Books at Newspaper Postage.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS.

NOVEL AND IMPORTANT LITERARY ENTERPRISE!!

Novels, Tales, Biography, Voyages, Travels, Reviews, and the News of the day.

It was one of the great objects of "Waldie's Library," "to make good reading cheaper, and to bring literature to every man's door." That object has been accomplished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the secluded, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible; we gave and continue to give in the quarto library a volume weekly for two cents a day: we now propose to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a week, and to add as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves.

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favorite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January 1837, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspaper of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels &c., select in their character, joined with reading such as would fill a weekly newspaper By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enliven and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sceptical shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go" No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.

TERMS.

Waldie's Literary Omnibus will be issued every Friday morning, printed on paper of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain,

1st. Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London duodecimo volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c and only chargeable with newspaper postage.

2d. Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from "the world of letters," of every description.

3d. The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but to sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal events, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.

The price will be two dollars to clubs of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars; single mail subscribers, three dollars. The discount on incurrent money will be charged to the remitters; the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount.

On no condition will a copy ever be sent until the payment is received in advance

As the arrangements for the prosecution of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor has redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, no fear of the non-fulfillment of the contract can be felt The Omnibus will be regularly issued, and will contain in a year reading matter equal in amount to two volumes of Rees's Cyclopedia, for the small sum mentioned above.

Address, post paid,

ADAM WALDIE.

$50 REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber two negro slaves, viz. TONEY and JOHN. Toney is about 35 years of age, five feet nine or ten inches high, dark complexion, square and stout built; and had on when he left, a bright drab Peter sham overcoat. He was purchased by me of Mr Richard Bradley of Wilmington, and calls himself Toney Montague. John is about twenty years of age, of rather lighter complexion than Toney, about five feet 10 inches high, and is quite stout built—has a full round face, and has lost two front teeth above and below, which is his most distinguishing mark. He had on when he left, a light grey woolen round Jacket and pantaloons

The above slaves left the camp of the subscriber while on his way to the Western country, eight miles above Lincolnton, on 28th of last month, and will no doubt endeavor to make their way back to Wilmington. The above reward will be given for their apprehension, so that I get them again.

THE second annual instalment on the subscription to this Institution is now due. It is hoped that the Subscribers will meet it promptly: The collectors appointed in the several congregations last year are requested to act in the same capacity this year. The present will of necessity, be the year of greatest expense; as the Institution will go into operation on the first of March next Are there not some who feel an interest in this enterprize, who have, as yet, given it no pecuniary assistance?—and will they not now, in this the time of its greatest need, lend a helping hand? Who will give us books for the Library? It was suggested to one congregation, that each one having the ability should present the Library one or more volumes, as a New Year's Gift. This suggestion has brought in several valuable books. It is proposed that the friends of the Institution in all other congregations act on the hint. Let each one give, at least one volume. The Books may be put in the hands of the pastors of the respective congregations. Books on any subject will be thankfully received. Will the pastors bring the subject before their congregations?
