POETRY

THE FELON'S MEDITATION

Before I break into old Stubb's shop
And carry off what I lay my hand on
Will it not be prudent in my course to stop
And all objections to the plan must on?

What if I'm taken?—there's an ugly job
I shall be hang'd that's clear—an awkward thing;
But if 'tis natural in man to rob,
'Tis natural enough that he should swing.

This pleasant round the neck the knot to tie,
'Tis pleasant sure to dangle in the air;
But oh! if when I've breath'd my latest sigh
My lifeless limbs to Surgeon Hall repair!

Tremendous thought! were hanging is a joke,
A hamper-neck-cloth to a willing throat;
But in these bowels a rude knife to poke,
Or these intestines thrust into a bottle!

Oh! 'tis too much to bear—I can't endure it.
The dreadful fancy has overcome me quite;
My fingering folly I must try to cure it.
And for this once be honest—Stubb's, good night.

THE YOUNGER BROTHER'S PRAYER ON HEARING HE WAS THE HAPPY FATHER OF TWINS.

Great God! who has bestowed on me
A blessing unforeseen,
Grant that these "Cupid's visits be
But few and far between."

Down it with a blushing face,
And with confusion filled,
That though I love a generous race,
I'd rather boast than build.

Were I baronet or lord,
I should not care two straws—
An eldest son can well afford
To be a "First Great Cause."

But heaven's! who knows what score of sons
My scanty board may bless—
I used to doat on little ones,
But find I like them less.

There's Akerly, that wicked spark,
Upon his seal declares,
My house resembles Noah's ark,
Were things come in by pairs.

But at that Patriarch's famous launch—
His dove, when out she flew,
Drought Noah back one dive branch,
Ah! mine has brought me two.

Yet don't suppose, great God, that I
Of Mrs. K. complain;
Lonely pray, most fervently,
Things may't chance so again.

"Who lives to build, not boast, a generous man
No tenth transmitter of a foolish face."

EPICRAMS FROM THE FRENCH.

Friends of the present day are just like melons.
Not one in fifty's good—the rest are fellows.
All, all is mine, says Gold, for I can buy it—
Not so, says Steel, 'tis mine, or I will try it.
Wouldst thou be happy?—seek not fame,
Which never could get vile envy tame.

A doctor and a poet quarrelled; an indifferent person was referred to, to settle the dispute, the farmer made the following reply—
"You're faulty both,—do penance for your crimes:
Bard, take 'his physic—doctor, read his rhymes."

NEW LINE of Four Horse POST COACHES,

Running from Salem, N. C. to Wythe, C. House in Virginia, three times a week and back.

THIS Line starts from Salem every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 5 o'clock, A. M. and arrives at Wythe Court House at 6 o'clock P. M. the next day. At the same hour that the Stages leave Salem, they also leave Wythe Court House and arrive at Salem at 5 o'clock P. M. on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

This Line is so arranged as to correspond in its arrivals at Wythe Court House, with the arrivals of the Great Lines leading through the valley of Virginia.—At Salem it corresponds with the arrivals of Smith's Piedmont Line, and the Raleigh Line, both of which run three times a week. The whole of this trip is performed in the day time. The Route passes within a mile of the Mt. Mountain through Bathania Bethabara, Mt. Mount Airy, crosses the Blue Ridge at the Good Spur Gap, passes by Poplar Camp Furnace and the Lead Mines of Wythe, and affords some interesting scenes to those that admire the grandeur of nature. The accommodations of diet, bedding, &c. are excellent and cheap. The subscriber hesitates not to recommend his teams and drivers as first rate. His present coaches are good, and will in a few weeks receive four new York Coaches of first rate workmanship and convenience.—Fare 5 cents a mile.

The utmost care and attention will be paid to baggage and other things entrusted to his care, but the Subscriber will not be liable for accidents.

Milton Races.

THE Milton Races over the Milton Course, will commence on Wednesday, the 17th day of October, and continue three days.

1st Day. Proprietor's Purse $100, 2 mile heats, entrance $15.

2d Day. Jockey Club Purse $200, two mile heats, entrance $20.

3d Day. A Sweep Stake for colts and fillies that were three years old last spring, entrance $50, distance 1 mile heats; subscription to close the evening preceding thereof, three or more to make a race, one entered. The money for the two first days race will be hung up at the usual discount.

The Proprietor of the course will use all possible exertions to put the track and his stables in first rate order for the comfortable accommodation of those who may think proper to participate in such innocent amusement. The piteous accommodations at his bar and his table, together with his moderate charges, he flatters himself, cannot fail to satisfy the reasonable expectations of all those friendly to the Union and the election of Jackson and Van Buren.

THE PROPRIETOR,
No Nully.

PROPOSALS,

FOR PUBLISHING THE PETERSBURG CHRONICLE ONCE A WEEK.

In order to give the "Chronicle" an extensive circulation in the Western part of this State, and the Northern section N. C. where there is but a weekly communication by the mails, I propose to issue it every Thursday on a large sheet, containing the inner forms of the semi-weekly paper, and of course exclude the standing advertisements, at the low price of $2 50 per annum, payable in advance. The politics of this paper are generally known—it supports General Andrew Jackson for a re-election to the Presidency, and Martin Van Buren for the office of Vice President of the United States. It approves of the measures of the present Administration—and considers the Veto of the President upon the Bill re-chartering the Bank of the United States, as the wisest act of the Administration—and one that will reflect laurels to the venerable Chief Magistrate. The weekly prices current will be given, and such information relating to the market as will be useful.

Subscription Lists to be returned by the 20th September next.

WM. POTTER,
PETERSBURG, VA. AUGUST 11 1832.

PROPOSALS

FOR PUBLISHING BY SUBSCRIPTION, AN EDITION OF THE ENGLISH GENERAL STUD BOOK.

THE Editor of the "American Turf Register and Sporting Magazine," will cause to be re-published the "ENGLISH GENERAL STUD BOOK," as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers, (say 150,) can be obtained, to guarantee against much loss. It is undertaken with no view to profit, but to put into the hands of American Sportsmen and Breeders of the Turf Horse, and especially the patrons of the American Turf Register and Sporting Magazine who may desire to possess it, a work of acknowledged authority, containing the pedigrees of English thorough bred Horses, from the earliest days down to 1832.

To the American copy, brief notes will be appended, to show the Animals named in the English Stud Book, which have been brought to American, and into what State imported.

It will be handsomely printed on good paper, and with a new type, and will be comprised in one large volume of about 900 pages.

The cost of the English copy is $42, in boards—that of the American will not exceed $10.—Payment to be made on the delivery of the work.

N. B. Subscriptions will be received at the Office of the Watchman, or by R. W. Long at his residence on the opposite side of the Street

SPORTS OF THE TURF.

The races over the Salisbury turf, will commence on Tuesday the 23d of October next, and continue three days; first day, three mile heats, purse $225 Second day, two mile heats, purse $172. Third day, handy cap purse, three best in five for the entrance money of the preceding days, free for any Horse, Mare, or Gelding. Governed by the rules of the New Market course.

The money will be hung up at the polls.

PROSPECTUS OF THE GREENSBOROUGH PATRIOT

WE have weathered the storm of persecution for three long years, and this day put our foot upon the troubled elements of a society for a tiresome journey through the fourth. These are perilous times; and a responsibility, as well as the task, and extensive as eternity, hangs over every man who shall take upon himself the management of a newspaper; because public opinion is measurably formed from the tone of the press—the action of the people depends upon opinions freely and honestly formed—and upon their action, is suspended the destinies of the Republic.

That we have acted in numerous instances, one, both in point of fact and opinion, we are ready to admit as our enemies are to charge; but we will meet the world in the full defence of the rectitude of our intentions. We have never "shown the knee to Baal," nor licked the dirt from the feet of the popular idol of the day. If we had taken this course, the probability is, we should have received "fencer kicks and more coppers" but we should have robbed ourselves of that peace of mind which a quiet conscience alone can give; and which we would not barter for all the political bubbles that have ever burst upon the ocean of time since. created order sprang from chaos.

When we first commenced the publication of a paper in this place, a disposition was manifested by the Nabob Gentry to reduce us from an independent course, and by their friendly advice to wrap us into their service; but finding us not composed of materials so pliant as they at first expected, their next attempt was to intimidate by threats, not of violence, but of withholding, and persuading others to withhold the needful. They soon learned from our tone, however, that we would sooner crawl upon our hands and knees, and beg for sustenance—and be free than to compromise our principles, and sacrifice our freedom of opinion, for a seat among the tawdry and tottering thrones of corruption.

Still bent, however, upon the full purpose of preventing, if possible, an unshackled press from growing into public favor, our enemies have even ransacked hell, from the centre to the circumference, for slanderous fabrications; and these have been heaped upon us, without cease, without measure and without mercy. But thanks to a generous public—we have thus far sustained us—"through evil as well as through good report;" and we would rather bask, for one hour, in their approving smiles, than to spend a whole eternity, amidst the damning griefs of a continuation of office-hunters, despots, demagogues, tyrants, fools and hypocrites!

We shall always cherish, and labor to inculcate an abiding reverence for the constitutional laws of the land, because, upon their acknowledged supremacy, and universal action, depend the happiness of man—the peace of society—the security of our institutions, and the stability of our happy form of government. But aside from this secret, silent and irresistible power,—before our hands shall be tied, they shall be served from our body and thrown to the dogs in the streets—before our mind shall submit to shackles of any description, it shall be given up to despair, and frozen into a barrenness ten times more gloomy than the deserts of Africa—before our soul shall be conquered by "hope of reward" or "fear of punishment," it shall be redeemed from the "shackles of mortality," and sent to receive its doom in the courts of eternity—before we will relinquish our right to think, speak, and publish our own deliberate opinions, in relation to public men and public measures, so far as the same shall be authorized by the mandates of constitutional law, or required by the interests of our country;—we will renounce existence itself! Take away our rights as a freeman, and life has no charms for us.—But enough!

The Greensborough Patriot will continue to pursue the same straight forward course of matter-of-fact dealing which was originally chalked out;—that is: "To communicate a thirst for improvement of every description, among the people of North-Carolina—to spread before the public a faithful account of all the events and transactions, both foreign and domestic, that may agitate the moral, political or religious world—to scrutinize closely, the conduct of men in power, and chastise their misdoings without regard to rank—to pull down the mask from the face of corruption, and hold up popular vices to view in their "native deformity"—to influence our young countrymen, with warm hearts and lips of fire, to plead their country's cause,—to collect and condense, from the numerous periodicals of the day such a fund of interesting anecdotes and miscellaneous literature as cannot fail to interest amuse and improve the general reader.—In short our paper shall be the broadest and most unqualified sense-termin a friend of the people and unwavering defender of their rights.

THE GREENSBOROUGH PATRIOT

Is printed and published every Wednesday morning, by WILLIAM SWAIM.

At Two Dollars per annum; payable within three months from the date of the first number, or Three Dollars will be invariably exacted immediately after the expiration of that period.

Each subscriber will be at liberty to discontinue at any time within the first three months from the time of subscribing, by paying for the numbers received, according to the above terms; but no paper will be discontinued until all arrears are paid.

A failure to order a discontinuance within the year, will subject the subscriber to payment for the whole of the succeeding year, at the rates above mentioned.

A year's subscription will be ascertained by the numbers of the paper and not by calendar months. Fifty-two numbers will make a year's subscription; and in the same proportion for a shorter time.

Those who may become responsible for ten copies shall receive the 11th gratis.—An allowance of ten per cent will also be made to authorized agents for procuring subscribers and warranting their adverstisements.

Not exceeding 12 lines, will be neatly inserted three times for one dollar,—and twenty-five cents for each succeeding publication—those of greater length in the same proportion.

All letters and communications to the Editor, on business relative to the paper, must be post paid, or they will not be attended to.

NOTICE.

I do appoint Mrs. MARY ALLEMONG my attorney, during my absence from the Town of Salisbury.

BONNETS O' BLUE NEW BI-WEEKLY LINE OF FOUR HORSE

Post Coaches, From Salem N. C. To SHOWN'S X Roads, Carter Co. Tennessee.

THIS Line passes through the pleasant Valley of Wilkesborough and Jefferson, in Ashe County—crosses the Blue Ridge at the head of Redy's River, where the Gap is very favorable, and presents one of the most interesting displays of Mountain Scenery that the Southern country affords. The Stages leave Salem on the Wednesday immediately after the arrival of those from Raleigh, N. C. and Washington City; and arrive at Showen's X Roads in time for the Knoxville Stages. At Wilkesborough, this line branches by a Stage running twice a week to Morgantown, passing by Fort Defiance, up the delightful Valley of the Yadkin.

ANOTHER LINE

Belonging to the Subscribers, running from Salisbury, N. C. twice a week, intersecting at the mentioned Line at Wilkesborough, at the Salisbury, it meets the Cheraw and Raleigh Stage, and the Piedmont Line.—The Subscriber runs a SHACK LINE, running from Charlotte to Statesville twice a week.—All these Lines so arranged as to give the traveller the benefit of the intersecting Lines without delay.

Persons wishing to travel from the North to the South-West or West, or from East to West will find the Route by Wilkesborough, the most pleasant, cheap and expeditious.—The Subscriber flatters themselves that their accommodations will be exceeded by none in this country. Their Coaches are Northern made, and first rate, and their drivers accommodating, active, sober young men.—Fare on either of these Lines for the whole extent Five cents a mile. Way passengers will be charged six and a half cents.

Strict care will be taken of all baggage, bundles, &c., but the Subscribers will not be liable for accidents.
