The Standard Puzzled. It is not well known—it is not known at all that in 1857 "hundreds of illegal votes came over from Virginia and Tennessee and voted for Seales."

Like many other assertions which the Standard is in the habit of making of matters the knowledge of which it is "know nothing," the above assertion is decidedly cool, and assuming!

The Standard appears puzzled to account for the large vote which was cast for Gen. Leach in Davidson and Iredell, and calls upon the editors of the Express to explain...

A Disgraced Senator. During the late canvass in the First District, ex-Governor S. A. Bragg, lowered the dignity of the last named station, by making stump speeches for H. M. Shaw!

The hopeful future. The election is over and we present tables of the five districts where the Opposition ran candidates...

Doctors Disagree. An Elizabeth City correspondent of the Baltimore Clipper wrote that paper on the 7th inst. as follows: "This district has given Smith, the American candidate, a handsome majority."

So, the Bulletin does not believe there is now any American party in North Carolina. We incline to the opinion that the Bulletin is right so far, at least, as the present existence of such an organization is concerned...

In the matter of the present existence of the American party, the Bulletin and the Raleigh Standard widely differ in opinion. Read what the latter journal says: "We do not doubt it—and the fact proves, what we frequently intimated to our readers before the election, that the Know-Nothing party still exists in an organized form in North Carolina."

Now, for the sake of the argument and for that only, we are willing to admit for a moment that the Standard is correct—that the American party is still a political organization in North Carolina—that, as the Standard has often substantially declared, it is worse than the Black Cockade Federalists, worse than the old-line Whigs—worse than the Freesoilers—that it is comprised of Abolitionists in disguise—in short, that it is the most corrupt party that could well be conceived of—and what then? Why that, wicked and corrupt as this now existing American party is, the people of North Carolina, as far as they had a fair opportunity of doing so, have voted to commit the legislation of the country to its hands instead of those of that party—the "national" Democracy—to which the Standard belongs, and of which it claims to be the head and heart in this State!

If the Standard's statement is true, the fact, taken in connection with the result of the recent election, furnishes a humiliating comment upon the popularity and purity of "national" Democracy. The Standard very well knows that it is not true; but that the self-styled Democracy were beaten by an Opposition composed of patriotic Democrats and Whigs, who had become heartily tired of, and disgusted with, the abuses of the present Federal Administration, and the everlasting cant about "Northern Black Republicanism" with its "Southern tail," which latter they knew to be sheer clap-trap designed to operate upon the popular credulity.

To make the most of it, the Standard's argument is a very unfortunate one for the character of the Standard's principles.

The County Court for Iredell. Was in session at Statesville this week. Tuesday as usual a very large collection of visitors and citizens were in attendance; many of whom honored us with a call at the Express office, and exchanged with the types friendly greetings upon the success of the election, which has terminated so gloriously in this State.

A Protest Against Running Wise for President. The Madison (Wisconsin) Patriot issues the following protest against Gov. Wise being a nominee for the Presidency: "Every editor in the Union should protest against it—it would be ruin and destruction to the great body of the country printers."

Extraordinary as it may appear, says an exchange, a piece of brown paper folded and placed between the upper lip and the gum, will stop bleeding of the nose. Try it!

Readers have no idea, as a general thing of the comparative sizes of the different States of this Union and of the several countries of Europe. Thus, Illinois would make forty shill States as Rhode Island, and Minnesota sixty; Missouri is larger than all New England; Ohio exceeds either Ireland, Scotland, or Portugal, and equals Belgium and Switzerland together. Missouri is more than half as large as Italy, and larger than Denmark, Holland, Belgium and Switzerland. Missouri and Illinois are larger than England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales. We can, hence, have some idea of the population this country is able to maintain.

A lot of negroes was sold some days ago at McDonough, Ga. The following are the prices which some of them brought: Old boy, field hand, 18 years old, $1,640; three boys, 14 years old—$1,340; one, $1,282, $902; the other $805; one 7 years old, $720; one woman, 23 years old, with three boys—5 years, one 2 years and one 8 months, $1,995; one woman, 23 years old, with two children—a boy 3 years, a girl 18 months old, $2,305; seven girls sold at the following prices—19 years old, $1,200; one 15 years, $1,023; one 16 years, $1,100; one 12 years, $400; one 7 years, $705; one 7 years, $778; one 7 years, $719.

The could scarcely be a plainer proof of the advance of liberty and good order in Utah than the fact that the Rev. Mr. Vox, Episcopal chaplain of the army at Fort Laramie, had preached in the famous Mormon Tabernacle, and Bishop Kimball aid Brigham Young delivered addresses at the close of the discourse. Everything was pleasant and harmonious. It was currently reported that not a few of the Mormons were recovering from their delusion, and were likely openly to express their awakened disbelief in the tenets, and their disapproval of the practices of Mormonism.

The Portsmouth (N. H.) Tribune says that a German, 6ft. 10 in. tall, working at Washington Furnace, in that county, recently returned to his old home to settle up an estate in which he was interested. He had lived in this country a number of years, was naturalized and had his papers with him. Letters have been received by his brother at Portsmouth, containing information that he had been seized by the government officials, and forced into the army as a regular soldier, regardless of his citizenship in this country. His naturalization papers were sent back.

The Memphis Bulletin thinks printers, as a class, are not generally supposed to be viciously inclined, but any one would think differently if they could hear how feverently they pray for correspondents who write on both sides of the paper.

Mrs. Knowles, one of the attendants in the Lunatic Asylum at Staunton, Va., was killed on Friday last by one of the patients, who struck her with a heavy brush on the head, causing her death shortly after.

The editor of the Warrington Whig, writing from the Red Sweet (Va.) Springs, says: "A few days ago, a couple of Southern gentlemen here, rich planters from Red River, played seven games of old sledge for $5,000 a game, and the winner took every game. $35,000 was lost and the money paid, I hear, in a check on the Bank of Louisiana. I could give the names, but forbear."

The line of coast belonging to the United States is very extensive. According to the report of the coast survey, there are 6,821 miles of Atlantic coast, 3,467 miles of the Gulf coast, and 2,281 miles on the Pacific—making a total of 12,569 miles.

It is stated that the wife of the Hon. Daniel E. Sickles, with the other members of the Baglio family, are about to take up their residence in Italy, and in the event of Mr. S. losing his seat in Congress, he will immediately join them.

A man named Pringle was killed at Snow Hill, Greene county, N. C., on the 28th ult., by another named Kennedy. The jury of inquest returned a verdict of "justifiable homicide" and Kennedy was discharged. They were fighting about a dog, Pringle provoking the quarrel.

The following announcement appears in the ordinary record of a New York paper: "Died in this city, suddenly, on Thursday morning, July 14, at 8 o'clock, Leida D. Lockwood, formerly of Chesapeake, Md., leaving all her property ($150,000) to her niece, Miss Sarah E. Lockwood."

The Secretary of the Interior has appointed Mr. Joseph C. G. Kennedy to superintend the taking of the eighth census of the United States.

A Miss Davis has commenced a suit against a dry goods dealer in Troy, N. Y., for breach of promise. Damages $10,000.

The Louisville Journal states that John Young Brown, Esq., member of Congress elect from the Fifth District of Kentucky, will not be qualified by age to take his seat at the first session of the present Congress. The Constitution prescribes that no person can be a member of the House of Representatives who is under twenty-five years of age. Mr. Brown was elected over a Democratic competitor.

"Banker," writing in the New York Courier states that this country owes Europe, on various accounts, $61,000,000 that four hundred and forty millions of dollars! This is not a mere ebullience of the writer, but he gives the figures, for the respective States and Railroad corporations, and they have the marks of being genuine and authentic.

Western Elections. The results are now accurately ascertained. In Kentucky, the Impoitionists have the Governor and Legislature. The Congressional delegation is equally divided; a local loss of three members. The seat of one of the five Impoitionists is to be contested. In Tennessee, the Impoitionists have the State ticket by a largely reduced majority, but lose four Congressmen. The new delegation is composed of seven Opposition and three Impoition; the last, seven Impoition and three Opposition.

In Texas, there is scarcely a doubt that Houston, Independent, has beaten the Impoition candidate for Governor. In 82 official votes Houston had gained 8,000.

Assault upon an Editor. Col. M. S. Sherwood, one of the editors of the Greensboro Patriot, was violently assaulted last week by J. L. Seales, Esq., and knocked down with a cane for publishing some article at which Mr. S. took offense, although the matter was truthfully stated. Since the result of the election has become known, some people have grown exceedingly pugnacious. Mr. Seales made his exit from Greensboro in the night train, leaving a note to be sent to Mr. Long, the partner of Mr. Sherwood, stating that the blow was intended to have been dealt upon him, but for information that Mr. L. was suffering from lung-disease and in feeble health. Mr. Long in an editorial regrets that Mr. Seales was wrongfully informed, and says he will not be avenged to seeing him at any time.

Foreign News. The Baltimore act at Cape Race, Aug. 12, brings some foreign items of public interest. At Liverpool, breadstuffs were dull and quotations barely maintained, provisions declining. The French army of the Rhine have been dissolving. The harvest prospects were favorable. The American Minister at Rome had obtained £400 compensation for the Perkins family in the Perugia affair.

A Falsehood Corrected. That pink of Locofoibolism the Wilmington Journal devotes a half column in a late issue, to account for the adverse result of the election in this State. In the jumble of sophistry is mingled falsehood, one item of which deserves a passing notice. The Journal says: "In the Sixth district, what might be called a 'dead-end' was made on Mr. Seales by the revival of certain domestic difficulties of a delicate character, to which no gentleman of refined feelings could publicly allude, even for the purpose of self-ventilation." &c.

Now this statement of the Journal is false! and the public will know it. No allusion whatever was made, in the Opposition prints or from the stump, to Mr. Seales' domestic relations, in the canvass, and Mr. S. himself if called upon, could not verify what we assert. Mr. Seales was beaten upon his party principles and upon his other ground. While the Impoition sheets spared not Gen. Leach, assailing him with all manner of falsehood, the Opposition studiously refrained from any and all allusion to Mr. Seales' moral character and domestic affairs.

Visitors to the Virginia Springs, in Rockbridge, Bath, Greenbrier, &c., report that there are fewer persons at those watering places, this season, than usual. The tide of travel seems to have turned again to the North.

Summer Sours. Physiological research has fully established the fact that acids promote the separation of the bile from the blood, which is then passed from the system, thus preventing fevers, the prevailing diseases of summer. All fevers are "bilious"; that is, the bile is in the blood. Whatever is antagonistic to fever is "cooling." It is a common saying that fruits are "cooling," and also berries of every description; it is because the acidity which they contain aids in separating the bile from the blood; that is, aids in purifying the blood. Hence the great yearning for greens and lettuce, and salads in the early spring, these being eaten with vinegar; hence also the taste for something sour, for lemonades, on an attack of fever. But this being the case, it is easy to see that we nullify the good effects of fruits and berries in proportion as we eat them with sugar, or even sweet milk or cream. If we eat them in their natural state, fresh, ripe, perfect, it is almost impossible to eat too many, to eat enough to hurt us; especially if we eat them alone, not taking any liquid with them whatever. Hence also is buttermilk or even commot sour milk promotive of health in summer time. Sweet milk tends to biliousness in sedentary people; sour milk is antagonistic. The Greeks and Turks are passionately fond of sour milk. The shepherds use tannet, and the milk-dealers alum, to make it sour the sooner. Buttermilk acts like watermelons on the system.—Hall's Journal of Health.

Good Brandy. For the past four years, a cask has lain in the Union depot, in Indianapolis, uncalled for. A few days ago it was opened, and found to contain the bodies of a pair of twin babies put together a la Siamese. But the liquor (alcohol) which had originally surrounded these remains, as a fluid preservative, had all been drawn off. The fast young men about the depot, had from time to time, plied straws vigorously in the gimlet-holes in the cask, thus procuring an article which which they smacked their lips and pronounced "good brandy." The color of brandy had been imparted to the alcohol by the babies. Several railroad employees have abstained since the discovery.

MARRIED. In this county, on the 11th inst., by Rev. Walter W. Pharr, Mr. Miles M. Bally and Miss Margaret S. Adams.

A CARD. We the undersigned, certify that we have been personally acquainted with Mr. JAMES EPIH JAMES, of Olin, for several years, and believe him to be a man of veracity. That we would believe anything he would say or write, as readily, as any man in our vicinity.

This certificate is given in contradiction to a publication, written by Mr. Jacob Pringle and published in the Standard, in which he says that "four out of the six signers to Mr. Leach's certificate only, as to what took place at 'Fraley's,' were men of good character." Since which he has said publicly, and in the Standard, that he had seen the certificate, which he thought not respectable, were Joseph James and John A. Newberry.
