, but proach of a storm it will rise to the the morning we will take a journey." 'My lord,' replied the soldier, 'it is observer, who only considers effects now the price is reduced!" She had surface with a tendency opposite to Clocks, Watches and Jeweiry of every sort, Preparing the scant supply of kind- So, with the long lost, but newly one of my principles never to meddle without tracing them to their origin pledged the bed from under ferself the quarter from which the storm is where only the true cause can be de- and children, the frock from of her coming, the flakes being affected elec-Thus the farmer who gives close at- money for her rent, just due. To add Rut, Oh horror! The pale and flick- tention to his business, sees that his a little to her store, she had received be squeezed into a tolerably widesplashing on it, extinguished the one And in the earliest morning, while ering light of the torch was reflected lands are well cultivated, his fences another woman into her reout as a yet the stars shone undimmed by the on all sides of this gloomy place by and farm buildings kept in order, his lodger. After a week had passed her covered with water having some soda "Father in Heaven!" exclaimed dawning day, and when the mantle that mouldering skeletons, which its flick- stock of all kinds well provided with lodger ran away, and carrid with her

But on the other hand, he was fre- responsible for a vast variety of interalso, who in all probability would timber must be felled, the harvest week behind business, always petend- soil. If these opinions were limited "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall repent my advice. How much money route, and the rest of his journey pass-person. He does not break his land less entitled to serious consideration; before he plants his corn, for the real but it, is a curious fact that many of He, at last, arrived at his cottage, son that he only half way de san, them prevail, and have prevailed, in fifteen dollars), captain, and some where all that he esteemed most dear- thing which he begins. He hat ploy sections of the globe so distant and "Yea, though I walk through the frames to pay my expenses." Iy awaited him. His heart beat, for he his corn and works his entire ellip in unconnected, that it is difficult to ima-'Very well! give me the louis d'or, had placed his foot upon the threshold slovenly way, and when the Parves gine the error to have proceeded from and I will give you three counsels.' of that dear home from which he had come, and he does not reap as much a single source. At all events, the The state of my finances render the been so long absent. Without knock- as his more careful neighbor; he will extent of its prevalence alone, render-begin to complain and say, that some ed it a fit subject for investigation by - afforded grounds for reasoning, there Saying this, the soldier handed his With the decision of an old soldier, Reader, the picture drawn above is no discoverable correspondence besoon have pierced the heart of the un- leave it to you to say whether it does cissitudes of rain and drought, which 'My friend, said the captain, 're- fortunate priest, had not a thought, not apply to many farmers within can justify, or in any degree countenmember well, and put into practice traversing his mind like an electric your knowledge. And if, reader, it ance, the popular belief so generally > ed confidence in various countries, and is even made the ground of legislation in France, with the belief that its increase causes the sap to ascend, and, if cut during the latter period, it will tacked by worms, more difficult to season, and more readily split and warped by changes of temperature. Hence it would follow, that the proper time for felling timber would be at a new moon.—Patent Office Report.

the time to open the roll.' He had wilds. They remain in jail dily at The Richmond Enquirer publishes scarcely opened it, when a playful night; during the day they are per- the report of the Secretary of the kitten, which wished to partake of the mitted the freedom of the yard. Some Mount Vernon Ladies' Association of general joy skipped after something of them are quite smart, and all are the Union," from which it appears that, right which fell from the roll upon quick to learn. At first, they could although it is not yet one year since the floor-it was the three louis d'or, not speak a word of English; several the Association was organized, they G. H. T. have mastered many words. Honey ing over the large sum of one hundred and whisky are favorite words with and fifty-eight thousand three hunthem-all love money, and all spear dred and thirty-three dollars! They to love whisky. They seem to ave a have now only to provide for the sum knowledge of the value of coin, but of $41,666 66, which is not due until none of our paper currency. I gave February 22d, 1862, but which, it is since which time all scraps of pagerare over in a short time. This is a grand in great demand with them. A news- achievement, and reflects infinite honor

Their dances and sports are very mus- In our familiar intercourse with ing and original. Most of the older our subscribers at the Courts, we freones are quite ingenious, making | pives | quently meet with men who say they and other things out of iron hoors and have not time to read, and others sardine boxes. They are very fend of who never learned to read, who refine dress, and some of the boys of the mark of our paper, after paying of place have placed gay ribbons through old scores, "Send it on, sir; I take it the holes in their ears, which make for my children-they find it very enthem quite proud. I don't think they ticing, they will read your paper when have any idea of God. I have taken they won't read books." One gentlesome pains to find out their belief in man in Walton observed to us the a Supreme Being, but have failed. other day, "I have a bright-eyed lit-They are from three different nations the girl who never attended school of tribes, there being three different but three weeks, during which time marks or tattoes among them, in licat- she learned to spell in three syllables. ing, as they say, different nations, or, Since that I have been taking your perhaps as more reasonable, different paper, and she is now one of the best castes. They soon learned some pro- readers in the neighborhood." We fane words, but being told it was grong hear similar stories of smart little girls to use them, it is seldom they will do and boys all round the neighborhood so, saying marbe, bad, when as led to -Southern Watchman.

It is even so that children will read newspapers, when they would read nothing else, and in this way acquire The hardships that brought forth a taste for reading. The ground-

Take a good and sound egg, place it main twelve hours, it will then become monthed bottle; when in, it must be in it. In a few hours this preparation will restore the egg nearly to its original solidity, after which the liquid should be poured off and the bottle dried. Keep it a curiosity to puzzle your friends for an explanation how the egg was laid in the bottle.

Those are the best instructors whose lives speak for them.