

CAROLINA WATCHMAN.

BY HAMILTON C. JONES.

SALISBURY, N. C. SATURDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1852.

VOL. I—NO. 23

PROSPECTUS FOR THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN.

HAMILTON C. JONES.

His object is to instruct and to please. He will therefore, with zeal and diligence set himself to this work, and he flatters himself that the most interesting Literature, Science, Politics, Agriculture and Commerce may be promoted by his labors. Good morals and refinement it shall be his ambition to uphold, and against the enemies of the Union, whether open or hidden, he will exert the utmost of his strength. Criticism, with moderation, and with every advantage, will be his constant pursuit, and he will endeavor to afford to the Watchman, Believing in the patriotism and just intentions of the President, and aware that undivided Union can be hindered by the proper exercise of government, he will feel it his duty to resist the course of policy which has been so freely pursued, and which he deems to be a violation of the Constitution, and which he deems to be a violation of the Constitution, and which he deems to be a violation of the Constitution.

TERMS.

The Carolina Watchman, is published every week at Three Dollars per year, in advance where the subscribers live. Counties more than one hundred miles distant from Salisbury, and in all cases where the account is over one year standing, the price will be $4.

No subscription will be taken for less than one year. Advertising will be done at the usual rates. No subscription will be withdrawn until arrangements are made for the Editor's choice.

Six subscribers paying the whole sum in advance, can have the Watchman at $2.50 for one year, and if advanced regularly, will be continued at the same rate afterwards.

All letters to the Editor must be Post paid or they will not be attended to.

Persons addressing the Editor on the business of the Office, will address him as Editor of the Carolina Watchman. Those that write on editorial business can direct to H. C. Jones.

N. B. All the subscriptions taken before the commencement of this Paper, it will be remembered, become due on the publication of the first number.

Fall & Winter GOODS.

Now receiving and opening, at the Store of John Murphy, in Salisbury, a large and extensive assortment, both in variety and amount, of Fresh and Fashionable

FALL & WINTER GOODS

Selected with the utmost care, and bought wholly and entirely for cash, in Philadelphia and New York, from the latest styles of 1852.

His customers and the Public are most earnestly requested to call, see, hear and judge, each and every one for himself.

The extensive assortment and low rate of his prices, must most certainly induce the public to believe that goods cannot be sold lower in this section of country.

J. M. hopes by close and steady attention to business and a free and willing mind to render to all who may favor him with their calls such accommodations as shall merit their continuance.

November 24—6w16

All persons indebted to me are requested to make payment by the first day of January next, or give their notes with security if required.

Nov. 24—

JOHN MURPHY.

York & Philadelphia, with constant regard to an assortment adapted to the requirements of the people, they now offer to purchasers, at the lowest prices, and upon the most accommodating terms.

The variety and amount of their assortment being large and extensive, they earnestly solicit those wishing to purchase goods of a new and cheap quality, to call, examine, hear terms and make purchases for themselves, and Day, as their best bargain may require.

November 24—6w16

HAMILTON C. JONES.

Will continue in the present to practice Law in the Counties of Rowan and Surry, and the next Superior Courts of Stokes and Davidson, in order to settle his business in these counties. His Office is under the office of the Carolina Watchman a few doors below the Mansion Hotel in Salisbury, lately occupied by Saml Jones Esq. Tavern.

Entertainment

The Subscriber respectfully begs leave to inform his OLD CUSTOMERS and the Public generally, that he continues to keep that

LARGE AND SPACIOUS BUILDING, NORTHEAST CORNER OF THE COURT-HOUSE SQUARE, AND DIRECTLY IN THE CENTRE OF THE VILLAGE, where he will, at all times, be happy to receive company.

His TABLE and BAR are as good as the Market affords. His ROOMS and BEDDING, inferior to none. His STABLES, large and convenient; well supplied with Provender, and every attention paid to horses. Newspapers from different parts of the United States, are taken at this Establishment, for the use of the Public; and no exertions will be spared by the Proprietor, to render his guests comfortable.

Wadesborough, N. C. 1852.

T. WADDILL, Jr.

Persons travelling through this place, in either of the Stages, will find at this House, prompt attention, comfortable accommodations, and moderate charges.

J. W. Jr.

WALKER'S

NEW LINE of Four Horse POST COACHES, Running from Salem, N. C. to Wythe-C. House in Virginia, three times a week and back.

This Line starts from Salem every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 5 o'clock, A. M. and arrives at Wythe Court House at 6 o'clock P. M. the next day. At the same hour that the Stages leave Salem, they also leave Wythe Court House and arrive at Salem at 5 o'clock P. M. on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. This Line is so arranged as to correspond in its arrivals at Wythe Court House, with the arrivals of the Great Lines leading through the valley of Virginia. At Salem it corresponds with the arrivals of Smith's Piedmont Line, and the Raleigh Line, both of which run three times a week. The whole of this trip is performed in the day time. The Route passes within a mile of the Pilot Mountain through Bethania Bethsara by Mount Airy, crosses the Blue Ridge at the Gaud Spur Gap, goes by Poplar Camp Furnace and the Lead Mines of Wythe, and affords some interesting scenes to those that admire the sublimity of Nature. The accommodations of diet, lodging, &c. are excellent and cheap. The subscriber hesitates not to recommend his teams and drivers as first rate. His present coaches are good, and he will in a few weeks receive from Troy, New York, Coaches of first rate workmanship and convenience. Fare 5 cents a mile.

The utmost care and attention will be paid to baggage and other things entrusted to his care, but the Subscriber will not be liable for accidents.

D. WALKER

Leaksville MILLS.

20,000 Bushels of Wheat & 5,000 do. Flour, Sec'd.

We wish to purchase with Cash, Groceries or Dry Goods, the above quantity of Wheat and Flour-Seed, to be delivered at our Mills at Leaksville. Our Grist and Saw Mills, Carding Machines, Cotton Gin, Oil Mill, &c. will soon be in complete operation, and customers will meet with prompt attention.

Such persons as may prefer having their Wheat manufactured, can have it done immediately and at any time, as our water power is unequalled in the Southern country. There is an excellent water communication from the Mills to Norfolk, and Baltimore, making from that place to Weldon; Flour and other produce can be sent down the river at any time.

To the Western parts of Virginia and North Carolina, and the Eastern parts of Tennessee, is the nearest point of navigation with the Atlantic—and the completion of the Rail Road next fall, from Weldon to Petersburg, and the water communication already from Norfolk, must render Leaksville, at the head of a permanent navigation at the juncture of Dan and Smith's Rivers, a very important point to all that region of country, and will make it in a few years one of the first and best markets in the State.

BARNETT & MOREHEAD.

October 13—6w14

MANSION HOTEL AT THE CORNER OF THE COURT-HOUSE.

The Subscriber announces to the public generally, and her friends and to the former friends of the Hotel—that she will be happy to accommodate all who may favor her with their patronage. She assures them that her best efforts shall be used to render pleasant the entertainment of all such as may call. Her table will be supplied with the best that the country affords, and her Bar with the choicest liquors.

From the many advantages which this stand affords, together with an unceasing effort to please, she flatters herself, that she will be able to render to all the most ample satisfaction.

MARY ALLESTON.

The Office of the Northern & Southern tri-weekly Lines of Stages, also that of the Cheraw and Lincoln Lines, are at the

MANSION HOTEL.

August 14th—1852.

Entertainment

The House lately occupied by Caleb Smoot, on the Main Salisbury, Lexington and Danville road (12 miles south of Salem, and 24 miles North of Salisbury) is now kept by the subscriber as a house of

ENTERTAINMENT.

His house is large and comfortable, his table and beds are good. His stables well supplied with all sorts of Grain and Provender. Every attention will be paid to man and horse, and the charges reasonable.

PHILIP MOCK.

Sept. 8—6w*

BONNETS OF BLUE

NEW, WEEKLY LINE OF FOUR HORSE POST COACHES, From Salem, N. C. To SHOWN'S CROSS ROADS, Carter Co. Tennessee.

This Line passes through the place at Villages of Wilkesborough and Jefferson, in Ashe County, crosses the Blue Ridge at the head of Red's River, which is the Cap. a very favorable, and presents one of the most interesting displays of Mountain Scenery that the Southern country affords. The Stages leave Salem for the West immediately after the arrival of those from Raleigh, N. C. and Washington City, and arrive at Shown's Cross Roads in time for the Knoxville Stages. At Wilkesborough, this line branches by a Stage running twice a week to Morganton passing by Fort Defiance, up the delightful Valley of the Yadkin.

ANOTHER LINE.

Belonging to the Subscriber, running from Salisbury, N. C. twice a week, intersects the above mentioned Line at Wilkesborough, at Salisbury, it meets the Cheraw and Raleigh Stages and the Piedmont Line. The Subscriber also runs a HACK LINE, running from Charlotte to Statesville twice a week. All these Lines are so arranged as to give the traveller the benefit of the intersecting Lines without delay.

Persons wishing to travel from the North to the South-West or West, or from East to West, will find it a Route by Wilkesborough, the most pleasant, cheap and expeditious. The Subscriber flatters themselves that their accommodations will be exceeded by none in this country. Their Coaches are Northern made, and teams first rate, and their drivers accommodating, attentive, sober young men. Fare on either of the Lines for the whole extent Five cents a mile. Way passengers will be charged six and a quarter cents.

Strict care will be taken of a baggage, bundles, &c. and the Subscriber will not be liable for accidents.

SAMUEL & DAVID NEWLAND, PROPRIETORS.

August 20th 1852.—6—6m.

Notice.

BY virtue of the last Will and Testament of John Locke, I will expose to public sale, on the 1st day of January next, at Salisbury, a tract of Land containing between 4 and 5 hundred Acres, Four and Five Hundred ACRES, lying on the Great Road, leading from Salisbury to Beatties' Ford, known by the name of the George Locke place. There is a commodious DWELLING HOUSE on the premises—a quantity of Meadow Land and Low Ground, adapted to the culture of grain. A liberal credit will be given to purchasers.

All persons having claims against the Estate of John Locke, deceased, are requested to present them within the time prescribed by law.

HENRY SLOAN, Executor.

FALL AND WINTER FASHIONS.

HORACE H. BEARD, Respectfully announces to the Public that he has just received of Messrs Wilson & Sarguez, of New York, the Fall and Winter Fashions, for 1852-3.

Which he has no doubt, will please his customers. He continues to have his work done in a neat and fashionable style. It is beyond all doubt, that his CUTTING is superior to any in the neighborhood. His shop is on Main Street, next door to Dr. Duran's.

N. B. He also returns his sincere thanks to his customers and friends, for their liberal patronage, and hopes by a continuance of punctuality and strict attention to his shop, to merit further.

Nov. 10, 1852.—19—1f

Two or three JOURNEMEN TAILORS wanted immediately by the Subscriber.

H. B.

FASHIONABLE BOOT AND SHOE STORE

James Mull

HAVING purchased the new establishment of Thomas Mull Jr. between the Mansion Hotel and the Office of the Watchman, will keep on hand a good supply of every article usual in his line of business. He will also execute all orders for work in his shoe shop neatly and promptly. His workmen are first rate & faithful and his prices such as no one can grumble at. All work done in his shop or purchased from him which may rip, he will repair gratis.

December, 1st 1852.—19—6m.

LINCOLNTON FEMALE ACADEMY.

The trustees respectfully announce to the public, that they have succeeded in renewing their engagement with Miss Angela Thompson to take charge of this Institution. The School will go into operation again on the 15th October.

The branches taught in this Academy, are the rudiments of English, Arithmetic, Geography, History, Chronology, Philosophy, Moral and Physical, Rhetoric, Needle Work, Drawing, Painting, Music and the French Language.

FIFTY NEGROES WANTED.

The Subscriber wishes to purchase Fifty Negroes aged from 14 to 25 years, consisting of WOMEN, MEN, BOYS AND GIRLS to furnish a plantation in the State of Louisiana for which

CASH WILL BE PAID.

Persons having such property will do well to apply immediately at my residence Salisbury N. C. either personally or by letter addressed to me; which shall be punctually attended to.

RICHARD W. LONG.

Dec. 8, 1852.—20—1f

A good House carpenter and a Brick-maker & burner.

The Subscriber wishes to obtain, and will give liberal prices for such.

R. W. L.

Tailoring—Renovated.

Has removed his Tailoring Establishment to the House lately occupied by Mr. Samuel Fraley as a Confectionary Shop, which is a few doors above Mr. Slaughter's Hotel, and is now prepared, as usual, to accommodate all who may favor him with their work. He has just received from New York and Philadelphia, the Latest Fashions, Imported from London and Paris, & has a good number of first rate Workmen in his employ. He will execute work in a style, Superior to any in this part of the country, and will warrant it to fit well. All kinds of Cutting will be done on short notice. All orders for work, from a distance, will be punctually attended to. He is an Agent of Wilson and Sarguez of New York, and also, of Allen Ward, of Philadelphia, and therefore will teach any Tailor those systems of cutting, who may want his instruction. He gratefully returns his sincere thanks to his customers and friends for the liberal patronage which they have bestowed upon him, and hopes that by an assiduous and strict attention to his business, to merit its continuance.

Nov. 24th—1852.—18—6mo.

FARMERS' ACADEMY.

This lately erected Institution is situated about twelve miles North-West from Salem, near the Rev. Michael Domb's. We have succeeded in employing Mr. Wm. W. Burch, to take charge of our Academy, which will go into operation on the first of January, next. The said Burch has had considerable experience in teaching, and is most cordially recommended by the President of our University.

Board, including fire-wood, lodging, candles, washing, &c. can be obtained in respectable families, at the reduced price of $22 (perhaps for less) a Session, which will consist of five months and a half.

The situation is remarkably healthy, and the water is very good. Under the direction of Mr. Burch, students will be prepared for College; Tuition is low. From the favorable situation of our Institution, being away from the dangerous temptations, to which students are exposed about our little villages; the cheapness of board, the morality of the neighborhood; and the reputation of our teacher, &c. we confidently hope to receive the patronage of us of our own, and some of the adjoining counties.

FEMALE Seminary in Statesville.

In consequence of Mr. Caldwell's death, the exercises of the Female Seminary in Statesville, will be suspended until the first Monday in January.

TERMS AS HERETOFORE.

Instruction on the Piano Forte, by Miss E. J. Decker, $20. Some difficulty has always been found in procuring boarding for so large a number of young Ladies as attend this School, consequently it would be highly gratifying to the Teachers, if some Gentleman of strict morality would open a private Boarding-House, for their accommodation. It is probable a commodious House could be obtained for that purpose this Fall.

NO MISTAKE.

THOSE indebted by note or account, to call and make settlement on or before the 20th December next, after that time they will have to settle with my next friend, which will be a disagreeable way of doing business, but necessity compels me to this course. My former patrons will accept my sincere thanks for their liberality towards me in my profession.

We have on hand neatly PRINTED BLANK DEEDS of Bargain & Sale,

containing a covenant of seizin in addition to the usual covenant of quiet enjoyment commonly called a warranty. There is a considerable advantage to the purchaser in this improved form, as it enables him to bring suit sooner as he discovers that he has obtained a bad title—according to the usual form he cannot sue the seller until he has been ousted from his purchase by suit. This is worthy of attention in those who lay out money for land.

We have also on hand BLANK DEEDS OF TRUST, which will answer the common purposes of securing debts.

STATE OF NORTH-CAROLINA—HAYWOOD COUNTY—Superior Court of Law October Term, A. D. 1852.

William Green vs. Keziah Green } Petition for Divorce.

In this case it having been made appear to the satisfaction of the court, that the defendant Keziah Green resides without the limits of this State, so that the ordinary process of the law can not be served on her. It is therefore, ordered by the court that publication be made in the "Carolina Watchman" and in the "North-Carolina Spectator and Western Advertiser" for the term of three months, notifying the defendant to be and appear at a Superior Court of Law to be held for the County of Haywood at the Court House in Waynesville, on the second Tuesday after the fourth Monday in March next, then and there to plead answer or demurr to the petition of the petitioner, otherwise judgment pro confesso, will be entered against her, and decrees made accordingly.

It is further ordered that the Editors of the said papers be required to forward their papers to this office, containing the said three months notice.

JOHN B. LOVE, Clk.

Sergeant Bond related the following anecdote of himself with great good humor:—I once bought a horse from a horse-dealer, warranted sound in all his points. I thought I had got a treasure, but still wished to find out if he had any fault. I, therefore, when I paid for him, said to the seller, Now, my friend, you have got your money, and I the horse, so that the bargain is closed, do you like an honest fellow, tell me of any fault which he has. "Why, says he, as you have dealt with me like a gentleman, and as you ask me to be frank with you, I must tell you that the horse has one fault. I pricked up my ear. "What is it, my friend?" "Why, says he, "it is that he will not go into the yard of the Crown Inn, Uribridge." "Good, good," said I, "if that's all, I am not likely to put him to the trial, as I have nothing to do with, or to lead me to Uribridge. It, however, so happened, that I had occasion to go to Uribridge, and I determined to try if my horse retained his dislike to the yard of the Crown Inn. I accordingly rode up the street until I came opposite to the inn-yard of the Crown. I faced about, said the Sergeant, "seated myself firmly in my stirrups, at the same time exhibiting the attitude in which the feat was to be performed. Expecting a plunge from my horse, I stuck my spurs into his side, and pushed him forward into the yard; but what was my surprise to find him enter the yard as quietly as a cow that had just gone in before him. But I was not long left in doubt of what appeared to be the cause of this change in his antipathies, by the landlord's coming up to him, and tapping him on the shoulder, "Ha, Jack!" says he, "I wanted to see you again; I thought I had lost you!" "What do you mean, Mr. Landlord?" "Six," says he, "this horse was stolen from me about six months ago, and I have never seen him since." I did not much relish this piece of information, said the Sergeant, "but I could not help laughing at the conduct of the horse dealer, to prevent me from going to a place where the thief would be discovered; I wished I had attended to his caution, as the sale was not regular, and I was left to make the best terms I could with the landlord. What they were he kept to himself."—Fraser's Magazine.

Military Courtesy.—General Meadows, equally renowned for his wit and bravery, being on a reconnoitering party in the Mysore country, a twenty-four pound shot struck the ground six some distance from the general, and was passing in such a direction as would have exposed him to danger, had he continued his route. Quick as lightning he stopped his horse, and pulling off his hat very gracefully as the shot fell on, good humoredly said, "let me go on proceed, sir—I never dispute precedence with any gentleman of your family."

Merely A Hint.—We hope our patrons who are in arrears, will "take the hint" intended in our copying the following pithy article—if they do, and act upon it to our satisfaction, we shall not be constrained to speak plainer.

"We 'take our pen in hand,' as our good old grandfathers used to say in writing to their sweethearts, to indite a small chapter on MONEY. It's a fruitful subject, inasmuch as it is the governing principle (if we may be allowed the expression) of mankind, and the axis of human ambition. Money is a good thing—a bad thing—a kind servant—a bad master—a thief in the temple of virtue—a ministering spirit to the needy—a villain in disguise—and, wighal, a sad rake. What opens the fair arms of the young lovely, and blushing girl to the embraces of the old, the infirm, and the ugly? Money. What builds up a fool in the opinion of the world? What causes old Ladies to look kindly upon the advances of a young man to a daughter? Money. What brings complimentary remarks from the old, and humble acknowledgements from the young? Money. What causes young men to struggle for office? Money. What is the criterion of right and wrong? Money. What is the cause of the wrangling, struggling, cheating, brot-beating, shuffling, and bawling, so prevalent among mankind? Money. What in fact is the great standard of human affection? Money. What makes the Printer struggle in the mire of political Money? What leads the editor to inform the public of these facts? Money? What do we require at the hands of our readers? MONEY. Do you take sir? You are the very man we wish to hear from.—Vermont Patriot.

Marriage.—The marriage ceremony is the most interesting spectacle social life exhibits. To see two rational beings, in the glow of youth and hope, which invests life with the halo of happiness, appear together, and openly acknowledging their preference for each other, voluntarily enter in a league of perpetual friendship, and call Heaven and Earth to witness the sincerity of their solemn vows—to think of the endearing complexion, the important consequences, the final separation—the smile that kindles to ecstasy at their union, must at length be quenched in the tears of the mourning survivor! but while life continues, they are to participate in the same joys, to endure the like sorrows, to rejoice and weep in unison. So constant, man; be condescending woman; and what can earth offer so pure as your friendship, so dear as your affection!

A Inevitable Preacher, who rambled in his sermons, when requested to stick to his text, replied, "that scattering shot would hit the next birds."

An Profitable Job.—An Irish tailor who had made a gentleman's coat and waistcoat for small, had orders to take them home and let them out. Some days after, the gentleman inquiring for his garment, was told by the Irishman, that the coat and waistcoat had been sent to fit a countryman of his, he had let them out at eighteen pence a week.

Overnight Hospitality.—An Irishman having occasion to put up a gentleman for the night, showed him round and acquainted him with the particulars, says Patrick, having him the night, how easy I might have passed my week.
