

TERMS.

The Carolina Watchman, is published every week at $1.00 per year, in advance...

No subscription will be taken for less than one year. Advertising will be done at the usual rates...

Six subscribers paying the whole sum in advance, can have the Watchman at $2.50 for one year, and if advanced regularly, will be continued at the same rates afterwards.

All letters to the Editor must be Post paid or they will not be attended to.

Persons addressing the Editor on the business of the Office, will address him as Editor of the Carolina Watchman. Those that write on other business can direct to H. C. Jones.

JEWELRY WORK, AND WATCH AND CLOCK REPAIRING.

JOHN C. PALMER STILL carries on the above business in its various branches. In the house formerly occupied by James B. Hampton, one door above Murphy's store...

Salisbury, Feb. 1833.—29—31.

MILLINERY AND HATS MAKING.

MRS. S. D. PENDELTON LIVES where she has located herself in the Town of Salisbury, next door to the Office of the Watchman...

Dec. 3, 1832.

FEMALE Seminary in Statesville.

IN consequence of Mr. Caldwell's death, the exercises of the Female Seminary in Statesville, will be suspended until the first Monday in January.

TERMS AS HERETOFORE.

Instruction on the Piano Forte, by Miss E. J. Baker, $20. Some difficulty has always been found in procuring boarding for so large a number of young Ladies as attend this School...

M. A. CALDWELL, E. J. BAKER, Teachers.

Statesville, Nov. 14—1832

NOTICE.

THE Co-partnership, heretofore existing between the Subscribers, in the town of Morganton, Burke County, in the Mercantile business, is dissolved by mutual consent...

JOHN CALDWELL, R. C. PEARSON.

Robert C. Pearson, thankful for past favors, informs his friends and the public, that he will continue to carry on the business in Morganton, that he has just received, and is receiving a general assortment in every branch of his business...

STATE OF NORTH-CAROLINA.

HAYWOOD COUNTY.—Superior Court of Law October Term, A. D. 1832.

William Green vs. Petition for Divorce.

Is this case having been made appear to the satisfaction of the court, that the defendant Keziah Green, resides without the limits of this State...

And it is further ordered that the Editors of the said papers, be requested to forward their papers to this office during the said three months.

JOHN B. LOVE, Clerk.

THE WATCHMAN.

Salisbury, Saturday, February 16, 1833.

HORRORS OF BATTLE.

The battle took place on the margin of the Niagara river, upon an extensive plain, which had once been covered with fine farms...

The British troops were seen advancing towards our camp, across the destined field of strife; their waving plumes and scarlet uniforms, exhibit a gay and gorgeous appearance. Their martial music, their firm and rapid step, indicating elastic hopes and high courage...

Salisbury, Feb. 1833.—29—31.

and some who inspired a few minutes' rest of life. Complaints of bodily pain, of constipation of unrepented crimes, burst from the souls of many in heart rending accents...

Many gallant spirits there were on that sanguined plain, who prayed silently; and some who dared not pray, and yet scorned to murmur. Their compressed lips bespeak their firmness; their eyes wandered wistfully over the bright scene that was fading before them...

From the Winchester Virginian, Jan. 16.

We have been furnished with the following particulars from a fracas which occurred in Morgan County, on the 29th ult. and which resulted, as will be seen, in the death of the parties.

A year or two ago an unfortunate matrimonial connection was formed between a man named Hugh Magee, an itinerant trader, living in one of the counties of Berkeley or Jefferson, and a daughter of Wm. Thornburg, a respectable citizen of Morgan.

Salisbury, Feb. 1833.—29—31.

The following Extract of a Letter from a gentleman on a visit to the Eastern States, to his friend in Washington, has been handed us for publication:

Providence, Jan. 26, 1833.

With that part of New England which I have seen, I am delighted. Though my journey has been rapid, yet I have visited some of the principal manufactures, and am agreeably surprised to find them in so great a state of perfection...

I wish most sincerely every person who represents any portion of the West, could have even the limited opportunity I have had; of seeing this country...

The Portland Courier says—the report that there has been a number of cases of malignant cholera at Hollis, in York county appears to be confirmed. Dr. Clark of this city, who has visited several of the patients, says the symptoms agree perfectly with those he witnessed at New York...

CHOLERA IN MAINE.

The Portland Courier says—the report that there has been a number of cases of malignant cholera at Hollis, in York county appears to be confirmed. Dr. Clark of this city, who has visited several of the patients, says the symptoms agree perfectly with those he witnessed at New York...

SLAVER CAPTURED.

A Spanish brig, with 394 slaves on board was captured by the British Brig of War, Victor, on the south side of the island of Cuba, and sent into Havana on the 14th ult.

Some time ago, say about 1829, some merry soul at the eastward nominated Lorenzo Dow as a candidate for the presidency.

Following Citizens—I shall not offer myself as a candidate for the Presidency—not viewing my natural and acquired talents adequate to the approaching awfully important station...

LORENZO DOW.

December 20th, 1830.

N. B.—Printers throughout the United States will please give the above an insertion.

The Rev. Mr. Dow, as we learn, has inferred from an examination of the prophecies; that this period will be one of general disturbances in the moral and political world.

So Mr. Dow was not considered a candidate; but aside from his modesty, which was altogether commendable, he may now claim higher praise.

Fayetteville Obs.

If a State has a right to secede, and thereby to dissolve the Union, so far as she is concerned—She may exercise it at one time as well as another.

Greenville Mountaineer.

New York, Jan. 25.

We have been informed that three gentlemen in this city stand ready to give the Corporation security to pay the city $50,000 for the privilege of a rail road to run from Fourteenth street to Wall Street...

Salisbury, Feb. 1833.—29—31.

Great Sale of Real Estate.

By a reference to another column of this paper, the public will perceive another evidence of the great and increasing prosperity of this city...

By a reference to another column of this paper, the public will perceive another evidence of the great and increasing prosperity of this city—we allude to the sales of real estate—the property of the late William W. Gilchrist...

Congress of the U. States.

IN SENATE.

Friday, February 1.

REVENUE COLLECTION BILL.

The Senate proceeded to consider the bill to provide further for the collection of the duties on imports.

Mr. Frelinghuysen said that this bill presented to the Senate a most interesting and momentous question. The Chief Magistrate of the United States has, by a special message, applied for Legislative aid to enable him faithfully to execute the laws of the United States...

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence.

These overtures were all thrown back on the elements of social existence. The people were then the only sovereigns. It was an expression of old Chief Justice Jay: the only sovereigns of the United States are the people; and they are sovereigns without subjects, inasmuch as they have only to govern themselves.