

POETRY.

SELECTED FOR THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN, BY G. W. WILSON.

One wish my soul still dwells upon, The wish it will dwell long. I would forget that look, that tone, My heart hath all too dearly known.

THE RIVULET.

Years change thee not. Upon yon hill, The tall old maples verdant still, Yet still, a grandeur of decay.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Peggy Dwyer, a plump, good-faced, good-natured girl, lives in South street and takes in plain sewing. She comprises the whole of her family, and consequently has no care upon her mind.

"SUSEBULLER."

Extraordinary as it may seem, it is affirmed by Peggy Dwyer that this application was from a negro! Peggy sent word back—"as she wanted her comb herself, and couldn't spare it," and thought no more of the matter.

THE SEA OF MATRIMONY.

A gallant youth belonging to this quarter," by some means or other found it practicable to court a winsome lass in Borrowstown, and went up the Fifth the other day to consummate his bliss.

stances to a nicety, plump went the "brisk gudeman" into the pickle deep! The bride screamed with fear, and the passengers with laughter, while the unfortunate wight was taking matters very coolly underneath.

A Scene from real life.—At a company muster the Captain, after exhausting all the military maneuvers of which his tactics consisted, thus bespoke his gallant company: "All you chaps are in favor of nullification, step forward five paces in front, and all you as are again nullification, keep your places in the rear."

NUTMEGS.

Nutmegs, in common, are divided into two sorts. The first, and most valuable, are those which are regularly plucked from the trees as they ripen; and the second, or inferior, consist of such as fall from the tree, and from the delicacy of the fruit, sustain injury by lying for any time on the moist earth.

London Police.—Mansion House.—A Stage

struck Hero.—Frederic Newsome, a boy apparently about nine years of age, was charged with having stolen some articles of apparel from his mother. The policeman who took him into custody produced a couple of descriptions of theatrical swordsmen on the stage; when as the play bills announce, "a terrific combat" is to ensue between these melo-dramatic heroes.

Baltimore Chronicle.

Some of the Jackson men consider it highly dangerous for foreigners to hold stock in the United States Bank, although they have no vote. They affect to believe that such a bank debt will beget a foreign influence—but a debt of double the amount due by individuals for British goods, is perfectly harmless.

Cholera at Bermuda.

We learn from the captain of the brig Queen of the Isles, that the brig Bermuda arrived at Turks Island, on the 28th July, in eleven days from Bermuda, having lost three of her crew by cholera. We also learn that the cholera had made its appearance in the island of Bermuda, though as yet its ravages had not been very extensive; many of the inhabitants were leaving the island.

Cooper's new Novel.

It affords us pleasure to announce that Messrs. Carey & Lea, will shortly publish the Baron of Hattenbury, or the Heidenhammer, a Legend of the Rhine. Our novelist has selected new and promising ground for his great and versatile powers. He has been on the ground, and we may expect something of deep interest, after the long stagnation in the market of Romance. In a few days we shall publish a chapter by way of specimen.

These wretches are great, and the evil they inflict upon the society, by propagating the Cholera infection, imperatively demands their ejection from our streets.

Two persons near Philadelphia, on a wager, mowed each an acre of land supposed to contain a ton and a half of hay. One performed his task in two hours and thirty-three minutes and the other was a minute longer.

The Girard Bank.

The Girard Bank has opened for business, the following gentlemen are the principal officers:—President, James Shott; Cashier, William D. Lewis; Solicitor, Charles J. Jack; and Notary Public, Edward L. West.

Natural Curiosity.

The Wythe (Va.) Argus, says—"There is now in this place, a negro boy, the property of Joseph Draper, Esq. who is turning out very well. His body is nearly white, and his face entirely so, with the exception of a few spots, the size of a dollar, and what is more remarkable, his skin presents the appearance of a white child, the rose and lily beautifully combined; he presents altogether a curious appearance, and the beholder is struck with awe on the first view. His parents are remarkably black."

Sting of the bee.

It may not be generally known that common whitening proves an effectual remedy against the effects of the sting of a bee or wasp. The whitening is to be moistened with cold water, and immediately applied. It may be washed off in a few minutes, when neither pain nor swelling will ensue.

Gold Washing.

According to the investigation of the German naturalists, the river Eider, which traverses part of the dominions of Hesse Darmstadt, Hesse Cassel, and Waldeck, contains as much gold as any of the rivers of Brazil. A company, on a large scale, is now forming to benefit by this discovery.

NOTICE.

A public meeting will be held in the Town of Salisbury, on Thursday of the next Superior Court, to take into consideration the state of Affairs; and all those in favor of a reduction of the Tariff, and opposed to NULLIFICATION and DISUNION, are respectfully requested to attend.

PIEDMONT MAIL ROUTE.

This route extends from Washington City to Millidgeville, Ga. And is so called, because it passes nearly in a parallel line, and throughout its whole extent, with the BLUE RIDGE.

This line is a DAILY one, between Washington City and Lynchburg, Va.; but passengers for any destination South of the latter place, must leave Washington on Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday. This will secure the traveller from detention on the line. Any other day will of course involve the detention of a day which however may be pleasantly spent at the University of Virginia, or in Lynchburg.

1st Day's Run.—From Washington to Warrenton. From Washington to Alexandria, 7 miles. Alexandria to Fairfax c. h., 14 Fairfax c. h. to Centreville, 7 Centreville to Buckland, 14 Buckland to New Baltimore, 3 New Baltimore to Warrenton, 5-50 Fare, 4 dollars.—Road a turnpike.—Country bold elevated and improving.

2d Day's Run.—From Warrenton to Charlottesville. From Warrenton to Jefferson, 10 miles. Jefferson to Culpeper c. h., 15 Culpeper c. h. to Orange c. h., 20 Orange c. h. to Barboursville, 13 Barboursville to Charlottesville, 16-74 Fare $1.50.—Road broken, but adorned with thrifty villages.—The BLUE RIDGE in full and magnificent display. This day's run affords inducement to some of our most sacred political associations. It passes near the residence of Mr. Madison, and in full view of Monticello. At Charlottesville is located the University of Virginia, (the last great effort of MR. JEFFERSON'S GENIUS) and which, from the beauty of its arrangement and the magnificence of its appearance, will amply repay the attention of the Traveller.

3d Day's Run.—From Charlottesville to Lynchburg. From Charlottesville to Hammer's, 20 miles. Hammer's to Lovington, 14 Lovington to New-Glasgow, 14 New-Glasgow to Amherst c. h., 4 Amherst c. h. to Lynchburg, 16-68 Fare, $5.—Road, broken.—Country of the bold and most magnificent description. The town of Lynchburg is the 4th in the State in trade, population and wealth.

4th Day's Run.—From Lynchburg to Danville. From Lynchburg to Pittsylvania c. h. 53 miles. Pittsylvania c. h. to Danville, 20-75 Fare $5.—Road good.—Country uninteresting. Danville is thrifty and improving, and must be a place of considerable trade.

5th Day's Run.—From Danville to Lexington. From Danville to Dobson's X Roads, 55 miles. Dobson's X Roads to Lexington, 25 From do to Salem, 11 Fare $1.50.—Road fine.—Country rather handsome.

6th Day's Run.—From Lexington to York C. H. S. C. From Lexington to Salisbury, 16 miles. Salisbury to Concord, 23 Concord to Charlotte, 21 Charlotte to York c. h., 30-89 Fare, $6.25.—Roads generally very good.—This day's run is through the GOLD REGION near Charlotte are the Scientific Works of the Chevalier de Rivarolo.

7th Day's Run.—From York C. H. to Laurel's c. h. From York c. h. to Union c. h., 35 miles. Union c. h. to Laurel's c. h., 31-66 Fare $5.—Road, tolerably good, and passes it, is believed, through a country abounding in Gold.

William Smith, one of the proprietors of the above line, owns the line from Lynchburg to Salem, Va., and the line from Lynchburg to Sweet Springs, and White Sulphur Springs to Lewisburg, Va. The distance from Lynchburg to Salem is 60 miles.—from Lynchburg to Lewisburg 113 miles. Thus the Traveller will perceive that he owns a direct line from Washington City to Salem, Virginia, through the town of Lynchburg. This place must soon become interesting to Eomessce, &c. It has organized a Rail Road Company, and raised the Stock authorized by the Charter, the first object of which is Knoxville, the next Memphis, on the Mississippi. Fare from Washington to Salem $17.25.—Distance 254 miles.—Time 3-1-2 days. The public will also perceive, that they can be accommodated on his line, from Washington City by Lynchburg to the Watling Place and Lewisburg. August 9, 1832.

RANAWAY from the Subscriber on the 24th Inst. a Negro woman, Harriet, carrying with her a young child; she is well known in the Forks of the Yadkin, and has been seen about Nathan Chaffin's Mill. I will give the above reward to have her lodged in Salisbury Jail.

PROPOSALS.

FOR PUBLISHING THE PETERSBURG CHRONICLE ONCE A WEEK. IN order to give the "Chronicle" an extensive circulation in the Western part of this State, and the Northern section N. C. where there is but a weekly communication by the mails, I propose to issue it every Thursday on a large sheet, containing the inner forms of the semi-weekly paper, and of course exclude the standing advertisements, at the low price of $2 50 per annum, payable in advance. The politics of this paper are generally known—it supports General Andrew Jackson for a re-election to the Presidency, and Martin Van Buren for the office of Vice President of the United States. It approves of the measures of the present Administration—and considers the Veto of the President upon the Bill re-chartering the Bank of the United States, as the wisest and most judicious course.
